Greeting

The Christian Associations extend to you a cordial greeting and present to you this book, hoping that you will find in it useful information in regard to the College activities.

To all the departments of College life, and especially to the religious privileges and work of the College, they welcome you.

The Association aims to present in the College the highest ideals and influences which are fostered by the union of men and women in Christian organization as well as in the more secular relations of life.

To this end the Association earnestly invite the interest and co-operation of all students.

Annual Reception

One of the pleasantest social events of the year is the annual reception given by the Christian Associations in Ladies Hall, Thursday evening, Sept. 17, at 8 o'clock.

Every student is most cordially invited to attend this reception without further notice, and to enjoy that good cheer and hospitality which has become a synonym for Alfred.

Young Men's Christian Association

OFFICERS

President	R. A. WITHEY
Vice President	FORD S. CLARKE
Secretary	ALBERT F. BIVINS
Treasurer	VICTOR H. DAVIS

Meetings in the new Y. M. C. A. room, on second floor of Burdick Hall every Sunday evening at 7:15 to which all men are cordially invited. The room is kept open every school day and the college men are welcome to use it for study, reading-room or rest whenever they wish.

The Purposes of the Association

The purpose of the Y. M. C. A. is to assist young men to lead clean, strong manly lives that will be a credit to themselves and a help to those around them.

To encourage and maintain all influences which tend to improve the moral atmosphere of college life.

To foster and maintain standards of college morality.

To provide a place of worship where the men may congregate and receive the peculiar enthusiasm and help which comes from such gatherings.

To help college men to cherish and develop in themselves and others pure desires, noble ambitions and lofty aspirations.

To translate the religion of Jesus Christ into the language of the 20th century.

"To know, to grow, to glow, to go."

Young Women's Christian Association

Object

To develop high ideals and true Christian Womanhood.

To lay a firm moral and spiritual foundation for Christian influences.

To interest those not already interested in Christian work.

To promote a social spirit among the young women of the College and Academy.

Membership

The active membership of the Association shall consist of any women connected with the college, who are members of Protestant churches.

Association Room

Our Association room is on the first floor of Ladies Hall in the south wing of the building. The room is used not only for the regular prayer and committee meeting but also as a place of rest and study for any of the girls who wish.

Meetings

The regular prayer meeting is held on Sunday evening at quarter after seven in the Association room. These meetings are held informally and the girls talk over in a heart-to-heart way the spiritual side of college life, thus helping each with her problems, and tending to bring all into closer friendship. The work in the Y. W. C. A. is peculiar to college life and no girl can afford to lose the help which she can give and receive by working in the Association.

Last year, besides the regular meeting, there were two Bible study classes which met once a week under a leader to talk over the lesson and to bring out its practical applications. This year we are planning to have three Bible classes which promise to be extremely interesting and instructive. At least one Mission study class will be organized which will probable study conditions in China.

Intercollegiate Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. is affiliated with the National Y. W. C. A. This gives us the privilege of sending delegates to conferences which are a great source of inspiration to those who attend and through them to the whole association. Because of this affiliation we receive a visit from the State Secretary who always has many helpful suggestions concerning our work and aims.

Items of History

Founded as an Academy	1836
Chartered as a University,	1857

Endowment and Property

Endowment and property at the present time exceeds $550,000.00.

Grounds and Buildings

The University Campus, divided into an upper and lower campus, consists of sixteen acres of land upon which the various buildings stand. Cement walks bound and intersect this lovely park and there are many beautiful nooks and corners for a quiet hour in the summer time.

The upper campus is dotted with attractive shade trees, while a fountain is placed in the center of the lower campus. The campus and walks are kept in condition by a special endowment fund.

The Athletic Field, which is situated a quarter of a mile north of the campus, is the place where the ball games and college meets are held.

Buildings

Kenyon Memorial Hall, erected in 1882 contains the library, college audience room, office of the President and Registrar, and the lecture rooms of the departments of Philosophy, Greek History and Economics, Latin, English and Modern Languages.

Babcock Hall of Physics, finished in 1898, contains laboratories, lecture rooms, and department libraries. In this building are also the machine and wood working shops and the men's gymnasiums, the latter being well equipped and in charge of a competent physical director.

Burdick Hall, or the "Dormitory," is a substantial, four story frame building, named after the late William C. Burdick, and presented to the University by his heirs. Burdick Hall was built in 1889.

