NSA Stand on Integration Is Advocated by Student Senate

Last Tuesday the student Senate had its regular meeting at which students what can do to aid this cause.

A recent letter from Dr. Hoff- man, president of the U.S. Nation- al Student Association, explained that organization's stand on civil rights legislation, especially in regard to the Brown demonstra- tions in the South.

The NSA's policy as set forth in the 15th National Student Cross- country Special Resolution on Civil Rights is as follows: "The At- torney General of the United States be empowered to institute legal action on behalf of any person de- nied equal educational opportunities by any federal or state government or instrumentality thereof because of race, color, religion, or national origin.

The resolution was adopted by our Student Senate at last Tues- day's meeting. This means that the Alfred Student Senate is adopting the by U.S. Congress the amendment known as Title III. This amendment, which would empower the Attorney General to bring suits in school- case on Title II, was defeated by the Senate recently.

At present, the N.S.A. is cam- paigning to have a provision similar to that on the right of a state to seek an injunction in school- case on Title III included in any civil rights legislation passed by the House of Representatives. Their officers have sent telegrams to the leaders of the House and Senate, continued on page 8

Associate English Professor To Retire at End of This Semester

by Ronald Bayer

Miss Lella Tupper, a member of the Alfred faculty for nearly seven years, will re- tire at the end of the semester. Coming to Alfred in 1954 after teaching at several high schools in New York, she was named an associate professor of English in 1954, the position which she pre- served for several years in succession. from the editors... the changing “A”?

Since this marks the last time the present editor will attempt to voice her views in this column, the editorial “we” must be replaced by “I” in the following inches.

In recent weeks various members of the campus community have questioned the purpose of the campus newspaper. It is a “log book of history” for membership of the student, it is said. More, the paper serves to tell what is happening, as well as to review the past. It also serves to voice campus opinion whether it be in this column or in letters to the editor (which are not statements of editorial policy).

A voice of opinion Only one of the many purposes of the paper, never-the-less in its important one. In recent weeks “opinion” has tended to be mainly in the form of criticism. It is to criticism that I should like to turn at this time.

With the opening of the Campus Center many constructive activities have been offered to members of the Alfred community. Perhaps one of the most significant of these has been the series of coffee-hour evaluations Alfred. Some constructive ideas have emerged and many critiques. Not only in the coffee-hour have classifications been shared, but it has also emerged in campus discussions, student polls, and letters to the editor.

Alfred is not perfect, but it is not in a status quo position— it is subject to change and it does change. To a large degree the character of the school is determined by the students. This should be a connecting link between the criticisms and the changes if the criticisms are to have any noticeable effects. Because of this I should like to examine the nature of the criticism.

Criticism may be divided into two types: constructive criticism and what we may call the type of criticism for an institution, or parts thereof, to improve, continual self evaluation is needed. If this evaluation results in gripe, it is possible to question such a thing as being an opportunity for the exchange of constructive and leader on the grass.

Alfred must accept change as do all colleges, it never-the-less has many good features. Those criticizing it would do well to remember them and perhaps base their action on them. One of its best features is the fact that the administration and faculty are willing to work for changes with students who offer constructive criticism in the open.

As Alfred is not perfect, neither is the FIAT. Yet those who would like to make the body strive to do their best. As the university will listen to suggestions, so will the editors of the FIAT.

As I leave the position of editor it is with the hope that the “A” of tomorrow will be larger in both columns and content. The campus, may in the future stand for action—positive action leading to changes working for the betterment of our alma mater.

R.O.T.C. Cadets Visit West Point

Four members of the Advanced Officers Reserve Training Corps at Alfred University participated in the 2nd Annual ROTC Weekend at West Point March 10-11.

They were: Douglas F. Elson, Renal J. Koralnick, Joseph P. Yannaco, and Jack Oben.

Joining twenty other ROTC cadets from First U.S. Army Reserve institutions, and a group of midshipmen from the U.S. Naval Academy, the cadets at West Point cadets during their visit. Each had a USMA cadet as a sponsor.

This was the third weekend of the 1960 schedule of Exchange Programs. This program, which started in 1952 gives ROTC cadets who are members of this group an idea of the life of a cadet at West Point. It is led by officers and cadets at West Point who are graduates of the class at Alfred.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I was very much interested in the letter to the FLAT art presented preceding letters for looking up any information on the other side of the fence. More to the point. (Contd.)

Where students are unwilling to make their identity known or do more than spout words. Those who write anonymous letters or talk among themselves, unwilling to go to points where action can be taken do not deserve our support. If a criticism is worth making, is it not worth talking about in the open or seeking action?

While Alfred needs change as do all colleges, it never-the-less has many good features. Those criticizing it would do well to remember them and perhaps base their action on them. Qualifications Test
Applications and information bulletins for the April 25, 1960 administration of the Selective Service College Qualification Test are now available at Dean R. Farmer's Office.

Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out the application form and submit it with the fee of $0.25 to the nearest office of Selective Service before April 10.

The Educational Testing Service advises that the student should file his application as early as possible.

Program Ideas Planned By Washington Students

A meeting was held Tuesday in Kasakde for those students interested in participating in the Washington Summer program.

Mike Jeffers, Gail Kolia, Olivia Michelson, and Howard Shafer were among the students present during the fall seminar. Students briefed those attending on the political climate of the United States.

