

ALFRED FOR HUGHES

Straw Ballot Gives Republican Candidate Big Majority

It is said that "straws show which way the wind blows" therefore Hughes is our next President as this is the verdict of a straw ballot taken of the whole school.

The excitement engendered by the national election pervaded the University last Wednesday and Thursday in a very concrete form, when, through the efforts of the College Republican and Democratic Clubs, a straw vote was taken.

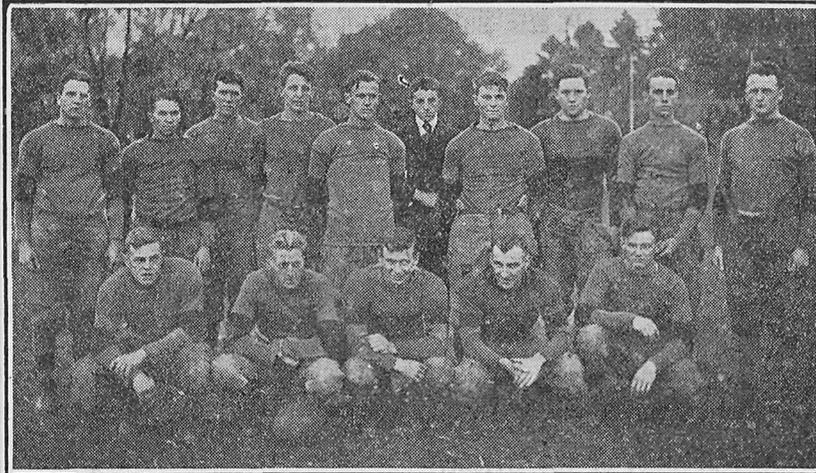

The College witnessed a most vivid imitation of a real election, before and after Assembly hour, Wednesday. The zeal of the Wilsonians had lead them to place several large placards upon the platform and pulpit, of which, the following are samples: "The Triple Alliance — Hughes, The Kaiser and the Devil"—"Germany is for Hughes, England is for Hughes, America is for Wilson—are you an American?" Enthusiastic supporters of the candidates lead all, who would join, in lusty cheers. A ballot was given each student with the names of the four candidates on its face and these were dropped in a box on the porch of Burdick Hall as the voters went by to the Post Office. Kenyon '17, Nash '18, Bliss '17, and E. Saunders '17, acted as inspectors and hindered any attempts at illegality.

When the box was opened the anxious minds were much relieved to have so weighty a problem settled for the benefit of the whole country.

Following the college's lead the Agricultural School took a vote on the following day and the results of the two elections were:

SILVER LAKE MILITARY ACADEMY SHOWS VARSITY UP

Alfred Wins 20-0, In Poorly Played Game

Silver Lake Military Academy lined up against the crippled Varsity, Friday afternoon and gave the bunch of substitutes and regular men a genuine show-up. The cadets played a wonderful game, but the exhibition of the Alfred men was miserable. The idea that the contest was a practice game seemed to pervade the men and they wouldn't get any enthusiasm into their playing. The Coach pulled several of the regular men who showed themselves to be ready for the sanitarium, and sent in second string men, to whom any chance at all to play was more than welcome.

The score of 20 to 0 is nothing to be proud of, for although the Military team was as heavy as the Alfred men, they were lacking in experience. The Varsity was much slowed up by the use of new signals with which they were unfamiliar.

The first quarter was a rare exhibition of rag doll ball. The

DR. C. F. RANDOLPH '88, LECTURES ON "POE"

Dr. Corliss F. Randolph of Newark, N. J., the prime mover of the Alumni Lecture Course, gave a most auspicious start to this year's series with his paper on "Edgar Allan Poe," Monday. Due to the political rally at night, the address was given in the afternoon at 4:00.

In brief:

"Edgar Allan Poe, the most mysterious of literary men, born in Boston in 1809, was given an excellent education by his well-to-do foster father, Mr. Allan of Richmond. Due to excesses at the University of Virginia and West Point, a rupture occurred between him and his benefactor and he was left to his pen for support. A fitful life followed until his death in 1849, he and his family often being in dire want. Poetry was a passion with him, and his literary criticisms and tales show a mastery of imagination, mathematical reasoning which was marvelous. Of his poems 'To Helen' and 'The Raven' are considered the best."

