

Saxons fall to RIT in season finale, 3-0

11/02/00

ROCHESTER The Alfred University men's soccer team concluded regular season play Wednesday afternoon with a 3-0 loss at RIT. Despite dropping their final two games, the Saxons finished the 2000 season with an impressive record of 11-5-1, 3-3 Empire Eight. Alfred's performance was highlighted by sophomore goalkeeper Kevin Ball's (Wheeling, WV/Linsly School) eight saves. RIT (10-4-2) capitalized on two first-half goals from Ryan Riskosky and Trae Lower, before sealing the victory with a second-half goal from Rick Anthony. The Saxons now wait to see if they have earned an invitation to the ECAC Tournament.