Ladies Hall, erected in 1858 is a large brick building containing apartments for members of the faculty, rooms for the lady students, the rooms of the ladies' lyciums, and the ladies' gymnasium. The University boarding department occupies the basement of the hall.

The Steinheim was built under the supervision of the late President Allen, and was given to the University by himself and wife. It is occupied by the Natural History Department and contains valuable collections which are used in connection with this department. The lecture rooms, department library and cabinets of the department are in this building. The Steinheim is a picturesque structure composed of several thousand varieties of rock, and was completed in 1884. A visit to this building will be found interesting and instructive.

Rogers' Observatory, named in honor of the late Professor William A. Rogers and erected in 1860, consists of a circular room, surmounted by a revolving dome 19 feet in diameter, and prime vertical, transit, and clock room. The Observatory contains an equatorial refracting telescope, a meridan circle, a sidereal chronometer, a filar micrometer, an astronomical globe, a heliotellus, charts, etc.

The State Hall of Ceramics, built in 1900, is a handsome brick building fully equipped with machinery and kilns for carrying out all kinds of clay work. The Art Department is provided with every facility for the study of drawing, composition, and applied design.

The Gothic, so called from its style of architecture, was built in 1852 and is the oldest of the University buildings. It is occupied by the Theological Seminary, and contains lecture rooms, library, reading room and the Dean's office.

The Academy Chapel, a large two story frame structure, was erected in 1857, and is occupied by the Preparatory School. The study hall, recitation rooms, chapel, gentlemen's lyceum rooms and the principal's office are here located.

Library

Our large and rapidly growing library contains over 20,000 volumes and 8,000 pamphlets. The books are chiefly those bearing on the courses of instruction, supplemented by dictionaries, encyclopedias and reference books. The rooms are open from 8 a. m., to 12 m. and from 1 p. m., to 5 p. m., and the Associate Librarian is always present and willing to render any needed assistance. A reading room, well furnished with the leading publications, is maintained in connection with the library. Tables and chairs are conveniently arranged for those using it. Periodicals may be drawn at 4 p. m. and retained till 9:30 a. m. the next school day. A nominal fee of 15 cents per quarter is charged each student for the maintenance of the library.

Proposed Buildings

By an act of the Legislature of the state of New York in 1908 there was authorized the establishment of a State School of Agriculture at Alfred. Plans for the building are being completed. It will stand on State Street next to the State School of Ceramics.

The President and trustees of the University have been able to secure from Mr. Andrew Carnegie the promise of a $25,000 library building, upon the condition that the University clear itself of debt. Strenuous efforts are now being put forth to accomplish this purpose, a large share of the debt having been already raised and it is hoped that the corner stone may be laid in the near future.

Hints to Freshmen.

Read this book thoroughly.

Watch the bulletin boards—your name may be there.

Utilize the Library and Reading Room—open from 8 A. M. to 12 M.; 1 to 5 P. M. Learn the Dewey System of Classifying.

Feel free to consult your professors; they are your friends.

Attend the Y. M. C. A. meetings in the new room in Burdick Hall, or the Y. W. C. A. in the "Brick".

Take an interest in Athletics, and in all College activities.

Patronize our advertisers.

When you go to Hornell or Wells-ville for goods, patronize those firms who were kind enough and sensible enough to advertise with us. They are the best business places in those towns and besides are not "tight-wads."

Organize your class as early as possible.

Go to Chapel. Freshmen occupy the front seats.

Visit all the lyceums; think for yourself and select for yourself your lyceum home, and go there soon.

Live up to the Campus Rules. You must obey before you can command.

Have a regular system in your college work—a time for study, recreation and exercise—and then live up to your system and you will have time for all.

Don't be a dead grind. The various college activities have to be carried on by someone and "I've got to study" is not an excuse for neglecting your part of them.

Go to church—Sabbath day at the village Church or Sunday at the Gothic.

Subscribe to the "University Monthly." Contribute articles to it. It needs your support both financially and intellectually. Freshmen are entitled to one editor. Pick out someone who will be some good on the Board.

The big A's are worn only by those who have earned them. Earn one for yourself this year.

Don't get the bighead, and don't brag, but work!

Learn the songs and use your lungs on the yells.

Don't be ashamed of your religion—college men respect sincere Christians.

