A WORD ABOUT THIS BOOK

The Alfred Christian Fellowship is interested in helping every student make a successful adjustment to college life as quickly as possible. That is why we cooperate actively with the Faculty in the conduct of Freshman Week.

The A. C. F. is also interested in helping every student get the most out of college life throughout the entire time he is on the campus. To that end we publish this University Handbook in order that each student may know something of the background of the University, and the many opportunities that are open to him in extra-curricular activities, as well as a few of the simple rules we have found wise for our community living.

In preparing this 1942-43 Edition of the Handbook we have faced many difficulties in securing all of the necessary information and editing it to our reduced size. For instance, Athletic schedules have been eliminated because of the uncertain emergency conditions. We believe however, that we have included all important matters of general interest. Certain sections of some constitutions have been omitted because they deal with details of organization within the group. Officers of these organizations may secure copies of last year's Handbook, with their complete constitution at the office of the Chaplain.

This Handbook would not be possible without the financial support of the administrations of the University and the Institute and of the Student Senate. To them we express our appreciation.

TO THE CLASS OF 1946

Welcome:

Your high school days are over and you are undertaking the adventure of college. I am glad that you have chosen Alfred as your school. I hope that you are the type of persons which this school can successfully lead in the attainment of real education.

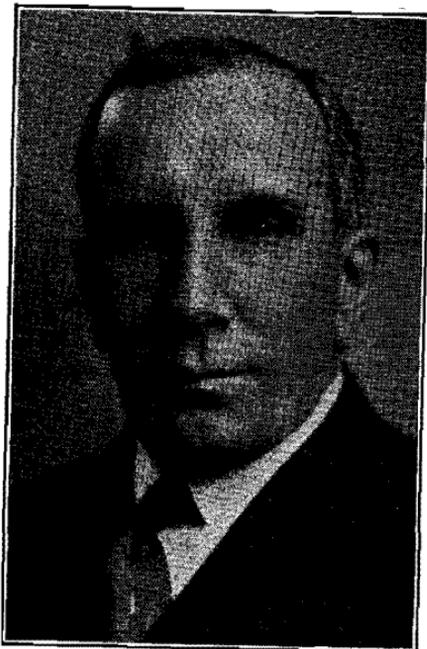

I hope that you will have an enjoyable time here. Most students do. A touch of homesickness occasionally bothers one during these first weeks, but it is a disease never fatal. I trust that the social life, the sports, the dramatics, the journalistic opportunities and other extra-classroom activities will claim their proper share of you time and interest. They are a real part of a well-rounded education.

I hope you will find many congenial spirits, and a very small circle of cronies. These cronies should be a very select group. They will largely determine certain types of your growth in college. Remember that these friendships will in some cases last a lifetime. One of these friends may become your wife (or husband).

We are going through gravely tragic times. By your presence here you obviously feel that higher education is still necessary. You are right. Whether for service in the armed forces later or for service in the post-victory reconstruction days, leaders in all lines of professional and technical activity will be essential. Educated men and women have better opportunities and serve more usefully. Concentrate on this educational job while at it. Grow an all round personality. Know your business and acquire your skills. Learn to do something and learn to be somebody.

It is a pleasure to welcome to the campus new students enrolling in any one of the four divisions constituting Alfred University in its broadest sense. May you all enjoy and profit by your courses in this fine one-hundred-and-six-year-old institution.

STORY OF ALFRED UNIVERSITY

To you young men and young women coming upon the campus of Old Alfred for the first time, coming to make yourselves Alfred's and Alfred yours; to you I say the questions will naturally arise: "How and when and why did Alfred University start," "What has it been?" "How has it become what we now see?" To be sure, there is a spirit and ideal here that you can learn about only by contact and experience with it; but glimpses at the story of its past can be given, which will aid you to learn of its spirit.

