We cannot expect the same reckless disregard for the truth and rules that we heard on the radio to continue in the courtroom, and we can use our influence to stop it. The Justice Department of the United States is a losing proposition for too long.

Dance Concert Will Begin Forum Series

Eve Gentry Presents The "Stuff That Dance Is Made Of"

A modern dance concert by Eve Gentry and Dance Company will be presented at 8:15 tonight and tomorrow evening at Alumni Hall, as the first of five evening performances to be given at the college.

Miss Gentry, who has been instruc tive and helpful in the development of the younger modern dance per- formers, will appear with a company of students from the college in this city. After many years of study and experience, she will present a program of music and dance that will be a delight to all who attend.

The second half of the program will be devoted to the dances themselves — a survey of the great dance masters throughout the ages. This survey will be in two parts: first, the great ballets of the past, and second, the modern dances of the present.

First WSC Prexy Reviews Changes

Bretta Kelley was appointed to the position of WSC Prexy at the Monday meeting of the Student Council.

Bretta says the following: "The changes that have been made were necessary to improve the effectiveness of the council. The members have been given more responsibilities and have been encouraged to take an active part in the running of the council."}

Senate Rehashes Voting Procedure And Class Dues

Old business was the main concern of the Senate meeting Monday evening when the bill for class dues was taken up. This matter was discussed at length by the majority of students present. The Senate was divided on the issue, with some members in favor of the dues and others against.

A motion to adjourn the meeting was proposed by Senator John Doe, who said: "We have discussed this matter at length and I believe it is time we adjourned." The motion was seconded by Senator Jane Smith and carried by a vote of 12 to 8.

Bloodmobile To Sound Call To Arms Soon

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in town on Tuesday morning, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., to solicit blood donors.

Almost all the students under age of 18 must have a parent present when donating blood. This rule has been in effect for several years.

Letters to Editor

For The Renting

Dear Editor-

Once upon a time, when I was studying in Europe, I remember I had a huge backpack. I was walking down the street in a town where I didn’t speak the language. I was getting tired, so I stopped to rest on a bench.

“A tourist?” the woman next to me asked.

I nodded, feeling self-conscious about my backpack. She seemed to understand, and I was relieved.

“Come with me,” she said, leading me to a small shop.

Inside, she showed me a few different options, and I finally settled on a smaller backpack. She helped me fill it with the essentials, and I left feeling grateful.

I realized that even in a different country, there are kind souls who are willing to help a stranger.

Sincerely,

Janet Smith

Vern Fitzgerald, Navy Veteran, Is Alfred Three Letter Man

Doug Grower

"One of the three or so veterans in Alfred football history, 155 pounds of sixty minute man, one of the leaders on the team. ..." was how one of these wards of praise by Coach Yunevich that Alfreds veteran Vern Fitzgerald.

Playing his last season of intercollegiate football, Vern has been outstanding in the position of end. Only five feet, nine inches tall, Fitzgerald is one of those compact players who makes up for size in dexterity and coolness. His enthusiasm for conditioning has paid off well, for Vern has never been out of a game because of injury. The consistently dependable performances that are characteristics of Vern have made him one of Alfreds outstanding ends, both on defense and offense.

Civil Service To Give Exams

The New York State Department of Civil Service is planning to hold employment examinations in January for the 1953 graduating class. The fields to be covered this year are: Engineering, Biology, Chemistry, Nationalistic, Bacteriology, Library Science, Law, and Psychology. There will also be a special examination for accounting assistant.

For further information, Dean Gertz has appointed that the students in the Liberal Arts College. After graduating, Vern still found time to do a bit of car repairing has paid off well, for Vern has never been out of a game because of injury. The consistently dependable performances that are characteristics of Vern have made him one of Alfreds outstanding ends, both on defense and offense.

Politics Shelf Added At Library

The Carnegie Library at Alfred University now has added a special reference shelf consisting of pamphlets, books, and folders containing information on the platforms and aims of the three major political parties (Republican, Democratic, and Liberal) that are of special interest in the forthcoming Provincial elections. The source of this information is reliable, there are two classes with political tendencies.

Welcome Home, Alfred Alumni!!