Campus Rules

1. All Freshmen are required to wear a green cap with a short visor and large gold button every day in the week except Saturday and Sunday, until Founder's Day, unless special permission be granted otherwise by the Student Senate. The wearing of the caps shall be resumed after the spring vacation. First year specials shall wear the same cap without the gold button.
2. The wearing of Prep school pins and monograms is prohibited.
3. Freshmen are forbidden to smoke in public.

4. Freshmen girls, whenever permitted to enjoy the privilege of walking with upper class girls, shall carry any books or parcels the latter may be carrying.

5. Freshmen shall report for duty on the athletic field, when called upon by the managers, for the purpose of marking the field and such other work as is required.

6. None but upper classmen shall be allowed to wear corduroys.

7. Freshmen shall be required to hold open the chapel doors every morning until the Student Body shall have passed out, this rule to take effect as soon as the seating list is arranged.

8. All class contests shall be umpired by upper classmen. Legitimate class contests shall consist of: Banquet, football, basketball, baseball, flag rush, cane rush, tug-of-war, rope tie, and procs. The Freshmen class must challenge the Sophomore class in writing to the following contests: Football, basketball, baseball, flag raising and tug-of-war. If in any case the Freshmen fail to challenge, it shall count as a victory for the Sophomores.

9. All cases of violation of these rules are to be referred to the Student Senate for settlement. The Senate will enforce the rules.

Rules Regarding Class Contests.

BANQUETS

Underclass banquets shall be held during the month of October and on any day of the week, except during the period of time between sundown on Friday and midnight on Saturday. An upper classman chosen by the class shall be present and act as umpire and in case a dispute arises it shall be referred to the Student Senate for settlement.

The class holding the banquet must have three-fourths of its members present. It is to be counted as a victory for the opposing class only when a majority of its members are present and give their class yell before the banquet is completed.

FLAG RUSH

This contest shall be held at an hour stated by the Student Senate, and agreeable to both classes, Sophomores and Freshmen, and shall be umpired by members of the Student Senate.

It must be held on the campus and in the open, not from any building.

The class having the largest number of men shall choose for this contest the same number as the other class has men.

The flag must be at least two feet by four in dimensions and fastened to a rope running through a pulley. The rope must run freely in the pulley and the lower end of the rope must not be higher than ten feet above the ground.

Greasing the pole shall not be permitted.

The flag must stay up half an hour to constitute a victory for the Freshman class.

PROCS

Procs must not be put down before the Monday following the opening of college. They must be removed before six thirty a. m. in order to be counted as a victory for the Freshmen.

No procs shall be posted after the first one is removed by the Freshmen.

The ringing of the chapel bell shall be the signal that the first proc has been removed. If the bell is rung by or for the Freshmen before any procs shall have been removed the contest shall be considered a victory for the Sophomores.

The procs must be posted within a radius of half a mile of the flag pole upon the campus, not beyond the edge of the village proper.

They must be pasted in the open—that is, they must not be posted in any building and must not be concealed by any moveable object.

College Songs

Hail to Thee Alfred

Nestled away 'mid the Empire State hills,
'Neath the watch-care of sentinel pines,
Where the murmuring song of the brook
hums along,

And a favoring sun ever shines;
In a valley so fair where the forest trees share

Dominion o'er hillside and gle,
Stands the pioneer college of Western
New York,

Alfred the mother of men.

CHORUS

Hall to thee, Alfred, thou guide of our youth,

Sweet, benign mother, all hail!
Sing on thy anthems of duty and truth;
May thy clear ringing music ne'er fail.

She was founded in toil, cemented with blood,

And nurtured thro' yearnings and tears,
Her treasure the hearts of brave heroes who stood

Undaunted throughout trying years.
Each stone was a prayer and her battlements there

Have memories of purposes strong.
Staunch daughters and sons are her monument fair,

And they lift up the grateful song.

CHORUS

Others may boast of prestige and size,
Of numbers and treasure and fame;
But Alfred's pride lies in manhood's clear eyes,

And womanhood's high, stainless name.
Old Alfred, we say; Alfred now and for aye—

Kenyon and Allen and Maln,
And the gallant young leader we honor
today,

Her honor and power maintain.