Just one hundred and five years ago the fifth day of next December, thirty-seven young people got together in an upper room in one of the eight or ten houses that made up Alfred Center, as it was then called, forming the select school, the seed of Alfred University. The teacher was a young man named Bethuel C. Church. He taught one winter, and was succeeded the second winter by a student from Union College, named James R. Irish. The school was already a success and people had said, "Go to, let us build a school building for our new school." This was done by the fall of 1837. The new building had 28 by 38 feet floor space and was ten feet high to the eaves. It was surmounted by a cupola which caused the students to dub it the "Horned Bug," but more dignified people called it "The Cadmus." It cost $550.

In 1839, when Mr. Irish resigned, another Union student, William C. Kenyon, famous in Alfred history, took charge and gave his whole life to the building up of Alfred University. When the little select school was chartered as an academy in 1843, his title became Principal, and when it asked in 1857 for a college charter, but got a university charter, his title was changed to President. He died in the presidential harness ten years later.

Although "The Cadmus" was enlarged still bigger ideas were incubating. A tract of forest land was bought on the lower slope of Pine Hill (perhaps you are sitting somewhere on it as you read this) and was slowly made to resemble a campus. By 1848, three new buildings appeared on the hillside. Lumber and labor were cheap, much of both was donated, so that the total cost of these structures was $16,000. There was North Hall, a dormitory, which had a checkered career. It stood about where the Steinheim now stands. In 1868 it was sold to the school district and moved down to the present site of Kanakadea Hall and used as a school house. But its "moving down" propensities had not disappeared, for it was acquired by a private individual and moved still further down the hill and fitted up as a hotel. This private individual was Mr. William C. Burdick, who, in 1896 allowed the University to use the building as a dormitory. Later his heirs gave it to the school. Have you guessed it? Yes, that's it, its present name is—Burdick Hall.

Then, there was old South Hall, a girls' dormitory. It stood where the Social Hall now is, and went up in smoke one cold February morning in 1858. Middle Hall, a boarding place, and a home for some of the teachers, stood on that old cellar site south of the Steinheim. Later it came to be the home of President Allen, and just after being wholly remodeled as a college dormitory, it was burned early in 1912.

Meantime the old Chapel (Alumni Hall, with the quill-pen weather vane), 1852, and the Brick, 1859, so-called to mark its contrast with all the other buildings, which were of wood, appeared. In due time (1863-66) was completed the William A. Rogers Observatory (now taken down) introducing the name of one of the most famous men in the field of science Alfred has ever possessed.

When President William C. Kenyon ended his labors in 1867, all eyes turned to a member of the faculty, Jonathan Allen, as his logical successor. Professor Allen had been a student in that first select school, and like some of his classmates, had paid his tuition by chopping six cords of four foot wood. He shrank from the task imposed upon him by the trustees, but proved that they and other friends had been right in naming him president, for under his direction Alfred University prospered, and his influence spread far and wide in the land.

In 1879 the unique and beautiful structure called the Steinheim was finished. It represented many things, including the geological formation hereabouts, and in its interior finish, many local woods. The building and its collections were bought by the University.

At President Allen's suggestion, a suitable monument to President Kenyon was erected (1882) in the beautiful Kenyon Memorial Hall. The Gothic was a faculty member's home, and was purchased by the University in 1875.

President Allen managed Alfred's affairs for an even quarter of a century, dying in 1892. The late Professor A. B. Kenyon, as acting-president for a year, and Dean Arthur B. Main as President for two years, bring our story to 1895, when President Davis began his long and successful service as builder of the New Alfred. Then came others of our familiar buildings: Babcock Hall of Physics (1897) (burned in 1929), the Ceramic School (1900), Kanakadea Hall (1908), the School of Agriculture (1909), the Carnegie Library (1912), the central heating plant (1917), Allen Memorial Laboratory (1923), Track and Field House (1929), Susan Howell Social Hall (1930), Bartlett Memorial Dormitory (1931), and the new Ceramic College building (1931). In November (1932), the Brick was largely destroyed by fire and remodeled in 1933. During 1934 the new Hall of Physics was completed, while the new South Hall was acquired in 1940. These buildings constitute the obvious Alfred of 1941. Again let it be remarked that knowledge of the inner Alfred—the soul of these buildings and campus—is a matter of slow growth in appreciation. Let me drop one hint. It is said that when old South Hall was on fire in 1858, one of the loyal supporters of the school, accompanied by his wife, was riding to town in the old farm wagon. When the pair reached the crest of the hill west of the village and saw the flames and smoke, the wife exclaimed: "South Hall's afire! I see where I wear my old dress another year."

