

DR. AND MRS. DAVIS RECEIVE FIRST COPY OF KANAKADEA

Phi Psi Omega And Phi Sigma Gamma Tap Pledges; Student Senate Conducts Elections

V. Wessels Elected To Head Senior Class

Presentation of the first copy of the 1934 Kanakadea to President and Mrs. Davis in appreciation of their service and loyalty to Alfred University, marked an unusually full Assembly program, last Thursday. With the dedication of the book to them by the Junior class president, Virginia Smathers, a stirring applause broke forth in the Assembly to pay tribute to the President and his wife.

In responding to the dedication, President Davis, speaking for himself and Mrs. Davis, who stood at his side, said that the day was a memorable one for them as it was their fortieth wedding anniversary. President Davis very briefly told how those forty years had been spent in the interest of Alfred, thirty-eight of them in serving Alfred as its president, and he showed what those years had meant to them both. He told how this Kanakadea would be prized along with all the other volumes of the Kanakadea of which the Davises have a complete set.

Following the dedication of the Kanakadea, Phi Sigma Gamma, Women's Honorary Fraternity, tapped four new members; one Senior, two Juniors and one Sophomore. They were: Natalie Shepherd, Miriam Walton, Elsie Bonnet and Evelyn Zeiler. The Men's Honorary Fraternity, Phi Psi Omega, ten tapped one member, Ross Cibella.

Subsequently, the voting for the Men's and Women's Loyalty Medals followed. Contrary to past custom, only men were allowed to vote on the nominees for the Men's Loyalty Medal, and the women on those for the Women's Loyalty Medal. The three highest in this elimination will be voted upon in next week's Assembly.

Following the elections for the Student Life Committee and the Athletic Association, the two-reel motion picture, "The Man of the Hour," was shown. This picture portrayed the public career of Franklin D. Roosevelt up to the present, and was intended to show his indomitable will, force of character, and qualities of leadership which fit him for the immense task he now has on hand.

Immediately after Assembly the three lower classes met separately to hold their individual elections under the new Student Senate regulations. The present Sophomore class held at the same time elections for the Kanakadea. Results of all elections will be found in the Who's Who column.

DEAN HOLMES ATTENDS CONFERENCE OF DEANS

Dean M. E. Holmes represented the Ceramic College of Alfred at the conference of the deans of all engineering colleges of New York State; a conference held in New York City, May 12th, and called by Dr. H. H. Horner, the Assistant Commissioner of Higher Education in New York state. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the degrees to be granted to graduates in Engineering, and, also, the new state law which requires engineering graduates to take an examination before receiving a license to practice his profession in this state. The head of every engineering college in the state, including Columbia and Cornell was present.

The entire matter was thoroughly discussed, with each institution presenting its policies in detail. Full agreement was reached on a radical change in the degrees to be conferred, and on the administration of the new state law regarding the licensing of prospective practicing engineers.

SENIOR CHAPEL SERVICE

During the past three years, there has been held on Moving Up Day, a Senior Chapel Service, at the usual Chapel hour, 10 o'clock. When the present Seniors entered Alfred, Chaplain McLeod began his work as Director of Religious Activities, and he is hopeful that the Class of 1933, will attend 100 percent. The Chapel service will be held on Thursday, May 25th, at 10 A. M. It is not a service from which the other classes are excluded, but to which they are all cordially invited.

HENNING ELECTED TO HEAD FIAT LUX

Stafford, Business Manager

William Henning, recently-elected sports associate of the Fiat Lux, was almost unanimously chosen as the Editor-in Chief of the Fiat Lux for next year, in the meeting held at the Gothic, Tuesday night. Both the business and editorial staffs voted in the selection of Henning as their head for the coming year.

Donald Stafford received the post of Business Manager by popular vote of both staffs on the recommendation of Eugene Crandall, retiring manager. His consistent service as circulation manager won him his position.

With the withdrawal of Elsie Bonnet as Assistant Editor-Elect, Dorothy Eaton succeeded to the position as second highest on the ballot. Only one reporter, Elsie Hall, was deemed eligible for associate editor by the associate staff and was so elected by the staff. An elimination will be held at the beginning of next year to fill the other vacancy. Mary Olney will take Elsie Hall's place as reporter.