Dr. Randolph's insight made the lecture one of exceptional value to all.

ETA PHI GAMMA HOUSE BURNED

Partial Destruction on Thursday Afternoon — Members Move in Next Door But One, to Senior Girls

The house occupied by the Eta Phi Gamma fraternity, on South Main street was partially destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon at about 2:30.

"It never rains but it pours" might very inappropriately be applied to the occurrences of the day. The whole town was called out at 6:30 by a fire at the home of Mrs. Mae Kenyon on North Main St., and the firemen having succeeded in conquering the flames, uncoupled the hose and put it out to dry. When the bell rang at 2:30, people couldn't believe a second fire possible and thought it a joke until the clouds of smoke were seen rolling forth from the roof of the Eta Phi house and the hose was needed immediately.

There had been no one in the building a half hour previous to the discovery of the blaze, the matron having gone through the house to inspect the fires before she went out. The conflagration was first discovered from a side street, as the blaze seemed to have started in a box of waste papers that had been cleaned out and

ETAPHI MEN "THANK YOU"

The members of the Eta Phi Gamma fraternity wish to express their keenest appreciation of the hospitality shown by the students and townspeople of Alfred since the fire in their house. The assistance and encouragement which was given will always be remembered with sincere gratitude.

AG CAMPUS NOTES

—The laying of a large amount of drainage tile is now underway at the State Farm.

—Many students have returned home to vote this year owing to the fact that it is a presidential election.

—Raymond Thompson, ex-'18, and Joseph Briggs, ex '17, were in Alfred, Friday to see the Silver Lake game.

—Geo. Kull '17, is recovering rapidly from his illness. It is hoped that he will be back in school soon.

—Miss Angeline Wood was in Jamestown, Tuesday, delivering a talk before a women's section of a community meeting.

—Prof. R. D. Anthony of the Geneva Experimental Station has been secured to judge the fruit at the annual fruit show. He will also give a talk on Thursday evening.

—Frank Brainard '17, who received serious injuries in the St. Bona game, is slowly recovering. It is hoped that he will at least be able to see the Hobart game.

—The dates for the annual Farmers' Week have been set for February 20, 21, 22, 23. The program for the week, which includes an excellent list of speakers, is now being arranged.

—Everyone bring a copy of the new football song that was published in last week's Fiat to the Mass Meeting this week. This is a real snappy song and will no doubt meet with the approval of everyone.

C. L. M. C. A.

Edwin Whitford led the C. L. M. C. A. meeting Sunday evening talking on the subject "Wealth in a Community in regard to Religious and social welfare." He gave some interesting notes upon the subject after which several of the members joined in the discussion.

Prof. Banta will give a stereopticon lecture at the regular meeting on Sunday evening, Nov. 19.

J. W. CROFOOT, A. U. '95, SPEAKS IN AG ASSEMBLY

"Chinese Agriculture" His Subject

The students of N. Y. S. A. had the pleasure of listening to a very interesting talk given by J. W. Crofoot of Shanghai, China, Thursday morning during Assembly.

Mr. Crofoot spoke on "Chinese Agriculture." He began with a description of the production of tea, which is the most extensively cultivated product of the Orient. Many articles illustrating the use of bamboo were shown. The growing of rice, its cultivation and harvesting was also briefly outlined.

Mr. Crofoot has been a missionary in China for the past eighteen years. He will return again to carry on his work in the coming summer.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY AT BARN

Rain Did Not Hinder The Festivities

The Country Life Halloween party at the State Barns, Tuesday evening, welcomed its guests in a downpour of rain. In spite of this fact an exceptionally large number was present.

Much time was spent on the decorating and it well spoke for itself. The Grand March was led by Prof. and Mrs. Pontius, after which many interesting games were played. Prizes were awarded, Bruce Emerson and Charles Edwards being the worthy recipients. Sweet cider and doughnuts were present in abundance for a short time, while several people were kept busy popping corn to supply the great demand.

The guests departed from the party as they had come, in the rain, but with a most enjoyable evening behind them.

