

Parenting topic of Women's Studies Roundtable

1/24/01

Dr. Louis Lichtman, professor of psychology and chair of the Division of Psychology at Alfred University, will speak on "Parenting Tips and Strategies: How to Increase Your Chances of Raising Perfect Kids" at the Women's Studies Roundtable from 12:20-1:10 p.m. Friday in the Knight Club, Powell Campus Center on the AU campus. The Women's Studies Roundtables are held monthly during the school year. They are open to the public, free of charge. Those planning to attend may take a lunch; beverages are provided.