

Alfred University women's soccer team shut out by Nazareth, 7-0

10/05/05

The Alfred University women's soccer team was shut out in their conference game against Nazareth Wednesday evening, 7-0. Nazareth took a quick 3-0 lead in the first half. Alfred could not contain Nazareth and they continued on to score four more goals in the second half. Nazareth was paced by Rachel Cushman who recorded one goal and two assists. Julie Birbilis also chipped in with a goal and an assist. Rebecca Pociask (Henniker, NH/ John Stark Regional) of Alfred had a game-high of eight saves while Shannon Burns had one save for Nazareth. Alfred (2-9, 0-4 Empire 8) is in action next on Saturday, Oct. 8, at Ithaca at 1 p.m.