JUNIORS CHALLENGE FROSH FOR FOOTBALL

Seniors Challenge Winners--Frosh Accept

The Juniors have challenged the Frosh for the annual underclass football contest which will probably take place on Nov. 29. Although the Frosh have several stars, the Juniors have all hopes of the victory.

No captains have as yet been elected but Galloway and Grady are working hard to find the right material. The Seniors have challenged the winners of the underclasses which the Frosh have presumptuously accepted. But, "look-out Frosh!"

WINTER AGRICULTURAL COURSES ANNOUNCED

Begin January 3, 1917

The New York State School of Agriculture at Alfred University announces the fifth annual short winter term beginning January 3, 1917. These winter courses have been carefully worked out from the knowledge of past experiences and are given especially for the benefit of those, young and old alike, who cannot spare the time to complete the regular long term courses.

A cordial welcome will be extended to all who wish to secure some scientific training in Agriculture and enjoy a few weeks of University life.

HOBART COMING FRIDAY

Chance To Avenge Old Scores—Speedy Team Reported

Bring on Hobart! Alfred, in spite of many adverse circumstances will be ready for her old rival on Friday afternoon. With Brainard out of the game and King in poor condition, the team will be handicapped but after the waking-up they suffered last Friday, they can be depended upon for a reputable game which will mean a victory.

Although Hobart went through last year's season undefeated and gave Alfred a 7 to 13 defeat, she is not playing as good ball as she did in that season. So far this season Hobart has won but one game, although the Fiat has not been able to find out the score of the game Oct. 28 with St. Michaels College. Her record:

Oct. 14, Hobart 13—Hamilton 7.
Oct. 21, Hobart 0—St. Lawrence 12.

Oct. 28, Hobart —St. Michaels
Nov. 4, Hobart 0—Rochester 18.

The only dope that can be obtained from this is by comparison with Rochester, although, undoubtedly Rochester is playing a different game from that which she played against Alfred, it must be recognized that Alfred has improved much, besides, and her new men have become veterans.

The probable line up:

Hobart		Alfred
	L. E.
Broderick		Lobaugh
	L. T.
Mapes, Myler		Decker
	L. G.
Thornton		Greene
	C
Hubbs	Boyd, McConnell

	R. H. B.
Campbell, F.		Galloway
	L. H. B.

Despite the "dope," the Hobart team will bear watching. Fight is the Hobart watchword and she always has a superabundance of it when she lines up against Alfred.

STATE STUDENT VOLUNTEER CONVENTION AT ITHACA

Cornell Entertains December 1, 2 and 3

The local Christian Associations have received announcements for the annual Student Volunteer Convention to be held at Cornell University at Ithaca the weekend, December 1, 2 and 3.

This Convention is for all students who are interested in the Christian Missionary effort and is the child of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.'s of the colleges of the state.

In 1914 it was held at Hobart College at Geneva, where Alfred had the second largest delegation made up of twenty-five members. Only twelve Alfred delegates attended the 1915 convention at the University of Rochester and it is hoped that a much larger group will see fit to go to Ithaca.

The fare one way is $2.85, but if ten or more attend the expense can be much reduced by a block ticket.

Watch for further announcements.

GET READY FOR THE FIAT FAIR

The Fiat Fair is coming, the time approaches when the most questionable of the budget items is to be worked out. It may seem at first thought that the people at the head of the Fiat are going to have a lot of fun in raising the money to keep the paper on its four feet and with enough vitality to keep going. But the illusion will not be long retained if one should visit a Board Meeting and listen to the work done and planned.

The Fair will occur on the evenings of December 6 and 7, and will furnish a fine chance for all to purchase Christmas remembrances and listen to two excellent programs. It is now planned to have a chicken supper at the Parish House on the evening of December 7 and have the whole University attend. The following committees have been appointed and are hard at work:

Fancy Work—Marian Elliott.

Ice Cream—Robert Sherwood, Meredith Maxson.

Candy—Lawrence Burgott.

Fish Pond—Richard Williams.

Overhead—Hubert Bliss.

Flowers—Fritjof Hildebrand.

Program—Hazel Parker.

Although still incomplete, the following program has been announced: Farce by an Ag School caste on one evening; selections by the Glee Club and a ripping entertainment on the other evening.