As assistants to Donald Stafford, Francis Danaher and Ralph Williams were chosen. Danaher will be in charge of the circulation department of the paper, while Williams will be responsible for the advertising department.

Dr. Seidlin Appointed To Editorial Staff of Math Journal

In the last issue of the "Mathematics News Letter," a magazine for teachers and students of mathematics, we find Joseph Seidlin, Alfred University, on the Editorial Board. Upon further inquiry we learn that Dr. Seidlin has been appointed Associate Editor in charge of the Department of College Teaching of Mathematics. We understand that it is the first time in the history of national publications that a department devoted solely to the teaching of college mathematics has been established. Prior to his acceptance of a position on the editorial staff, Dr. Seidlin was an occasional contributor.

The choice of Dr. Seidlin for this work is an excellent one and Alfred is to be congratulated on the wide recognition given the work of one of her professors.

FROSH-SOPH RIVALRY RENEWED IN FIGHT

Cracking of paddles by several lusty Freshmen welders of this ancient mode of punishment initiated a revival of Freshmen-Sophomore rivalry at about ten o'clock, last Wednesday evening. Gathering of Freshmen in Bartlett Dormitory and a rousing class yell were the clouds which gave signs of the impending storm.

Some seventy Frosh invaded the Theta Nu house as a warm up with several Sophs receiving the warming. Delta Sig was the next stop, where a rather cold reception awaited them. Undaunted, they gathered up the three Sophs available and began to make the reception committee a little warmer. However, the ire of these two Soph groups was aroused by this time and they soon recruited many of their compatriots.

With this increase in the size of the Soph number, things became interesting as some twenty Sophs met a somewhat larger but less experienced group of Frosh and received interest and usury on a long due debt. In fact, the whacking became so loud that it soon reached the ears of the main group of Freshmen and brought them on the run. And, then, the Sophs took a (censored by the Sophomore class).

CERAMIC GUILD ELECTS OFFICERS FOR 1933-34

Officers for the coming year were elected at a meeting of the Ceramic Guild last Wednesday, May 17th. The following were chosen: Mary Train as president; Mary Olney, vice president; and Frances Douglas, treasurer.

MOVING UP DAY TO BE HELD IN ASSEMBLY

To Vote On Loyalty Medals

Moving Up Day will be officially celebrated by the annual ceremony of the passing of the Senior came to the newly elected president of the class of 1934, in the Assembly program, Thursday. At this time, Ralfe Klinger, present president of the Senior class, will pass the cane to Vincent Wessels and declare all classes to have moved up one year.

As no candidate received a majority of votes in the elections for Loyalty Medals held in last week's Assembly, the three highest candidates will be placed on the ballot and voted on at the beginning of the program. These votes will be counted in time to announce the winners and present the medals at the conclusion of the Assembly.

As the main part of the day's schedule, athletic awards for spring sports will be made by the coaches of the respective sports.

Clark And Scobie Tie For Individual Score

Drenching rain accompanied Alfred's dampening hopes as Hamilton College gradually forged ahead to win the New York State Conference meet with seventy-one points and to nullify the efforts of this year's Saxon squad to snatch the crown from the Buff and Blue. The Purple trailed in a close second place with 64½ points, after several minor upsets that gave Hamilton their victory margin. Rochester threatened to take second from the Saxons until final results of the relay and javelin swelled the Saxon scoring column. However, Rochester with 58 points easily beat St. Lawrence with 17 points.

Vincent Wessels shone as a star among stars to crack the conference record for the half-mile, formerly held by Emil Zschiegner, past Saxon star. Wessels, starting behind the field, gradually crept up with the leaders to sprint the entire last lap and place much ground between him and the nearest competitor for a finish in the fast time of 1:59.9. Previously, Wessels had tied with Java in the mile run to make his later performance more remarkable.

Clark of Alfred and Scobie of Hamilton, so-called one man track teams, tied for individual honors with fourteen points apiece, after outstanding performances. Clark drew firsts in the high jump and pole vault and a second in the broad jump. Winning the pole vault easily at 11 feet 2 inches, but failing by a breath to vault twelve-six for a new record, the Saxon star followed to out-jump Harer of Hobart, holder of the record in the high jump, by clearing the bar at 5 feet 9½ inches.

Wallace, nosed out by inches in the hundred by Scobie, sought and received his revenge as he showed his Continued on page four.