CHORUS

L. C. RANDOLPH.

By the Old Steinheim A-Dreaming

By the old Steinheim a-dreaming,
When the sun is in the west,
When the bird notes are the sweetest,
And the village is at rest;
When the wind is in the pine trees,
And the Chapel bell is still,
There is rest for mind and spirit,
At this haunt upon the hill.

CHORUS

You may go where'er you please
From the north to southern sea
And you'll find no music sweeter
Than the wind in old pine trees;
How each restless thought it stills,
How the heart with rapture thrills
When the green comes back in springtime
To the dear old Alfred hills.

Tell us not of larger colleges
With greater wealth endowed,
For despite their great attractions,
Of A. U. we still are proud;
Scarce we understand the reason
But the very soil seems dear,
And we always breathe the freer
In this pure, clear atmosphere.

CHORUS

Now the violet is blooming
And I dream the oriole calls,
And my heart is fain and restless
Far from classic paths and halls;
When the heart is only longing
Little sympathy it finds,
And I sigh for dear old Alfred
And the wind among the pines.

CHORUS

EDNA BLISS, '90.

Song of the Classes

Where, oh where are the verdant Freshmen ?
Where, oh where are the verdant Freshmen ?
Where, oh where are the verdant Freshmen ?
Safe, safe in the Sophomore class.

They've gone out from Wilcox's English,
They've gone out from Wilcox's English,
They've gone out from Wilcox's English,
Safe, safe in the Sophomore class.

Where, oh where are the rusty Sophomores ?
Where, oh where are the rusty Sophomores ?
Where, oh where are the rusty Sophomores ?
Safe, safe, in the Junior class.

They've gone out from Fairfield's Latin,
They've gone out from Fairfield's Latin,
They've gone out from Fairfield's Latin,
Safe, safe in the Junior class.

Where, oh where are the stately Juniors ?
Where, oh where are the stately Juniors ?
Where, oh where are the stately Juniors ?
Safe, safe in the Senior class.

They've gone out from dear old "Tommy,"
They've gone out from dear old "Tommy,"
They've gone out from dear old "Tommy,"
Safe, safe in the Senior class.

Where, oh where are the grave old Seniors ?
Where, oh where are the grave old Seniors ?
Where, oh where are the grave old Seniors ?
Safe, safe in the wide, wide world.

They've gone out from A. B. Kenyon,
They've gone out from A. B. Kenyon,
They've gone out from A. B. Kenyon,
Safe, safe in the wide, wide world.

Some day we'll go out and meet them,
Some day we'll go out and meet them,
Some day we'll go out and meet them,
Safe, safe in the wide, wide world.

Tune—Eli Yale

As freshmen we were awful green,
Fol de rol, de rol, rol, rol.
As fresh a lot as e're was seen,
Fol de rol, de rol, rol, rol.

CHORUS—Spoken

Alfred! Alfred! Rah! Rah! Rah!
Fol de rol, de rol, rol, rol.
(Spoken)

Alfred! Alfred! Rah! Rah! Rah!
Fol de rol, de rol, rol, rol.

As soph'mores we were up to snuff,
Fol de rol, de rol, rol, rol.
At posting procs we were hot stuff,
Fol de rol, de rol, rol, rol.

CHORUS

We juniors lingered 'round the Brick
Fol de rol, de rol, rol, rol.
At winning hearts we were so slick,
Fol de rol, de rol, rol, rol.

CHORUS

We seniors seek our Profs. to please,
Fol de rol, de rol, rol, rol.
We know we must to get degrees,
Fol de rol, de rol, rol, rol.

CHORUS

The saddest tale we have to tell,
Fol de rol, de rol, rol, rol.
Is when we bid our friends farewell,
Fol de rol, de rol, rol, rol.

CHORUS

Color Song

Tune—Every race has a Flag but the Coon.

Harvard, she cheers for the crimson
Yale upholds her colors blue,
Princeton shouts for black and orange,
Red and white to Cornell true,
Blue and white are for Columbia,
Pensy loves her colors bold,
But old Alfred she will fight
For the Purple and the Gold,
They're the colors that are brave and true.

Victory Songs

Tune—Let the lower lights be burning

Alfred men are all victorious
On gridiron, field and track.
Play the game boys, sharp and steady,
And we'll bring a victory back.
Ring the bells of old North College;
Paint the town as ne'er before;
Line 'em out boys, play together.
Score once more, a score once more.

