

Garabedian Scholarships recognize outstanding students in History

9/21/06

Five outstanding students majoring in history in Alfred University's College of Liberal Arts & Sciences will receive scholarships from the Bertha and John Garabedian Charitable Foundation of Fresno, CA. The Garabedian Western Humanities Scholarships are presented annually to students who have taken at least eight credits beyond their core requirements in the Division of Human Studies (history, philosophy, religious studies or fine arts); have earned at least a "B" in those courses; and who have at least a 3.0 grade point average overall. Garabedian Scholarship recipients for the 2006-07 academic year are: Jeffrey Golden Jr, the son of Jeffrey and Christine Golden of Spencer, NY. He is a graduate of Spencer-VanEtten Central School. This is the second year Golden has received the scholarship. Ken Moss, the son of Paul Moss of Johnson City, NY, and Sharon Moss of Endicott, NY. He is a graduate of Maine-Endwell Senior High School. He is also a repeat winner. Jo Fenske, a junior from Wellsville, NY, and a graduate of Wellsville High School. Andrew Rantz, a senior from Lewisburg, PA. A graduate of Milton Area Senior High School, he is the son of Roy and Christine Rantz. Joanna Trojnar, a sophomore from Dryden, NY, who graduated from Dryden Senior High School. She is the daughter of Mary Trojnar.
