Students Plan Big Pop Rally Thursday Nite

Will Meet At 7:15 O'clock In front of Post Office - Banquet At Athletic Field - Late Permission Granted To Attend Show

One of the biggest parades ever staged for an Alfred University football team will be held tonight to aid in the 1934 gridiron cause. Coach Al G. Hopkins and Chuck Reilly will conduct the parade, which will be held in front of the post office before starting down the hill for the field behind the college.

Parade will be led by the student body and the cheerleaders will be in charge.

The center of the parade will be occupied by the football team in the formation of a rectangle, the back line being turned slightly to either side. The cheerleaders will be in the center of the cross. The cheerleaders will be in uniform except for blue carnations in the tie. The football team will be lined up with the left tackle on the line of the parade. The right tackle will be in the rear of the line of the parade, with the left guard in the middle of the line, and the right guard in front of the line. The left end will be placed in the rear of the line, with the right end in the front of the line. The center will be placed in the middle of the line, with the left tackle in the front of the line, and the right tackle in the rear of the line.

The students will be dressed in their finest attire, with the women wearing white dresses and the men wearing white trousers and shirts with ties.

The band will be led by the drum major, with the buglers in the front and the drummers in the rear. The band will play "Onward Christian Soldiers" as the parade reaches the field.

The parade will conclude with the presentation of the Gilbert Gaither trophy to the student body, who will then proceed to the banquet. The banquet will be held in Alumni Hall, and will feature a buffet dinner, with speeches and entertainment.

Enrolment Not Completed - However - 20 Freshmen in Upper Class Students

Total registrations for Alfred University's College of Liberal Arts and Sciences of the 1934-35 year were today even with those of last year, according to official reports. Of the 560 students enrolled, only 8 are upperclassmen, and two at home. Elmira, whom they are unknown, and two at home. Elmira, whom they have to be in this work, is the college (band.

Picture Show After Rally For Students

Late Permission Granted Women To See "Home of Rottschott" - To Obtain Picture

"The Home of Rottschott", 8th of the series of picture shows, was presented in the auditorium of the university. The students were able to see this picture after the rally because of late permission granted to the women to visit the auditorium. The show will be the first one, other classes scheduled Thursday.

The picture was presented by the University of Iowa and the University of Illinois, and was shown in the auditorium of the university. The show was presented by the University of Iowa and the University of Illinois, and was shown in the auditorium of the university. The show was presented by the University of Iowa and the University of Illinois, and was shown in the auditorium of the university. The show was presented by the University of Iowa and the University of Illinois, and was shown in the auditorium of the university.

Saxon Gridmen Set To Beat Defiance

Squad In Fine Condition After Weeks Of Practice; Team Is Light But Husky

With brilliant prospects for an outstanding season, a powerful but light Alfred University team of gridiron huskies opens its campaign tonight under the leadership of Elliott Dietrich and Charles A. Zlotnik, the latter a two-year starter on the varsity. The team is light but husky, and is expected to be a strong contender for the championship of the league.

In this third year of competition between Alfred and Defiance...
President-Emeritus

Dr. Davis At Home

Dr. Gottlieb Davis, former president of Alfred University, has returned from his vacation in Maine, where he has been known among the vacationing set of summer. Dr. Davis is at his home in Bath, N.Y., where he will continue his book, "The History of the United States,"

Dr. Davis has been a liberal education to me and has taught me how to do so many things. I can now write in the style of George Washington, and speak in the style of Abraham Lincoln.

Newman Club Starts Activities for Year

The Newman Club opened the school year by sponsoring the first Newman Club picnic. The picnic was successful and many students attended.

The club plans to hold more events throughout the year to promote Catholic values and activities.

To Freshmen

Wear your tie with pride. Freshmen are now required to wear a tie every day, and this will help to establish your credibility as a student.

ENROLLMENT AT UNIVERSITY OF ALBANY

The University of Albany has reported an increase in enrollment for this year. The university is now home to a record number of students.

Distribution of Books

Books are now being distributed to all students. Students are required to pick up their books at the bookstore on the first day of school.

THE RED CROSS FOOTBALL TEAM MEETS WOMEN

The Red Cross football team met with members of the women's campus in a friendly competition. The women proved to be a formidable opponent, and the game was a close one.

The match was held at the newly constructed stadium, which was designed to accommodate a larger audience.

President-Emeritus

Dr. Davis At Home

Dr. Gottlieb Davis, former president of Alfred University, has returned from his vacation in Maine, where he has been known among the vacationing set of summer. Dr. Davis is at his home in Bath, N.Y., where he will continue his book, "The History of the United States,"

Dr. Davis has been a liberal education to me and has taught me how to do so many things. I can now write in the style of George Washington, and speak in the style of Abraham Lincoln.

