

AU softball team drops two to Ithaca

4/17/05

ITHACA, NY -- The Alfred University softball team was swept in a doubleheader at Ithaca Saturday afternoon. AU (12-12, 2-6 Empire 8) lost the first game, 13-0 in five innings, before falling 14-0 in five innings in the second contest. AU was hurt by errors, with eight miscues in the doubleheader leading to a combined 16 unearned runs. In the first game, AU was held to three hits, each singles, by junior outfielder Adrienne Egglinger (Amityville, NY/Amityville Memorial), senior outfielder Courtney Briganti (Canisteo, NY/Canisteo) and sophomore third baseman Lauren Mastin (Springwater, NY/Wayland-Cohocton). Junior Brittany Curran (Alfred, NY/Alfred-Almond) pitched four innings and allowed 13 runs (five earned) on 12 hits. In the second game, Briganti got Alfred's lone hit. Curran went five innings on the mound, allowing 14 runs (six earned) on 13 hits while striking out two. Alfred is in action next on Thursday, April 21, at 3 p.m. for a doubleheader against visiting St. John Fisher. The games will be played at Alfred State College.
