$260,000 BUDGET APPROVED
BY TRUSTEES FOR 1934-35

To Call New Theological Dean – Make Centennial Plans
A budget totaling approximately $260,000 was drawn up for the Colonnade of Liberal Arts for the year 1934-1935 as approved by the Trustees of Alfred University, held Monday, November 6.

The Board authorized the calling of a new man to the Theological School to succeed Dr. A. E. Reith, who died nearly two years ago. A man has been chosen and will be announced when the Board has definitely accepted the position.

Two matters of importance were left in the hands of Dr. J. N. Norwood and Alfred E. Hildreth, J. D., the new General Manager. Mr. Norwood is to work closely with the学问 of administration. The qual-

The Wellman Process is different from any other process or method and we believe it gives more enjoyment to pipe smokers.

...It gives the tobacco an extra aroma.

...It makes the tobacco act right in a pipe—burn slower and smoke cooler.

...It makes the tobacco consider.

...leaves a clean dry ash

...no soggy residue or build in the pipe bowl.

Sigma Chi Holds Dancing Party

Many Alumni Return for Informal Affair

Sigma Chi Ni held its informal dance of the season on the house lawn Saturday evening, to the lively strains of '25. The informality of the function was emphasized by the fact that admission was limited to the house members and guests of the same. A hat and pump color scheme, honors and yellow and orange decorations, aid all, as does the student entertainment, which included blind man's bluff, cigar band and coffee served.

A novel arrangement of decorations included the maroon and orange color scheme, and the use of boards and coffee served.

Flower guests included: Miss Parke, Mrs. Kasper Myers, Mrs. Black, Horace Black, and Mrs. Frank C. Fuller. Several alumni, including: James Fordyce, Miss Edith Lowry, and Miss Major were also present. Miss Irene Gage of Sigma Chi, Jane Hawk of Sigma Chi, and Miss Helen Parkman and Gertrude Auernstine, haked apples, hot ginger cookies, and brown and yellow pompoms and chrysanthemums, also a guest. The party consisted of: Mrs. Sidney Peck, James Hodgkins, Anthony Lancione, Parke, Charles Parrinello, Matthew Nevins, who showed moving pictures of the house since then.