Incidents like this enable us to sense more vividly the meaning of a stanza of Alma Mater which runs:

"She was founded in toil, cemented with blood,
And nurtured through yearnings and tears.
Her treasure, the hearts of brave heroes
who stood
Undaunted throughout trying years.
Each stone was a prayer and her battle-
ments there,
Have memories of purposes strong.
Staunch daughters and sons are her monuments fair,
And they lift up the grateful song."

1933 saw another important page written into the history of Alfred University. The long term of President Davis came to a close (1895-1933) and Dr. Paul E. Titsworth was appointed to take his place. The school mourned the death of this truly great leader, a scant few months later. He made his short presence keenly felt and was loved by all those who were fortunate to know him. Dr. J. Nelson

Norwood was appointed President in his place, and is carrying on the work of his illustrious predecessors.

In 1938, Alfred University celebrated the 100th anniversary of its founding. Highlights of the five-day Centennial celebration were a pageant, a Centennial convocation, and the 100th anniversary commencement. Many distinguished guests attended the celebration, among them Miss Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor. The Centennial was preserved for future generations of Alfredians, on motion picture film.

MORE THAN FACTS OR SKILL

Machines do not have, nor can they produce, character. Some students who come to college to know many facts or to develop a few specific skills are nothing more than scholastic machines. When you put a nickle in a juke-box it plays the record—feed these students the right kind of a question and they sing off the right answers. But don't ask them, "Why?"

In the happily adjusted, efficient person facts and skills need to be dominated and directed by a philosophy of life and a philosophy of life needs to be motivated and energized by a faith in the world in which we live. All business, all the professions, all government, indeed, all life gains its deepest meaning and most real success from the intangibles of faith, good-will, confidence, integrity and courage. These intangibles are spiritual factors, the product of religion.

Alfred offers more than a training in facts and skills. Alfred offers a fellowship with strong religious convictions and seeks to develop in each of her sons and daughters a strong, self-reliant, intellectually mature religious experience. This experience will provide a foundation for a philosophy of life and direct the use of knowledge and skills in the many complex situations in the world today.

Alfred is more than tolerant of the variety of religious experiences found within her student body. Always she has actively encouraged each person to develop his or her own spiritual heritage to the fullest. The program of religious activities is varied and interesting, and is carefully planned to meet the needs of differing students.

The religious program has two main groups of students in mind:

1. Those who have not yet developed any, or only a very elementary religious point of view, or who are troubled about their religious convictions, and

2. Those who have a fairly clear and well-defined religious experience. A third part of the program concerns itself with developing voluntary and professional leadership for religious and character-building agencies in those advanced students who demonstrate their ability in this field.

For the first group there is offered the courses in the curriculum and many discussion groups sponsored by the student religious organizations (see below). Some of these discussions are the larger, "town-hall" type where visiting experts are heard and questioned. Others are of the small group type where intimacy and frankness prevail and no honest question is barred. Many of this group also find new light on their problems in the regular worship services (see below) or in personal conferences with the Chaplain and other faculty members.

For those students in the second group there are regular services of worship and church activities in which they can further develop and express their religious interests. Since most students are growing in their religious insights there is no hard and fast division of the two groups in the program, but the varying needs of the two groups are kept in mind.

Since 1929 the University has maintained on its staff a Chaplain trained in religious work with students who acts as a counsellor to individuals and as advisor to the various organizations and their programs. The Chaplain has his office in Kenyon Memorial Hall adjoining the Chapel. All students are invited to call upon him at any time.

REGULAR WORSHIP SERVICES

University Chapel — 11 a. m., Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday in Kenyon Chapel. A 20 minute service, under the direction of the Chaplain, at which there are frequently student, faculty and off-campus speakers. Mr. Wingate is organist and arranges special musical services from time to time.