Tune—Marching Through Georgia

Let the sons of Princeton sing in praise of old Nasseau,
Fair Harvard, Yale and Wille Penn, with bold and prestige awe;
Our love for Alma Mater dear, will pledge with loud huzza,
Hurrah boys for Alfred and victory.

CHORUS

Hurrah, Hip! Hip!
Hurrah, Hip! Hip!
Hurrah for old Alfred.
Hurrah, Hip! Hip!
Hurrah, Hip! Hip!
She's hale and hearty yet.
O! May her luster never fade, her glory never set.
Hurrah boys. for Alfred and Victory.

March, march on down the field,
Alfred will never yield,
Straight through our enemies
Their strength to defy.
Give a long cheer for Teiper's* band,
Alfred will lead the land,
All our foes may fight to the end,
But we will win.

*In Baseball season insert Allen in place of Teiper.

Oh, The Hills of Allegany

'Twas a hundred years ago that an' ox-team,
moving slow,

Broke the silence of this forest temple grand;
Velvet carpet under feet of the fresh pine needles sweet,

'Mid the fragrance of a virgin land.

And the driver sang a song, for his heart was brave and strong,

Wife and children in the wagon by his side;
He had come to find a place in this far-off wilderness

To build a home and there abide.

'Twas a hard, laborious life for the farmer and his wife,

Felling trees, burning brush and planting
grain,

Boiling sap and hunting game, hewing logs to make a frame

To protect his home from sun and rain;

While the helpmeet turned the reel, or she sped
the spinning wheel,

Or prepared the frugal dinner for them all,

Toil and hardship bravely borne, flinching not the rose's thorn,

They lived their lives at God's clear call.

These were homes of faith and prayer, and the highest purpose there

Was to send out noble men to bless their race;

So they lived the Golden Rule, and they built
the church and school,

Thus they bravely wrought and filled their place.

Though our sires have passed away, they foretold the coming day

When the humblest farmer boy should be a king;

When the farm should be his throne, and the bride come to her own;

So now to them our song we'll sing.

CHORUS:—

Oh, the hills of Allegany,

Be the June skies bright or rainy,

Fairest hills your loyal children ever knew.

Though your sides be rough and steep,

Our hearts' tendrils round you creep,

And our love is strong and deep—for you.

—L. C. RANDOLPH

When Prexy Calls the Cows Home From Pasture

Tune—Marching Through Georgia

Bring the good old milking stool and open wide the gate,

For the sun is sinking and the time is growing late,

And old Alfred always must be strictly up-
to-date,

So, Prexy—call the cows home from pasture

CHORUS:—

Good-bye, good-bye, to the ox-cart and the mule,

Hurrah! Hurrah! for farming now by rule;

So we sing the chorus at the Agricultural School, (co boss, co boss)

While Prexy calls the cows home from pasture.

How the freshmen shouted when they heard the joyful sound,

For when milking time has come you'll always see them round,

Eagerly they lift their cups and on the tables pound.

While Prexy calls the cows home from pasture.

Yes, and there are Seniors, too, who weep with angry tears

When they have to feed the calves they have not fed for years;

All too oft some wretched calf a senior's bosom
smears,

While Prexy calls the cows home from pasture.

(ENCORE VERSE)

Now, Pletcher, don your big straw hat; and Bennehoff your jeans;
Clark and Childs will gather fruit, and Wilcox
pick the greens;
Kenyon will extract square roots and Tommy hoe the beans,
While Prexy calls the cows home from pasture.

Stein Song

Give a rouse, then in the May time
For a life that knows no fear!
Turn a night-time into day-time,
With the sunlight of good cheer!
For it's always fair weather
When good fellows get together,
||With a stein on the table
And a good song ringing clear.||
Oh, we're all frank and twenty
When the spring is in the air;
And we've faith and hope a plenty,
And we've life and love to spare;
And it's birds of a feather
When good fellows get together,
||When a stein on the table
And a heart without a care.||
When the wind comes up from Cuba
And the birds are on the wing,
And our hearts are patting juba .
To the banjo of the spring,
Then life slips its tether
When good fellows get together,
||With a stein on the table
In the fellowship of spring.||

Song of Cities

Sing a song of cities, roll dem cotton bale,
Nigger ne'er so happy as when he's out of jail.
Norfolk for its oysters, Boston for baked beans,
Baltimore for pretty girls, but for niggers
New Orleans.

