

Student newspaper design editor chosen for NYPA internship

5/04/05

Adrienne Egglinger, a junior Communication Studies major at Alfred University, is one of nine students to receive a paid summer internship through the Howard Palmer Internship Program offered by the New York Press Association. Egglinger will spend eight weeks working under co-publisher Denise Civiletti at the Times/Review Newspapers, based in Riverhead, NY. The company publishes the Suffolk Times, the News Review, Shelter Island Reporter and North Shore Sun. Egglinger has been design editor for the Fiat Lux, Alfred University's student-run newspaper. A graduate of Amityville Memorial High School, Egglinger is the daughter of Stephen and Diane Egglinger of Bryan Avenue, Amityville.
