

AU suffers loss to Ithaca 3-2

10/15/05

The Alfred University men's soccer team was defeated by Ithaca College 3-2 on Saturday evening. The Ithaca Bombers came out strong in the first half, taking a 2-0 lead over Alfred. Their first goal was scored by their goalie, Eric Ferguson within seven minutes of play. Bombers' next goal was by Chris Holden. Alfred did not let down. The Saxons came into the second half with fire. Sophomore forward, Adam Long (Bath, NY/ Haverling) scored the first goal for the Saxons with an assist by Austin Lozier (Vestal, NY/ Vestal). With 23 minutes left of play, Long scored another goal to tie the game at 2-2, off of an assist by Bobby Linaberry (Manlius, NY/ Fayetteville-Manlius). With only four minutes left of play, Kurt Odenbach of Ithaca scored a goal with an assist by Mark Jefferies for the win. The Saxon's Brian Middleton (Baldwinsville, NY/ C.W. Baker) and Jim Roberts (Syracue, NY/ West Hill) each made two saves for Alfred. Ithaca's goalie Eric Ferguson finished with five saves and a goal for the Bombers. The Saxons are in action next on Wednesday, October 19 at 7 p.m. home against Keuka.