No Politics!

The Fiat Lux wishes to congratulate the Student Senate and the college body for having held an election totally void of politics and political combines. In this respect the Alfred elections this year were unique and worthy of commendation.

The new Student Senate was re-organized in the present form with the avowed purpose of ending all political maneuvering. It was first suggested by the Interfraternity Council with this in view. That they have succeeded so well warrants their continuance and the backing of the entire student body.

Renewal of Frosh-Soph Rivalry and Proc Fights

Dogs must fight cats and Frosh must fight the Sophs. This is a rule that with a few exceptions has been so imbred and become so instinctive to all as necessary to a college career that its permanence is assured. But before accepting this statement, let us weigh the advantages and disadvantages of this type of rivalry.

First and foremost comes the threat of impending injury. But, at Alfred, this threat is nullified by size of groups, clean sportsmanship at fights, and the restriction of the fight to wrestling and a little paddling, which at its worst only hurts the feelings. Then, there is the other disadvantage that some of the varsity athletes might become handicapped, but this in the past has been negligible.

On the other hand, a clean, tiring fight relieves much of the tension and pentup emotion of rivalry that exists among these two groups. The pure enjoyment of a good battle is long remembered and recounted as one of the landmarks of one's Frosh and Soph days. Is this to be discounted from the assets of such rivalry?

As a diversion it is never equaled by athletic events, dances, or any other activity, for no activity can approach the atmosphere of tension and excitement that prevails at a Frosh-Soph battle. Since no great tragedy seems imminent to mar such diversion, why not accept its permanence as a college function?

Since there is so much in favor of this rivalry and since it is fairly inevitable at some time, why not renew the Proc fights which have been a tradition at Alfred for many years? Is an unorganized and unsupervised fight less dangerous?

IN OTHER COLLEGES

If you like your steak rare you must abandon any plans for a trip to China, according to Ho Cheng Chai of Peking, graduate student at the University of Minnesota.

"We rarely cook any meat less than two or three hours," Chai says. "Most of the food in this country is not cooked long enough".

Chai and Kuei Lu, also a graduate student, do their own cooking, after trying various restaurants and finding "half done" food in all of them.

"We don't have chop suey in China," Chai declared emphatically. "There is an art to combining foods."

Chop suey, he said, seems to apply to variety of so-called Chinese foods. Of course the Chinese have some food that is similar to these mixtures, but in this country, "Nothing tastes right," he sighed.

Education is more economical than crime. The National Education Association, in a recent announcement, estimates the yearly cost of keeping a man in prison and a child in school at $3,000 and $1,000 respectively. We think it a good argument for a better school system.—The Ambrosian News.

Would you prefer a cool million dollars or a perfect love affair? According to tests made by Dr. N. W. Marster at Radcliffe, Tufts, and Columbia, all the men prefer the million dollars, while ninety-two per cent of the girls wanted the love affair.

The Student Weekly quotes the following as being among the new rules in force at the University of Missouri: No girl can take a taxi without the permission of the dean of women; no girl can take a bath before six in the morning.

In an attempt to barricade a sophomore dance the frosh, 400 strong, blocked the entrance of the hotel in which the Cornell sophs had hired the hall. Upon arriving, the sophs were forced to wait almost an hour for their ranks to increase in order for them to break the freshman barricade of the entrance. During the fracas it is estimated that about 100 tuxs bit the dust.

The Education Sun tells us that the meanest man in the world has been found. He is a professor at Syracuse, who, while lying in bed recuperating from an appendicitis operation, was reluctant to forego the daily torture of his students. Accordingly, with the aid of a microphone, telephone exchange, and a radio loud speaker, he gave a lecture to his five hundred chemistry students.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

"42 Street," that show that has swept the country to take people by storm, that has had long runs in every theatre, that all are willing to see for the second and third times, is coming to Alfred as the feature for the Thursday show of the Alfred Cooperative Movies. Mussolini will then speak in the Saturday show in the movie, "Mussolini Speaks".

To those who follow the movies, it is unnecessary to state that this is one of the hits of the year. Even the great Paul Whiteman remarked that it was one of the greatest of musicals. Its tunes have been played and plugged over every radio hookup and are heard on the lips of all. Its acting and dancing as portrayed by a fourteen star cast is unsurpassable. As added attractions, the "Whale of a Yarn," will be shown. Comparable with the tall story artist that was in Assembly lately, this picture will present interesting pictures of an expedition to Alaska, under the leadership of William Finley. The comedy for the show will be "Lighthouse Keeping".