University Church—11 a. m., Sundays in the Village Church. A non-sectarian service of Christian worship conducted by the Chaplain, assisted by the vested choir of forty voices. This church is governed by an Executive Committee of Students and faculty.

First Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Church —11 a. m., on the Sabbath in the Village Church. The Rev. E. T. Harris, Pastor.

Roman Catholic Mass—9:15 a. m., Sundays in Kenyon Chapel. Sponsored by the Newman Club.

Christ Chapel (Episcopal)—5 p. m., Sundays in the Gothic Chapel.

STUDENT RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The Alfred Christian Fellowship is a group of men and women which carries on the work of the former student Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. There are regular meetings weekly and special project and interest groups from time to time.

This organization welcomes to its membership all "students and faculty who seek to understand Jesus and to express His principles on the campus, in the world and in their personal lives... It endeavors to stimulate and encourage creative thinking and constructive work in any field that contributes to human welfare and mutual understanding."

Its program is administered through three Commissions:

1. Personal Religious Living, dealing with personality and character development, religious beliefs, prayer and worship.
2. Campus Relations, dealing with educational and cultural topics, student-faculty discussions, recreational and hobby activities.

3. Christian Citizenship at Home and Abroad, dealing with problems in the community (social welfare, economic, governmental) and in international relations.

The Alfred Christian Fellowship works with other campuses, with the Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. and with the various denominations through the Student Christian Movement in New York State and always has a large delegation at the S.C.M. Conferences. Through the S.C.M. it is related to the National Intercollegiate Christian Council and the World Student Christian Federation. Last year the Fellowship raised $235.00 for relief work with students in Europe and Asia.

The Brent Fellowship for Episcopal students meets for supper and a program each Sunday evening immediately following vespers.

Jewish students have, as yet, no comparable organization, but Kappa Nu, national Jewish social fraternity, usually plays host to the Jewish community in the observance of the religious festivals.

ADMINISTRATION RULES

REGISTRATION RULES FOR THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Students will register at the Registrar's office or the Library on registration days. A fee of five dollars ($5) will be charged for late registration.

Students are expected to register for no more than 17 hours, but if a student has an average standing of B in the preceding semester he may register for 18 or more hours upon the approval of the Dean and Registrar.

Physical Training may be taken in addition to the maximum of 17 hours.

Regulations concerning standings to be maintained by students to entitle them to the privilege of registration without probation the following semester:

Freshman Year, first semester, no definite index. Second semester, 0.20.

Junior Year, first semester, 0.80. Second semester, 1.00.

Senior Year, first semester, 1.00. Second semester, 1.00.

For graduation it is required that a student have an average scholarship index throughout his course of 1.00.

All indices mentioned above are cumulative and are based on grades for the course thus far.

For complete details see the catalogue of the College of Liberal Arts.

Students desiring to drop a subject for which they have registered, must obtain permission from the instructor, and report to the Registrar's office.

No subject can be dropped after the first week of the semester without penalty. (See grade "W" below.)

REGISTRATION RULES FOR THE COLLEGE OF CERAMICS

The procedure for registration in the Ceramic College is the same as that for the College of Liberal Arts and all the registration rules mentioned above hold equally for Liberal Art and Ceramic students except the regulations concerning standings to be maintained by students to entitle them to the privilege of registration the following semester. In the College of Ceramics they are as follows:

Freshmen are required to have an average scholastic index of 0.50.

Sophomores are required to have an average scholastic index of 0.75.

Juniors are required to have an average scholastic index of 0.85 at the end of the first semester and 1.00 at the end of the second semester.

Seniors are required to have an average scholastic index of 1.00.

A student, whose average cumulative index falls in a range between the average index mentioned above and an index of 0.50 less than that average index, shall be placed on probation for the following semester. If at the end of the probationary period the average cumulative scholastic index fails to come up to the requirement for his class he shall be dismissed for low scholarship.

A student, whose average index at the end of a semester falls below the range specified for probation, shall be dismissed because of low scholarship.

