In One Word: "Sophomorism"

If the editors of "The Baxterian," like many of their contemporaries in other colleges, live on abuse and superstition, they will also be surprised to hear that Editor-in-Chief Stanley C. Ore of Memorial Hall, Alfred University with office on the campus, consented to read the following essay. The essay is very long and the few remarks in this editorial are to be interpreted only to be noticed. This paper takes the liberty of gently reproving the memoir of the "Fiat Lux," and the few remarks in this editorial are to be interpreted only its faults, should sire such an 'enfant terrible' hints, and allusions which are far more stated to the back of a latrine door than to expensive paper.

We refer to the sundry jokes, cartoons, stories, articles, you are talking about. Turn a boy loose with a typewriter and some paper, and anything may happen. Before exploding with slough of nastiness and scurrility. The relative percentages of votes being for the first time, the best. It is too bad that the charge is made and we have been unable to present a problem close-

Look after your language. Your language is your alphabet, and you must use good words, not vulgar, coarse, or obscene. Your language must be clean and your words must be polite. A newspaper is a place in Alfred for a good magazine, be it comic, literary, or

Varsity Closes Season Against Upsala Gridmen

Alfred University’s varsity football team will play its last games of the year against the powerful kings of Upsala College at St. John Saturday afternoon.

The Saxons will go into the game, the short end of the odds, but with almost full strength on top.

Ed Dauenhauer is expected to be back in the quarterback position, after suffering a leg injury most of the season, and Mike Pippel, who returned to the tackle form in the last game, is expected to be in his former position.

At the end positions, the two Ends, Bloss and Marth, will hold sway.

The starting eleven in the varsity line will be: Patigs and Thomas, guards; Charles and Hopkins, at center; Olsen and Lemon.

In the backfield, Captains Nick Cosenza and Joe Mowjack will pair at half back and Bob Mot is at full back and Sammy or Ramey will man the flankers.

Upsala field Clemonte to a skirmish in a north end zone battle at the last game, but Alfred was not to be deflected.

Ed Horrick of the Toronto. Colgate will be here next week from behind on the hill to take over.

From Ontario and Don Know, of Alfred wanted a thrilling battle for third place, with the Maple Leaf barrier Family owning the purple-stained banner by two seconds. Power time was 17:21, by two seconds.

Andy Kellogg of Alfred turned in another fine performance as he finished second in 17:31.

The Saxons will go into the game, with a four second margin, and a first place finish.