Whether you are interested in World affairs or not, you will be interested in the movie "Mussolini Speaks," as interpreted by Lowell Thomas. Many things that have never been understood about this man will be cleared up to show how this blacksmith's son became one of the men of the hour. "Vendetta," a two-reel operalogue suggested by Vavalleria Rusciana, and "Barnyard Olympics," a cartoon, will complete the program.

A SAD DEATH

The news of one of Alfred's infrequent tragedies reached here last Monday, with word of the death of Katherine Virginia Wilkes. She was this year enrolled as a Freshman in the Applied Art course; but was forced to leave college in February, due to a serious illness. It is understood that Miss Wilkes had always suffered from severe heart trouble; when she contracted a cold here, her condition was soon so dangerous that her family removed her to her home in Kenmore. Word had been received recently of her improvement, and the news of her death came as a tragic shock to her friends.

Kappa Psi Formal

Kappa Psi Upsilon held a formal dinner dance at the Hornell Country Club, Saturday night.

The clubhouse was decorated with crepe paper and tinsel in black and gold, the fraternity's colors.

Music was provided by the Rambler's orchestra.

Chaperones and guests included: Professor and Mrs. Campbell, Professor and Mrs. Ross, Professor and Mrs. Whitford, Professor and Mrs. Wingate, Mrs. Rutter, LaVerne Bauer, Al Brush, Jack Weafer, and Chick Zschiegner.

Klan Formal

The spring formal of Klan Alpine Fraternity took place at Cuba, Saturday night, at the pavillion over-looking Cuba Lake.

After the dinner, music for dancing was provided by Fitzgerald's orchestra.

Many Alumni attended the dance. Among them were Howard Splitt, Robert Flint, John Hambel, Louis Graham, Lee Armstrong and Eugene Reynolds.

Faculty guests and chaperones included: Chaplain and Mrs. McLeod, Professor and Mrs. Seidlin, Professor and Mrs. Rice and Dean and Mrs. Holmes.

The Brooklyn College speech clinic shows that five men stutter to every woman. Local diction catches ninety, fifty lisp, and twenty percent of the students have "L" and "R" defects.

"DAS DEUTSCHE VEREIN" ELECTS OFFICERS

"Das Deutsche Verein" met last Thursday evening in Alumni Hall to elect officers for the coming year. The following were elected: President, Roberta Clarke; vice president, Loretta Thompson; secretary, Frances Douglass; and treasurer, Helen Olney. Plans were also discussed for a picnic to be held next Friday afternoon.

YEARLINGS SCORE 82 POINTS TO TAKE TRIANGULAR MEET

Rochester And Cook Trail With 36½ and 17½ Points; Bassage, Oldfield and Gianassio Star

Five records were smashed and another tied, as Alfred University's yearling spikemen triumphed over University of Rochester freshmen and Cook Academy's team at Merrill Field, Friday afternoon. The Saxons garnered 82 points to Rochester's 36½ and Cook's 17½.

All of the new records were made by Alfred athletes. Frank Gianassio tied the 100 yard dash mark and broke the 220 yard sprint time. Barney Oldfield cracked the mile record and also the 440 yard time. Sutherby of Hornell established a new javelin distance, while MacNamara set a new record for the 220 low hurdles. Hayward, although not winning first place, set a new shot put distance.

Giannassio and Oldfield were perhaps the outstanding Saxon athletes of the meet, although Minnick, Sutherby and Hodges proved themselves by garnering places to provide good team balance. Both Giannassio and Oldfield were tied for scoring honors with 11½ points, followed closely by Minnick, who won places in several events to pile up a total of 11 1-3 points. Bassage of Rochester was high man of the meet with 15½ points.

With the smashing victory, the Saxon yearlings socked all pre-meet dope of a close meet for a loop. In the running events six out of a possible seven first places were taken, while two out of six firsts were garnered in the field. In almost every event, the Purple acquired the bulk of the points allowed for the first four places.