For further rules see the catalogue of the New York State College of Ceramics.

STANDINGS

The standings of students are reported to them only by letters, and not by percentages.

"A" signifies excellent or superior work; "B" signifies good work or above the average; "C" signifies average or fair work; "D" signifies poor or unsatisfactory work, and is the lowest passing mark; "E" signifies conditioned failure which may be made up by re-examination, or other conditions imposed by the instructor; "I" signifies that work is unfinished; "W" signifies that course has been dropped; "F" signifies failure, which may be made up only by repeating the course in which the grade was received.

A condition or "E" grade shall be given whenever a student has failed to do work of a passing grade, but has done sufficient work to be able to complete the course without repeating the class work. A condition may be removed any time during the following semester. Upon report from the instructor that the condition has been removed, the office will change the grade from "E" to "D".

An incomplete (designated by the letter "I") shall be given to the student whose work has been of passing grade but who has not completed the full amount of work required by the end of the semester. An incomplete may be removed during the following semester, when the student has satisfactorily completed the required work.

The grade "W" will be given to all students who drop a course after the first week of the semester and within two weeks prior to the beginning of final examinations providing the consent of the instructor and the Dean of the College is secured. If a student drops a course within two weeks of examination time, the final grade shall be "F". The "W" shall count as (-1) in determining an index. A student may be excused from these penalties by vote of the faculty for good and sufficient reasons.

When a student has failed to complete one-half of the work required in a course, the final grade will be "F" and not "I".

An incomplete or a condition which is not removed during the next following semester of residence in the college, shall automatically be changed in the office to a failure (F) grade.

EXAMINATIONS

Final examinations are held at the close of each semester. Occasionally, written tests are held during the semester. Fees will be charged for all examinations taken by those not regular members of classes or for examinations or announced hour class tests taken at other times than those appointed. The fee for a special examination to take the place of a final examination is $5. The fee for any special test to take the place of an announced one-hour class test is $1.

When the student wishes to take a special examination or class test, he shall bring to the instructor a permit signed by the Dean of Women or Dean of Men. No special examination shall be given by an instructor unless this permit has first been presented.

ATTENDANCE REGULATIONS

Sec. 1. Regular attendance at class exercises is expected. In the event of absence for any reason the student is expected to make up the work to the satisfaction of the Instructor. If, and when possible this arrangement should be made before the student absents himself from class.

Sec. 2. Excuses for absences will be granted for the following reasons only:

a. Necessary absence incurred by one representing the University on official business such as participation in athletics, dramatics, student conferences and debates, provided arrangement has previously been made with the Dean.

b. Illness, provided the student arranges with the University physician or infirmary superintendent, secures a satisfactory statement from the officials concerned and files same within one week after the absent period.

c. Serious illness at home or other imperative matters necessitating the student's absence, provided such absence is arranged for with the Dean within one week from the date of the absence.

Sec. 3. Absences per semester for each course may be permitted without penalty not to exceed the number of class exercises. Two tardinesses may be reported as an absence. No absence, however, may be taken by any student on the day immediately preceding or following any college recess.

Sec. 4. Seniors and Juniors who have a cumulative index of 1.25 or better and have not been previously disciplined for violation of rules limiting absences shall have the privilege of voluntary attendance at classes on days other than those which immediately precede or follow any college recess. Seniors and Juniors with a cumulative index above 2.00 shall have the privilege of voluntary attendance regardless of previous disciplinary action. If in the opinion of the Dean this privilege is detrimental to the welfare of any student, that student shall forfeit this privilege.

Sec. 5. Penalties:

a. All students absent without excuse on the day next preceding or immediately following any college recess shall have their credit for that semester reduced an hour for each course in which the absence occurs.

b. Whenever any student, except those Seniors and Juniors who have the privilege of voluntary attendance, has reached the limit of absences permitted in any course this fact shall be reported by the Instructor to the Dean who will investigate and in the event of further absences shall use such disciplinary measures as may seem necessary.

c. If a student's physical condition, as indicated by the number of absences caused by chronic illness, is such that he is unable to do satisfactory work he may be required to withdraw from college.