SUB-CONSCIOUS MIND OF DIVINE CHARACTER

Dr. P. E. Titsworth Gives Second Lecture to the Y. W.

Dr. Titsworth's lecture before the Y. W. last Sunday night was on "The Sub-conscious Mind."

In this most interesting lecture, Dr. Titsworth showed with characteristic clearness the difference between the conscious and the sub-conscious mind.

In conclusion he showed that the sub-conscious mind is present before consciousness and often after power of reason has gone; that this sub-conscious mind is a part of all Divinity, the study of which should give one more respect for himself; his powers and his nobility of character.

It is hoped none will miss the third of this interesting series "Men's Undeveloped Powers—The Powers of Suggestion," which is to be given next Sunday night.

DR. NORWOOD MUCH APPRECIATED IN HORNELL

An excellent address was given in the First Presbyterian Church house this afternoon by Dr. J. N. Norwood of Alfred University on "The Issues of the Present Presidential Campaign."

A large crowd attended the meeting and were thoroughly repaid for the time spent. The address was interesting and instructive. Dr. Norwood understands the issues apparently as well as any man in the country and those who neglected to attend missed a fine afternoon's program.

The next lecture will be on "Can We Soon Look Forward To World Peace" and will be given Thursday at 4 P. M. * * The Women's Council of City Clubs is to be commended on securing such an able man as Dr. Norwood to give them a series of ten lectures.—Hornell Tribune-Times.

PROF. FISKE TO SPEAK IN ASSEMBLY

Prof. Ivan L. Fiske will speak at the Assembly hour tomorrow and will tell some of his experiences at the Military Training Camp at Plattsburg, the Senior Camp of which he attended this summer.

placed in a box on the small porch at the rear of the house, on the second story. When the water was turned onto the building the rear wall was nearly all ablaze and immense clouds of smoke were coming from the roof. With the aid of many hands the twelve members of the fraternity succeeded in saving nearly all their personal belongings, the main losers being the men who occupied the rear rooms. The firefighters worked bravely and conquered the blaze before it reached the front part, at all, and aside from water damage, the destruction is confined to the rear rooms second and third floors and the back side of the main roof.

The appearance of the lawn and those of the neighbors would make the Ghetto blush with shame, as the furniture and effects of the homeless unfortunates lay promiscuously about. It was pathetic to see the men trying to separate their own goods from the hopeless mass of rescued odds and ends.

As the firemen were gathering up their ladders and the crowd was dispersing some humorist tacked up on the side of the house two signs saved from the destructive elements, "Be Brief, This Is Our Busy Day," and "We Are Trying to Prevent Accidents And Ask Your Help."

The loss was estimated at about $1500 and was fully covered by insurance. The fraternity does not own the building.

Many times enough invitations were immediately offered for the members of the fraternity to come into the homes of the townspeople and the other men's clubs to stay until they could make other arrangements, the Senior Girls in-

An interesting feature of the vote was made by asking the women to place a large cross on the back of their ballots so that the sentiment of the fairer co-eds could be obtained and the result was very much the same as that of the men's voting:

Saturday and Sunday the men moved into the house on the corner of S. Main and Terrace streets, which was occupied last year by Prof. Montgomery. They intend to remain here, although in a somewhat crowded condition, until their old home is repaired which time, it is hoped will be before Christmas.

—Lowell Randolph '16, was home from Cornell Sunday, until after election day.

—Hubert Bliss '17, and Sidney Burdick '17, left for Bolivar, Monday evening to vote.

—The Senior House entertained the Eta Phi Gamma at dinner last Thursday evening.

—Carl Hopkins ex-'17, was in town on Thursday, on Sunday, and it was reported that he was in town Monday.

—Pres. Davis delivered the evening address at the Teachers' Convention held at Geneseo Normal, Thursday.

—The "Red Bus" line carried the football team to and from the station, gratis, when going to the Bonaventure game.

—An informal dinner party was given by Miss Elizabeth Davis, at her home, Saturday evening. Covers were laid for twelve.

