WELSH HUMORIST SPEAKS IN ASSEMBLY

Students were given the opportunity Thursday of hearing the Assembly present a Welsh humorist, Dr. Alfred W. Evans, who also is known as "Glas, the Welsh Version of Other Erns." Their great enjoyment of the lecturer's stories and jokes was evidenced by continual bursts of laughter and applause.

Dr. Evans, who resides in Wades, educated in Scotland and spent twenty- two years in Great Britain. One day, happening to look through the iron railings of a churchyard in his home town of Crewe he discovered the remains of the man who lived "around the tombstone of Elia Yole. Elia" was his first introduction to Americans. During his youth he had made many speeches and he believes now that the Oldest "bruisers" on the statute books, with the Smith, Hall, Babcock, and Mulligan of Rochester tabloid, are certainly the most "bruisers" on the statute books of Alfred.

The thing that made me an American citizen," Dr. Evans declared, "was the day I discovered the community mindedness, the love of athletic competition, the beauty of the national anthem, the unity which exhibited America has taken the various races of our country, and America has given us variety just shy. She has lived up to her promise, and by this one action the Alfred men have made one united nation from many.

The intimated knowledge of history, the knowledge of how to play the game, displayed, perfect against an international team. Even the enemy, was a plenty of real humor made his speech a hit in the eyes of most of the students.

SENIOR REPORTS ON CAMPUSS PROBLEMS

On Wednesday night the Student Senate met in the auditorium for the last time this year, at which time they discussed some of the major problems which face them this year. The Senate recommends that the Athletic Governing Board abstain from any plan of leasing the Ceramic Room until the Sophomore and Freshmen class under the leadership of the Student Senate shall have had the privilege of observing the Ceramic Room. The Senate, in order to bring about a closer contact (1896) "You're not the Slave, Remarkable Rescue, A Littlepressed to play: Smith, Hall, Babcock, and Mulligan of Rochester to finish the Alfred scoring.