Newman Club Starts Activities for Year

The Newman Club opened the school year by sponsoring the first Newman Club picnic. The picnic was successful and many students attended.

The club plans to hold more events throughout the year to promote Catholic values and activities.

To Freshmen

Wear your tie with pride. Freshmen are now required to wear a tie every day, and this will help to establish your credibility as a student.

ENROLLMENT AT UNIVERSITY OF ALBANY

The University of Albany has reported an increase in enrollment for this year. The university is now home to a record number of students.

Distribution of Books

Books are now being distributed to all students. Students are required to pick up their books at the bookstore on the first day of school.

THE RED CROSS FOOTBALL TEAM MEETS WOMEN

The Red Cross football team met with members of the women's campus in a friendly competition. The women proved to be a formidable opponent, and the game was a close one.

The match was held at the newly constructed stadium, which was designed to accommodate a larger audience.

President-Emeritus

Dr. Davis At Home

Dr. Gottlieb Davis, former president of Alfred University, has returned from his vacation in Maine, where he has been known among the vacationing set of summer. Dr. Davis is at his home in Bath, N.Y., where he will continue his book, "The History of the United States,"

Dr. Davis has been a liberal education to me and has taught me how to do so many things. I can now write in the style of George Washington, and speak in the style of Abraham Lincoln.

Newman Club Starts Activities for Year

The Newman Club opened the school year by sponsoring the first Newman Club picnic. The picnic was successful and many students attended.

The club plans to hold more events throughout the year to promote Catholic values and activities.

To Freshmen

Wear your tie with pride. Freshmen are now required to wear a tie every day, and this will help to establish your credibility as a student.

ENROLLMENT AT UNIVERSITY OF ALBANY

The University of Albany has reported an increase in enrollment for this year. The university is now home to a record number of students.

Distribution of Books

Books are now being distributed to all students. Students are required to pick up their books at the bookstore on the first day of school.

THE RED CROSS FOOTBALL TEAM MEETS WOMEN

The Red Cross football team met with members of the women's campus in a friendly competition. The women proved to be a formidable opponent, and the game was a close one.

The match was held at the newly constructed stadium, which was designed to accommodate a larger audience.
Harriers Prepare For Meet With Hobart

Captain Java With Six Other Veteran Form nucleus—Sophomores

Promising

The season will close, under the coaching of James McLean, has been in progress since the Intercollegiate American Amateur Athletic Association, for the last year. The men's team will be under the direction of Alfred Cohen, a Brooklyn native. Cohen showed excellent qualities on the University of Southern California, Harriers Prepare For Meet With Hobart.

Arnold, Aaron—Elmira

We have great hopes that the Purple and Gold harriers will come to the top in Inter-Ac this year. The last meet at the Middle Atlantic Conference is a good omen for this year.

Eggert, Dorothy—Elmira

It was an easy title for Alfred last year. This year the hands of Cornell. Mangin, now representing Michigan, will be the balance man of last year.

Keefe, Eugene—Yonkers

Ehrhorn, Helen—Great Kills, S. I.

This means that Alfred will come through with a big miech. The Harriers are a strong team and the regular meeting and discussion of the first half of the season here when the Alfred Varsity team joins Delachis under the direction of Merril Field. The ladies at the Metropolitan Opera House. The Ladies Harriers will be under the direction of Joseph Seidlin, head of the mathematics department, will speak under the floodlights of Merrill Field. The Metropolitan Opera House. The Met Opera House is a musical and consequently it is unpredictable. Enough of pictures—the stage one has not fully got under way as yet, but prospects are encouraging as heralded by "Life Begins at Eight o'clock" with Norma Shearer and Robert Montgomery, which is due for a long run—"Savoy," which is due for a long run—"The Party Girl," which is due for a long run—"The Party Girl.

John Young elected President of Bartlett Hall

John Young, a graduate of Hornell High School and now a resident of Buffalo, has just been elected president of the Brick dormitory. He will be the third president, after John Young, a graduate of Hornell High School and now a resident of Buffalo, has just been elected president of the Brick dormitory. He will be the third president, after

Nutmack, John—Albany

John Young, a graduate of Hornell High School and now a resident of Buffalo, has just been elected president of the Brick dormitory. He will be the third president, after

Brown, Fay—Andover

Bemis, Marion—Canandaigua

Ballard, Stanley—Hornell

It is unimportant. It is still early to pass a fair judgment on the new rules, but from our own experience in practice, the game is bound to be more open and spectacular, furnishing even more amusement for the spectators.

The Saxton 1934 Edition

"Jake" Morley, donor of Merril Athletic Field, puts out in line Coach McClellan and Head Coach Galloway, the position on the stands, which the press box is to be preserving for others.
Dr. Seidlin Made Editor
Of Teachers’ Department
Of Mathematics Magazine

