

Alumna Abby Griffith appointed director of Judson Leadership Center

5/12/17

Abigail Griffith, a 2010 summa cum laude graduate of Alfred University, has been appointed director of the Judson Leadership Center.

An English major at Alfred University, Griffith received her Master&s degree in English from the University of Tennessee, in Knoxville, in 2012.

She has worked as a tutor for student-athletes in a Division I program at the University of Tennessee, an instructor and learning specialist at Roane State Community College in Tennessee, and most recently the TRIO Upward Bound program in New York state.