—Hubert Bliss '17, motored home Friday night with Wm. Nichols '20, to Bolivar, where both live, spending Saturday. "Nube" refereed the game between Bolivar H. S. and Olean in which Olean came out ahead 7 to 6.

—The Surveying class reports that the old flag pole is 76.154 feet high and strongly recommends that it be taken down, for its swaying was so bad that it often moved clear of the field of the transit and in its antiquated condition such swaying is not going to be stood long. The Dean can make out a new problem to fill the place of finding its height.

—Beatrice Streeter '20, was at her home in Bolivar over the week-end.

—Guy Rixford '17, went to Wellsville, Saturday to stay until Wednesday.

—Beth Canfield of Friendship visited her sister, Ruth Canfield '19, Saturday.

—Augustine Dunn '20, was in Bolivar, Saturday to see his home team play Olean High School.

—The Ceramic Juniors very pleasantly entertained the Seniors of that school at tea last Tuesday.

—C. S. Hurlburt wishes that whoever borrowed a brass serving tray from his establishment, would see fit to return it, now that election day is over.

CERAMIC ENGINEERS TO ORGANIZE

Club To Take In Underclassmen

The Ceramic Engineers met last Monday evening for the purpose of considering the organization of a Ceramic Engineer's Club which will take in all classes and give all a chance to receive the benefit of organized discussion of technical problems. This will in no way interfere with the work of the Ceramic Society, which is made up of upperclassmen and Faculty members only. It is an effort of the underclasses to get acquainted with the Ceramic problems and talk them over among themselves before they become Juniors and eligible to the Ceramic Society. Only a few of the upperclassmen are engineers because the engineering course was not introduced until three years ago when several third year students switched to it, so it is obvious that the Ceramic Society is made up mostly of the students taking the old technical course while most of the engineers are without any such society and barred from the benefits to be derived from such.

The organization will be perfected at a meeting on Thursday evening following the mass meeting.

It is now hoped that a Ceramic Fraternity may even be formed and affiliations made with some national body.

CHEER MEET FOR HOBART GAME

Bring Song Books, Copy of New Song, Thursday, 7:30, Ag Hall

A long ray yell for the team! That and a lot more will be called for at the Mass Meeting to be held Thursday evening at Agricultural Hall at 7:30.

Hobart is an old enemy and Alfred wants not only to win from her, but also to make one game wipe out several defeats. The men are going to live up to this platform but a good start toward the student's support of the idea will be, to come out and practice up on the yells and the songs, especially the new song printed last week in these columns. Bliss has prepared a snappy list of speakers who will give snappy talks and in between you are supposed to give a lot of snappy cheers.

Remember "dope" often fails and Hobart always fights to the last breath. It is the Alfredite's duty to begin his fight for victory, Thursday evening at 7:30. Bring your song books, a copy of the new song and your voices.

—Ray Hollman, Ag '17, suffered a severe fall from the third floor porch of Burdick Hall, Monday noon. He struck, head first, on the board walk at the east side of the Hall, breaking through the walk with both head and knees. His scalp was badly cut and his knees were badly bruised, but he did not lose consciousness at any time. He was passing a football on the porch when he fell.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY AT BRICK

Sigma Alpha Gamma Give Men A Royal Time

Not a witch, not a goblin; not a cat, not a bat, dared move on Hallowe'en. It wasn't because "Gum Shoe" had a full force of deputies on the street but because the rain kept them all in. It was well they didn't come out, for the Sigma Alpha Gamma women were entertaining the college men for the first time, in their new rooms. The women proved themselves to be royal entertainers and nearly every man availed himself of this opportunity to see the new rooms and take part in the jolly time.

After bumping through doorways hung with "brakemen's ropes" with apples at their ends, the men found partners for a Hallowe'en entertainment, Miss Weed giving a reading with a semi-pantomime background of an "auld Scottish home" in which the members of the household came forward with musical and literary selections.

Object as they might, the couples were given a penny and sent on a walk, with the "copper" as a guide. It was queer how the guides would come up tails when tails was wanted and heads when heads would lead into a cozy retreat. But woe to those conscientious ones who let their "coppers" take them out into the rain.

On their return, the men were divided into groups and sent by written directions on a zig zag path all over the campus, in the downpour, in search of a fair partner who, meanwhile, stood in some sheltered spot within a step of the Brick, very much amused at the trouble the men were in.