Sec. 6. No excuses for any reason shall be granted for absences from assembly. Three absences from assembly per semester are allowed.

Sec. 7. Absence from any class on the first day of the semester shall be interpreted as late registration for which a fee of five dollars ($5) is charged. Absences will be counted from the first session of the class at the beginning of the semester.

Sec. 8. These regulations are administered by the Deans whose decision is final.

ASSEMBLY

On each Thursday morning at 11:00 o'clock there is an assembly for the Colleges of Liberal Arts and Ceramics at which an address or entertainment is given. Attendance credit will be allowed provided absences do not exceed three for the semester. No excuses for assembly are granted. Four semesters attendance credit in assembly are required for graduation.

SPECIAL RULES

1. Any painting on the University buildings or any other University property is strictly forbidden. The classes as a whole will be penalized for any violation of the rule by any of its members.

2. All smoking in classrooms or in laboratory buildings is prohibited.

3. Smoking on the part of any college woman while under college jurisdiction is strictly forbidden, except in the rooms provided expressly for that purpose by the University.

4. The use of intoxicants by any student is forbidden. As a condition precedent to the students being accepted and remaining in the University, it is understood that the use, possession, or transportation of intoxicating liquors is forbidden. Violation of this rule of the University is sufficient cause to terminate a student's connection with the University.

LIBRARY REGULATIONS

1. Library Hours—The Library is open for regular work from 8:30 A. M. until 12:00 o'clock noon, and from 1:30 to 5:30 P. M. on week days. It is also open from 3:00 to 5:00 P. M. on Saturday and Sunday and from 7:00 to 9:30 every evening except Friday, Saturday and Sunday when it

(2) Reserve books may be drawn from the library at 9 o'clock at night and must be returned not later than 10 o'clock the following morning. Failure to comply with this regulation on the part of any student will subject him to a fine of 25 cents. Continued failure to comply with the above regulation will result in loss of all library privileges.

(3) Reserve books drawn Friday must be returned Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and those drawn Saturday night must be returned Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

INFIRMARY REGULATIONS

1. Office hours at the Infirmary every morning at 9 o'clock except Saturday and Sunday. Students wishing to see Dr. Hitchcock must be at the Infirmary promptly at nine.

CHEATING

Cheating in laboratories, tests and examinations will not be tolerated. The burden of proof will be on the student, who must avoid even the appearance of cheating. Individual instructors will handle cases of cheating as they see fit. Every effort will be made to see that every dishonest student is so labeled in letters of recommendation.

All students in the College of Liberal Arts and Ceramics, unless excused by the Deans, are required to take three periods of Physical Education per week.

ARTICLE I—NAME

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be the Student's Association of Alfred University.

ARTICLE II—PURPOSE

Section 1. Realizing that a true democracy depends upon the fullest possible understanding of mutual responsibility and being aware of the efforts that the Administration has exerted in order to effectively perform their particular functions in the University, the students have organized themselves into the Student's Associa-

Sec. 2. The Committee has advisory supervision over all student social functions and social activities of student life in general. It grants all dates for the campus social calendar. Students desiring to promote any entertainment, party, dance, or other social affair must make application to the Committee. All permissions granted are subject to the approval of the Dean of Women, as to arrangements and chaperonage. Student social affairs will be conducted under the Student Life Regulations which are appended to this Constitution.

Sec. 3. The Committee has the power to act in the capacity of attorney for a student in a critical case, where such action seems justifiable and necessary.

ARTICLE VII—AMENDMENTS

Amendments to this Constitution must be approved by a three-fourths vote of the entire Committee.

STUDENT LIFE REGULATIONS

No student social function may be held within one week prior to examinations, during an examination period, or during Commencement.

Each fraternity (sorority) or non-fraternity organization may have a maximum of four calendar parties per year. Small parties, not on the social calendar, may be held, subject to the regulations governing the large social functions. These parties end at 11:00 P. M.