Oldfield inaugurated the spectacular triangular affair with the cracking of the mile record, which has stood for some five or six years, ever since Emil Zschiegner was a freshman. Oldfield, former Buffalo scholastic champion, with a 4:34 time lowered the former record by 1 2-5 seconds, to lead Phillips of Rochester by many yards to the tape. Prior and Minnick took third and fourth.

In the field events, Sutherby, Schlafer, Minnick and Heyward took many places to give the wearers of the Purple a substantial victory for the meet. Sutherby took the javelin with a hurl of almost a hundred and fifty feet, and then tied with Schlafer and Minnick in the pole vault at nine feet four inches. Heyward's throw in the shot put was only surpassed by that of Malone, which broke the Freshman record in that event.

Bassage, the Yellow Jackets' mainstay, leaped twenty-one feet seven inches to take an easy first in the broad jump. However, Minnick, Hodges and Schlafer gathered the remaining points in this event to swell the scoring column.

As a fitting finish for their complete victory, the Saxon relay team battled it out with the Rochester quartet to place the Purple in the front at the finish. Although Rochester pressed the home sprinters at all time, yet at no time were they in danger of being passed.

Frosh Trim Alfred H. S. In Tennis Tourney

The Freshman Tennis team has made excellent showings in the two matches played so far this season. Two weeks ago they trounced the team of Hornell High School to the tune of 6-0. Last Wednesday, they nosed out a strong Alfred High team, 3-2. Coach Bassett can look forward to some good prospects for next year in the form of George Woloshin, Stuart Schatz, Ernest Kessler, Thomas Sutherby and Roland Rosenberg.

The results of the Alfred High match follow:

Singles

Phil Brundage (High School)—Woloshin (Frosh) 6-3, 6-2.

Schatz (Frosh)—Dudley (High School) 6-2, 6-1.

Sutherby (Frosh)—Robert Henshaw (High School) 6-2, 8-6.

Doubles

Brundage and Dudley—Woloshin and Schatz 3-6, 9-7, 7-5.

Kessler and Rosenberg—Turck and Henshaw 6-0, 6-3.

Alfred Frosh and Hornell High: Woloshin (A)—Blackner (H) 6-2, 6-8, 6-4.

Kessler (A)—Goodrich (H) 6-0, 6-1.

Sutherby (A)—Sheheen (H) 6-4, 5-7, 6-4.

Orchids to the Track team for their splendid showing at the Conference Meet. Every man on the squad did his utmost, and the strong Hamilton team was forced to the best all around performance of the year in order to shake off the strong bid made by the Saxons. To Coach Galloway and Coach McLane, must go high praise for bringing along many new men built around a veteran nucleus, in order that Alfred might acquit itself in commendable fashion.

The iron man performance of Scoby of Hamilton was well matched by the splendid performances of Clark, Wessels, Java, Wallace and Whaley. Beaten in the hundred by Scoby, Wallace came back in the 220 to take the flashy Scoby by five yards in the furlong event. Clark had to compete with the elements in the pole vault or another State record would have been made. Wet take offs, and rainsoaked poles are not conducive to records. Perhaps the most remarkable performance of the day was that by Wessels in setting a new record in the 880 of 1:59, on a wet track, after having tied Java in the mile a few minutes before.

In retrospect may we venture the comment that the prospects were never brighter than they are for next year's track team. A pretentious schedule should be undertaken for the return of Clark, Wallace, Whaley, Wessels, Java, augmented by the several freshmen who performed so well against Rochester and Cook on Friday will give the coaches the answer to every mentor's prayer—specialist for each event. The various individuals will be able to concentrate on a single event and not have to double up particularly in the middle distances.

With the IC4A Meet coming up next Saturday, the various stars showed themselves in record performances last Saturday. Yale in defeating Harvard lays rightful claim to the Big Three Championship and the individual performance of Brown in the Pole Vault and High Jump was unexcelled. The two events were run simultaneously which makes Brown's exhibition all the more remarkable in clearing 14 feet and ½ inch, and leaping 6 feet 6½ inches in the high jump. In this most spectacular double in the history of the track and field sports, Brown set two dual meet records, two all time Yale records, one eighteen years old, and two IC4A collegiate records.