When the wanderers had returned, many jolly games were played, until, for fear of a raid, the cider keg was tapped and the pumpkin pie, chestnuts and apples were served.

The whole assemblage then went to dancing—that is, just the Virginia Reel and Tucker-Wants-a-Wife, until the fatal hour was struck.

The men all join in thanking the women for the pleasant time they enjoyed and can't help from breathing something like a whis-

CHRISTIAN CITIZEN OWES SERVICE TO COMMUNITY

Pres. Davis Impresses Y. M. With Civic Responsibilities

At the Sunday evening meeting, President Davis led a most interesting discussion on "Christian Citizenship."

The topic was quite appropriate to the season and very instructive to the men. He, in brief, said, that from a resident of a city, a citizen had become a member of a state or a nation. Laws are the crystallization of public opinion. The citizen is responsible, therefore, for the laws as it depends upon him as to whom the law makers are and what these men feel that their district wants. His responsibility also extends to the judicial officers.

A citizen should be broad enough to see both sides of all subjects.

The citizen's responsibility for public action should compel him to accept office whenever asked.

When Christian men are too selfish to enter public life and feel that their business would suffer by such an action, they are opening a way for dishonest and grafting officials to get into power.

The majority of men in public life, however, are fine, clean men and only a few are grafters.

Watch the bulletin boards for notices of the meeting next Sunday evening.

FACULTY ADVISORS TO 1920 ENTERTAIN PROTEGES

An informal reception was given the class of 1920 by the Faculty committee of Advisors, last Thursday afternoon.

That the Freshmen had a splendid time and tried to show their appreciation was evidenced by the generous use of their class slogan, which has become quite familiar by this time.

The members of the committee are Dr. P. E. Titsworth, Prof. C. F. Binns, Prof. Porter, Miss Fosdick and Prof. Mix. Mildred Taber '17, and Hilda Ward '19, assisted with the refreshments.

men lacked fight and lost the oval several times on downs. In the second quarter two or three purple and gold men began to open their eyes and Lobaugh completed a pass on the 30 yard line, Grady with a fine diving interference taking the only dangerous man out of the play and Lobaugh planted the pig skin between the posts. Soon after the next kick off Crawford passed again to Lobaugh who went another 30 yards for a second touchdown.

Alfred's third scoring came in the third quarter when McConnell recovered Brown's fumble and ran 15 yards to the goal line.

Several times Silver Lake made dangerous invasions into Alfred's territory once being frustrated by Grady intercepting a pass behind the goal line and once by Burdick recovering a fumble on 15 yd line.

The only men who really played brilliant ball were "Eddie" McConnell and Grady—while Lobaugh and Galloway showed something of real playing. McConnell was the real stuff, he was in every play and many of them before the cadet back field could get started.

The line up:

Silver Lake		Alfred
	R. E.	Grady

RUTGERS SESQUICENTENNIAL

Prof. W. A. Titsworth Speaks in Assembly on the Celebration of His Alma Mater

Prof. W. A. Titsworth spoke Wednesday, November 1, on the Rutgers Sesquicentennial held at New Brunswick, N. J., October 20 and 21.

On Friday morning, President Wm. A. Demerist of Rutgers addressed the assemblage on the "History of the College." Rutgers' College was founded on November 10, 1766, when a petition, circulated by the Dutch Dominees from the Netherlands, was granted by Governor Franklin and the college called Queen's College. During the Revolutionary War, the college was moved from place to place and oftentimes, hampered by lack of funds and students, held no session at all. Early in the Nineteenth Century, Carl Rutgers gave to the college five thousand dollars, in gratitude for which the college became Rutgers' College, training ministers chiefly and offering courses in Rhetoric, Logic and Philosophy. In 1862, Rutgers established a scientific school. By 1916 the student body numbered five hundred, with a freshman enrollment of over two hundred.

Another interesting feature was the pageant held on Friday afternoon, which represented the "History of Learning." The prologue consisted of a pantomime of the figures of Philosophy; the Trivium; the Quadrivium; Chivalry, Medieval Education and Theology.