Arrangements for all social affairs must be made with the Dean of Women by Monday of the week in which the party is to be held. Information must be given as to chaperones, date, place, and type of party. For small parties, the arrangements may be made later in the week, but at least 24 hours before the party is to be held.

The chaperones for all parties must be chosen from the faculty, except by special arrangement with the Dean of Women.

When women are entertained at dinner or otherwise at fraternity houses or other houses where men live, a woman member of the faculty or the wife of a member of the faculty must be invited.

For each party, a student committee of the organization concerned must be responsible for carrying out the social regulations of the College.

No out-of-town dances are to be attended during the week except by special permission of the Dean of Women. During the week-end, out-of-town dances may be attended only after satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Dean of Women. This rule applies also when students are visiting.

All social regulations apply to recess and inter-semester affairs as well as to those held during the college term.

STUDENT SENATE OF THE INSTITUTE

The Institute Senate is a manifestation of the democratic propensities of both the faculty and the students. It is a representative body of the various groups in the school, consisting of eight members: the senior and freshman class Presidents are automatically on the board, there are two seniors and two freshmen two-year course men, and one senior and one freshman three-year course men.

Literally the Senate is the governing unit of the student body and it intercedes between student demands and the faculty. The board has at its discretion the dispensation of all money to be allotted to the various organizations, controls all extra-curricular activities, and decides the policies of the school.

Because of its position, all Institute organizations and class officers are responsible for their actions to the Senate.

President—Robert L. Williams
Vice-President—William Cottrell
Secretary-Treasurer—Mary Walker
Historian and Grand Council Representative—Prof. Wendell Burditt

The Marketeers Club was formed in November, 1939, by a group of interested members of the class in marketing. The aim of the club is to supplement class lectures and discussions with meetings to which executives and marketing specialists are invited. In addition to the discussions, the club hopes to take at least one field trip a year. Although first organized as a club for Agricultural students, it has proven itself to be a very valuable organization for students of Economics in the Liberal Arts College.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

FIAT LUX

All freshmen, especially those who are interested in journalism as a profession, have an excellent opportunity for practical experience in newspaper work in The Fiat Lux, Alfred University's weekly student newspaper.

The Fiat, as it is referred to in campus jargon, has always maintained a high rating among the college and university publications of the Intercollegiate News Association of the Middle Atlantic States and is expected to reach even greater heights this year.

A six-week's trial period is conducted at the beginning of each year for candidates for reporters' positions on the staff. At the end of the six weeks the editorial staff votes upon the candidates who are recommended by the editors of each department. The same procedure is followed in electing business staff members. The opportunity for election and advancement to an editor's position is excellent for the reporter who is willing to work and who shows aptitude, ability, and interest.

THE KANAKADEA

The Kanakadea is the Alfred University yearbook, and contains a record of the activities of all four classes during the college year at the end of which it is published. Editor and business manager of the Kanakadea are elected by the staff from competing upperclassmen with previous experience on the book. Subordinate positions—class editors, literary assistants, and many others—are chosen by the editors from all four classes. Each Alfred student subscribes to the Kanakadea on matriculation.

THE ARGOSY

The Argosy is the yearbook of the Agricultural School and aims to present a graphic record of the students and activities of the Agricultural and Technical Institute. The staff is appointed each year on the basis of talents and willingness to serve.

MUSICAL ORGANIZATIONS

THE MALE GLEE CLUB is a group of sixteen men, directed by Prof. Ray W. Wingate. The positions are competitive. Besides day trips to neighboring towns, the club makes an extended concert tour including New York City during spring recess.

THE WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB under the direction of Ray Wingate is also on a competitive basis. Short trips to near-by towns and several local concerts make up the year's work.

UNIVERSITY BAND, directed by Fred Kaplowitz, is open to all who play band instruments. Local concerts and short trips, besides the usual performances at pep rallies and football games, are included in plans for this year.

UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA, directed by Ada Becker Seidlin, is also on a competitive basis with home recitals scheduled. Annual appearances in assembly, at Founder's Programs and at Commencement are also an important part of this group's work.