Next Saturday, the great Ben Eastman, of Stanford, who was apparently to have the field to himself in the 400 meters, will be pushed to the limit by Karl Warner of Yale, who cracked off 48 seconds for the event on Saturday and coasted part of the way at that! It is rumored that Eastman may not run 400, but just the 800 because of a pulled tendon which is not yet completely healed. Fuqua of Indiana is another great performer in the 400 meters, and Ward of Michigan, negro flash is quite likely to lead the Big Ten Champs close to the top. Stanford, California and S. California have great performers, but Yale for the east and Michigan for the Middle west will force the coast stars to record times and distances.

Incidentally, every man who wins will establish a new record in the running events, for this is the first year the IC4A has been run with meter distances. Every event is wide open with McCluskey of Fordham the only man likely to retain his title. This great runner is a remarkable competitor, never beaten in college competition and at his best under fire. It is our bet that Bill Bonthron of Princeton could take him but the triple threat man of the orange will run only the 800 and 1500, unless a change is made.

heels to the field in the 220 yard dash and led Scobie by more than nine feet at the finish. Wallace, also, showed his ability as a runner by his sterling performance in the relay in spite of a bad toe. Ryskind edged out Ruland in the hundred, but could not maintain the pace in the longer race and failed to place.

If there ever was an iron man, Java deserves that honor for running three and a half miles for a tie for first, a second, and a fourth place. In the mile he romped in hand in hand with Wessels and later trailed close on Wessels' to place fourth in the half. Although Rushman of St. Lawrence easily outdistanced him in the two mile, Java showed the rest of the field his heels for a second.

Captain Lou Schuman of Rochester, ran away out in front in both the hurdle events to send his successful college track career. The Purple failed to place any men in either of these races and undoubtedly lost the meet for this reason. Hamilton received a setback in the trials for the low hurdles when Bellaty, conference title man and olympic man, coasted in and failed to qualify as another man nosed him at the tape. Schauman was on his way to breaking the low hurdles record when he tripped on one hurdle and lost his stride.

Captain Merck of Alfred received tough breaks in both the trials and finals of the 440 yard dash. Starting slow both times, he was boxed in and had to run around the whole field to place. However, as lead-off in the relay, Merck showed his stuff and gave Wessels an ample lead to work on. He also tied for third in the pole vault to add points to Alfred's score. In the relay, Corsaw took the baton from Wessels ran a beautiful lap against Scobie to practically hold his own and gave the stick to Wallace for the winning lap.

In the throwing events, Alfred showed its weakness, although Whaley crashed through with a second in the javelin, coming within a few feet of the winning throw of Gregory of St. Lawrence. Towner and Chamberlain took fifth places in the javelin and shot put respectively. Whaley also featured in a triple tie with Doc Commons, formerly of Alfred and now of Buffalo, and Harer of Hobart when he jumped the highest in his career.

ENDS COLLEGE TRACK CAREER

Captain Walter Merck

Captain Walter Merck ended his career as Captain of the 1933 track squad that concluded a successful season at Rochester, Saturday. As a Freshman, and later on the Varsity squad, Merck's running in the quarter, 220 and relay has earned many points for Alfred. His pole vaulting has also helped him as a consistent point winner.

VARSITY TENNIS TEAM ENDS SEASON WITH BUFFALO REFEAT

The Varsity Tennis Team completed their season last Saturday with a 4-0 defeat at the hands of Buffalo University at Buffalo. The team, handicapped by rained-out games and games scheduled for four consecutive dates, came through with one victory, one tie, and four defeats. They opened at Mansfield State Teachers College with a 7-1 defeat, Captain Rinzler winning the only match. On May 9th, they lost to Canisius College at Buffalo, 4-2. Kuite won his match and the doubles team of Kuite and Van Horn took another. On May 11th, Mansfield played a return match at Alfred, and here we made a better showing, but lost, 5-4. Rinzler, Kuite, Dickens and Horowitz each took a singles match, but Alfred lost out in the doubles.

The Alfred netmen won their first match at Buffalo State Teachers College with a 4-2 victory. Rinzler, Kuite and Dickens won their singles matches and Kuite and Van Horn took a doubles match. In the return meet with Buffalo State all the Alfred team could manage was a 3-3 tie.

In the final meet with Buffalo University, Kuite, Van Horn and Dickens played their last match for Alfred, but Coach Bassett will have a nucleus next year with Rinzler and Horowitz, and the members of the Frosh team, who have made a good showing thus far.