A series of episodes followed, illustrating events in the history of Rutgers and New Brunswick.

- I. Arrival of Dutch in New Brunswick.
- II. Granting of charter by Gov. Franklin.

- III. Reading of Declaration of Independence in New Brunswick.
 - IV. Laying cornerstone of main building of College.
 - V. Social life of College.
- Epilogue consisting of symbolic pictures of present learning.

Saturday was given over to recognition of delegates and the conferring of degrees. Representatives were present from 6 foreign universities; 120 colleges in United States, 9 Theological Seminaries, 19 Patriotic Societies and 19 reform churches. An alumni spirit to be proud of was shown by the fact that out of 1600 living alumni, 976 registered for the anniversary of their Alma Mater.

ALUMNI

Ethel McLean '16, is now located at Eden, N. Y.

Miss Ella Crumb '13, left last week for Dunkirk, N. Y., to supply in the modern language department.

The death of Mrs. Mary Greene Prentice of the class of 1859 occurred at Verona, Sunday. The funeral will occur Wednesday. Mrs. Prentice is the mother of Mrs. Alfred Stillman of Alfred.

COLLEGE STUDENTS COME

The departments of Education, History, English, Ancient and Modern Languages will hold open house on the second floor of Memorial Hall, Wednesday, Nov. 8, from 4 to 6. All college students and members of faculty are cordially invited.

THE STEINHEIM

2242: Anthropology
Pallas Guistiniani

Heroic sized bust. II Main room. Western window on the North side of the room, in the centre.

2243: Pallas Guistiniani
Miniature Cast

III South side on a newel post of the stair-way.

The original statute is in the Vatican, and was erroneously named Minerva Medica by the earlier sculptors. It is a meritorious piece of sculpture, majestic, graceful and dignified, by some unknown sculptor. Minerva was the Goddess of War, Wisdom, and The Liberal Arts. She sprang from the head of Jove, fully armed for battle. Notice her helmet, spear, and rather masculine appearance. She has always been a friend to mankind, and when she slew the great serpent enemy of man, Jove changed her name to Pallas. Note the Sphinx is on her helmet, and a hydra head on her breast. Her face is calm, and her profile beautifully cut.

2244: Anthropology
Jupiter or Zeus Otricoli

(Pheidias 500 B. C.)

I Front window, right side. The original statute is in the Art collection of the Vatican, Rome.

Zeus was the son of Saturn and Cybele and was born on Mt. Ida of the Island of Crete. In his infancy he was nourished by the goat Amalthea, and became very perfectly developed. He rescued his aged father from their Titan captors and later when the sons of earth made war against Heaven, they were defeated by Jupiter.

He is generally seen in an angry pose, thunder his aid and the lightning his anger. He is Thor of Scandanava.

An eagle became his chariot and the thunderbolt his wrath. This was the earlier work of the famous Pheidias.

2245: Anthropology
Juno or Hera

The original is in Naples. The wife of Jupiter was also the mistress of heaven; the guardian of the virtues, and the protectress of married women. She was accustomed to drive her peacock-drawn chariot encumbered with her regal diadems and scepter.

This Juno, however, has a severe masculine hardness quite common in the north of the earlier days. This is not found in any pieces of a later day, where refinement and culture are evident. It seems then to belong to an earlier epoch, and is the work of an early sculptor.

VOCATIONAL BUREAU OUTLINES COLLEGE WORK

First of Series of Courses Best Suited to Various Professions

The Vocational Bureau urges your consideration of the subjoined possible courses based upon the required work given in the College Catalog, leading to the several professions indicated. While of course, other combinations of subjects are possible, it is hoped that the following grouping, will at least be of suggestive value. The Bureau has likewise kept in mind that Alfred College is a liberal arts institution where the student's interests should be in people and principles as well as in things:

Superb Exhibit of FALL CLOTHES

The HART SCHAFFNER & MARX styles are here for fall. The famous Varsity Fifty Five suits show a more marked waistline; the buttons on the coat front are placed higher; lapels are a trifle shorter; new ideas in waistcoats.

The belt-back variations of Varsity Fifty Five will interest dressy young men; some of the "belters" are bouble breasted—smarter features than you ever saw before.