THE UNION UNIVERSITY CHOIR is directed by Mrs. Scholes. Try-outs are held at the beginning of the year for those who wish to join. Special Christmas music is the big feature in the choir program for each year.

SEVENTH DAY BAPTIST CHOIR, under the direction of Prof. Ray W. Wingate, furnishes music for the Sabbath Day Services.

COLLEGE SONGS

ALMA MATER

Nestled away 'mid the Empire State hills,
'Neath the watch-care of sentinel pines,
Where the murmuring song of the brook
hums along,

And a favoring sun ever shines;
In a valley so fair where the forest trees share

Dominion o'er hillside and glen,
Stands the pioneer college of Western New York—

Alfred, the mother of men.

—Chorus—

Hail to thee, Alfred, thou guide of our youth,

Sweet, benign mother, all hail!
Sing out thy anthems of duty and truth;
May thy clear ringing music ne'er fail.

She was founded in toil, cemented with blood,

And nurtured thro' yearnings and tears,
Her treasure the hearts of brave heroes
who stood

Undaunted throughout trying years:
Each stone was a prayer and her battle-
ments there

Have mem'ries of purposes strong,
Staunch daughters and sons are her monuments fair,
And they lift up the grateful song.

—Chorus—

Others may boast of prestige and size,
Of numbers and treasure and fame
But Alfred's pride lies in manhood's clear eyes,

And womanhood's high stainless name.
O Alfred, dear Alfred, thy fame will abide
With Kenyon and Allen and Main
With Davis the bulder and Titsworth our guide,
May Norwood her power maintain.

—Chorus—

ON SAXON WARRIORS

On Saxon warriors,
The Purple and the Gold defend;

On Saxon warriors,
Ever on like men.

Crash thru the opponent's line
And victory will come our way
Fight, Fight for Alfred,
And she will win the day.

OH, HERE WE ARE

Oh, here we are! Oh, here we are!
You see us marching down the street.
You hear our cry: "To do or die,
We have the team that can't be beat.
We have!" (shouted)
So give a cheer, a lusty cheer,
And let the echoes carry true,
With a tramp, tramp, tramp,
And a stamp, stamp, stamp,
For the team of old A. U.!

SONG OF THE BELL

By the roaring, roaring banks
Of the old Kanakadea,
Oft I've lingered in the springtime long ago;
While the waters rushed along,
And the hills took up the song;
And a gentle voice was calling sweet and low.

—Chorus—

O, I hear the echoes ringing from the belfry
on the hill,
And the song inspires my heart to do and dare;
Calling me to love and duty, calling me
to faith and prayer,
For the bell is ringing, ringing, ringing still.

When the autumn days were on,
And a brilliant crimson show
Where the Alfred hill-side glory met the sky,
Voices whispered in the breeze
While I sat beneath the trees,
And communed with master minds of days gone by.

—Chorus—

O, the days of frost and snow;
O, the coasters' ruddy glow;
O, the evening's long delight with comrades dear,
When we talked on mighty themes,
Or indulged in happy dreams
Of our victories in the future hov'ring near.

—Chorus—

Now my hair is turning gray,
For those days have passed away
But their mem'ry lingers sweet and sweeter yet;
And my fireside's evening cheer
Seems to bring old Alfred near,
And the faces which my heart can ne'er forget.

—Chorus—

RAY RAY SONG

Way up in Allegany
Neath the shade of sheltering pines,
There stands a little college
That's for training noble minds,
And when they get together
On the gridiron, field or track,
You hear the students give their yell
And bring the victory back.

—Chorus—

Oh! Ray! Ray! Ray! Ray! Ray!
Hear the students yell,
Ray! Ray! Ray! Ray! Ray!
Notes of victory tell,
Oh! Ray! Ray! Ray! Ray! Ray!
Better move along
When you hear the students
Sing their Ray Ray! song.

Oh here's the little college
That will help you do your best.
Her girls are true, her men are strong,
They always stand the test,
And when they get together
On the gridiron, field or track,
They put their shoulders to the wheel,
And bring the victory back.

—Chorus—