CHORUS

I've been working on the railroad, all the live long day,
I've been working on the railroad to pass
the time away,
Don't you hear the cap'n shouting; rise up so early in the morn.
Don't you hear the darkies calling, Dinah blow you horn?

Alma Mater

Tune—Amicl

Where the hills of Allegany
Stand as guardians 'round,
Nestling fondly in the valley,
Lies our college town.

Chorus—

Alfred, hail! our Alma Mater,
Thee we'll always praise,
Sons and daughters ever loyal,
Songs to thee will raise.
College days will soon be over,
Far from thee we roam,
But we think of thee, old Alfred,
Ever as our home.

Chorus—

Alfred hail! etc.

Colleges are everywhere realizing the value and importance of practical debating among the students. Debates are becoming more and more common, and greater interest is shown in these contests of brain against brain. Here, at Alfred, those who wish to debate find many opportunities to improve. The men in their Lyceum spend considerable time in debating, and each Lyceum usually conducts at least one debate, annually, with on outside organization.

Inter-class debates are increasingly popular. There is certainly every chance for debating.

It is not every one who can be taught to stand upon his feet and, at the same time think logically and express himself clearly and forcibly, but the study and practice of debating go far towards that end. The worth of the training can not be estimated; it is invaluable. It gives a young man confidence in himself, increases his fluency of expression, and adds largely to his power of self control

Athletic Association

The Athletics of the college are under control of the faculty Athletic Committee and are administered by the Athletic Association. The general policy to be followed is formed by the board of directors, who are elected annually from the members of the Association. Immediately under the directors, and responsible to them for the execution of their plans, is a graduate manager. Under the graduate manager are assistant managers who act as directed by him.

Under the new constitution any student can become a life member, eligible for an officer and to participate in any sport upon the payment of 25 cents.

President.

Athletics are the spice of college life. Without them there is nothing to keep up college spirit at Alfred. Athletics do not pay financially. Yet for the good of the college they must be kept up by the students. Successful teams are the best physical training department a college can have.

It is the duty of all to support athletics and of everyone who can to get on the field and do what he can to make the season successful.

Football, baseball, basketball and tennis are played at Alfred.

Foot Ball

is the college game. It is possible for a small college with the proper spirit to get out a good strong foot ball team. The two things which can prevent Alfred having a good strong team this fall are "knocking" by the student body and favoritism by those having direction. Let every Alfred student new or old pull together to get out a winning team this fall. Come out freshmen and try for the team.

H. N. GARWOOD, Mgr.

J. E. TEIPER, Captain.

Basket Ball

If a suitable place can be secured basket ball will again claim its share of attention. It is hoped that efforts to secure a basket ball Hall may be successful this year.

Base Ball

The prospects in base ball are good. A majority of the old team will play again in the spring of 1909, and a number of good new men will try out for the team. We confidently expect a good season.

H. H. ALLEN, Capt.

Tennis

The interest in tennis has greatly increased during the past season, and Alfred is better equipped than ever, having three courts which have been placed in excellent condition. The dues are one dollar per semester, payable to the treasurer of the Tennis Association. This money goes toward keeping up and improving the courts.

Hand Ball

During the past year much interest and enthusiasm was manifested for hand ball. Two new courts were placed in the gymnasium and a class tournament held. As it is a game that may be quickly learned and at the same time gives ample exercise and amusement, its continued popularity at Alfred is fully insured.

Field Day

Much interest was created last year by the placing of a field day upon the University calendar. An entire holiday was given to the student body and the time spent in a general athletic tournament between the different classes.

Now that the field day has become a permanent affair, its celebration for the coming year should arouse even greater interest among the students for general athletics than it did last year.

It is also expected that a meet will be arranged with some other school this year, the members of the team for this contest to be decided by the inter-class meet.

To the New Students

The object of this book, as already stated, in our greeting, is to give you information which you will find useful in beginning your College course. Among other things it is necessary to know where you can best purchase articles which a student needs. It has been our aim to secure advertisements for the following pages from houses that are reliable and that are friends of the college. You will find also at intervals some blank pages. Use them.

We recommend to your patronage the business houses who have made this book possible and we know that you will find it pleasant and advantageous to deal with them.