Students participating in the program will receive an intensive study of American government and its policies.

Aside from attending center government and politics in the country, students will be able to attend the national convention.

Big Ross insett is running for student body president this year. We're thinking big. If this convention is a flop it will be the biggest flop but a tremendous success.

This delegation traditionally is called upon when nominations are in process to be LBJ down the ladder for LBJ.

Very, very possible keynote speaker at the convention will be NB. Other dignitaries who will probably be in attendance: Head of the Allegany Democrats, Mr. Ellis G. D. "Mike" Schaeffer, Don Russian, state chairman for Democratic from N.Y., and a chance of being with the public.

Parades planned for LBJ, Kennedy, Stevenson and Lumsden with others.

The officials of this convention will be selected by the Student Senate.

Mock Madness

The meeting concluded with the choosing of the chairman for the state committee, then plowed into the purely American and the Virgin Islands.

Within a few days, a list of all students who will attend the convention will be printed and distributed to all delegates. By the end of the week, Providence students will have also met with the different groups representing the various presidential campaigns and floor manager. The responsibility of a floor manager is to be "captains of the group."

The officials of this convention are:

National Chairman—Rosey DeGra, Temporary chairman—Gary the rover, Delegates chairmen—Paul Cohen, Parliamentarian—Martin Wagen.

While the convention is sponsored by the Young Democrats, students who are officially affiliated with the party elsewhere than the Democratic party are welcome to join the delegation.

Plans for speeches, demonstrations, and entertainment are now being planned, and various states chairman and delegates. The success of the convention will depend entirely upon the political skill and support of those involved.

Word from the Kasakde pipe line..."Ross" Beauchesne says of the "Kasakde" program, "This will be the biggest thing to hit Alfred in a long time. We're thinking big. If this convention is a flop it will be the biggest flop but a tremendous success."

At the onset of the meeting, Professor Besuchese will have this to say: "This delegation traditionally is called upon when nominations are in process to be LBJ down the ladder for LBJ."

Senate Aids N.S.A. Effort to Repeal National Loyalty Oath

The political committee will discuss limitations of nuclear and biological weapons. A potential threat may be to weaken or change a military technical weapon. A joint committee will propose improvements to nuclear disarmament.

N.S.A. express its general opposition to laws requiring students to sign loyalty oaths and disclaimer affidavits. Alfred Places Fourth In National Rifle Match

by Dave Leach

Last Saturday, the Alfred University Rifle Team under the leadership of Major Richard Damiani, coach, and Captains Francis Thomson, manager, competed in the National Rifle Association Inter-Collegiate Sectional Rifle Tournament at Minneapolis, Minnesota. The team, composed of 11 members, placed fourth overall in the national match.

In comparison to last year's Alfred, Pullman, Seattle, and Chicago teams, Alfred, coached by Ed Schuler, commanded second place with a score of 1121 points. Ken State and Case scored 1117 points for second place. Buffalo, Alfred, the Pennsylvania State, and St. Louis University teams fired 1115 points. Duke scored 1117 points for fourth place. Boston College and Cornell scored 1119 points for fifth place. In sixth place was St. Cloud, Minneapolis 14, Minnesota. The top six teams will compete for the national championship at the University of Illinois on the latter part of April. Earlier this year, Alfred scored good enough to place in the top six teams in the First Army Rifle match.

The team that took sight out of a possible eleven medals. Those receiving medals were: team coach Damiani, team captain Schuler, the four team members, and Schuler's student assistant for the individual match victory.

Alfred has been invited to a national match at the University of Illinois which will take place in the last part of April. Earlier this year, Alfred scored good enough to place in the top six teams in the First Army Rifle match. Alfred, now with an 18-4 record, has its next home match against the University of Rochester on April 2.

Schapiro Wins Tennis Match

Alfred's first Intramural Table Tennis Championship was held at the Campus Center during the past few weeks, with one team member receiving medal. A total of 34 teams competed for top honors in this highly competitive sport.

The eight quarterfinals were: DePalma, Howell, Shulman, Ed Phot, Marty Graf, John Sprung, Joe Schapiro, Lou Carson and Bill Whitman. Falcon defeated Shulman, Graf bested Phot, Sprung lost to Schapiro, and Carson earned What. Whitman lost in the quarter finals. Graf and Schapiro defeated Phot and Carson respectively in the semifinals. Schapiro was the eventual champ as he defeated Graf in two out of three matches.

Columbus discovers the Winston Hemisphere

IT'S WHAT'S UP FRONT THAT COUNTS!

"Flavor, Ho!" The Admiral Shouted As He Sighted FILTER-BLEND

From the Captain's Log...

One Day Out. Weighed anchor and set sail in search of a filter cigarette that really tastes like a good cigarette. Crew thinks this is win- some chase.

One Week Out. Have sighted many filter cigarettes and smoked some. New win will think the world is flat.

One Month Out. Discovers New World of smoking pleasures.

Winston! It is only a cigarette with a modern filter plus FILTER-BLEND — rich, golden tobaccos not only specially selected, but also specially processed for filter smoking. Crew now thinks this is a real discovery.

One Year Out. Crew has muti- nued. Refuses to go back to the Old World (non-Winston Hemisphere), and agrees that I am founding a colony called Filter-Blend. Colony's motto will be:

Winston tastes good...like a cigarette should!
