

Gallery show features variety of ceramic cups

5/30/13

Brian Peshek, AU class of 1995 and a ceramic art instructor at McGroarty Arts Center, Tujunga, CA, sends word that the gallery will be hosting its “10th Annual Ceramics Show: All Cups 2,” Saturday, June 1 through Saturday, June 15. '

There will be an opening reception June 1 from 5-9 p.m. The exhibition of established artist and student work is open 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Monday-Saturday; closed Sundays. Admission is free.

The exhibit is a showcase of unique, handmade cups in many varieties of shapes, sizes, colors, techniques, and styles. There will be a seemingly endless variety of cups from the traditional to the more whimsical, utilitarian and abstract, wall hung as well as pedestal displayed.

Brian has won awards for his creativity and work from the American Ceramics Society.
