Allegany Arc ‘losing’

WELLSVILLE—Allegany Arc’s Wellness Committee is holding a “Biggest Loser” contest for employees. Diana Gowdy, Wellness Committee Chairperson, says of the committee’s outreach, “It is well known that healthy employees are often happier and more efficient at their job performance. Allegany Arc’s Wellness Committee strives to bring great information, ideas, and programs to employees to help them live healthier lives. The Biggest Loser contest is one of many ways we’re encouraging employees to get healthy.”

Allegany Arc had 142 employees sign up to participate in the “Biggest Loser.” Registration for employees was one non-perishable food item. Food was collected and donated to the Wellsville Salvation Army. Diana Gowdy continued, “The Wellness Committee’s goal was to get as much participation from employees as possible without having unreasonable joining fees. We’re pleased with the number of employees who are participating and happy to be able to donate food to such a worthy cause.”

The contest runs from Sept. 1 through Dec. 15, 2010. Prizes will be awarded for First, Second, and Third place. Each site/department will be awarded for First, Second, and Third place. Each site/department

Fifty citizens attend meeting; tree committee named

By LINDA LEWANDOWSKI

Alfred Sun Reporter

Alfred’s Tree Committee was named at the Sept. 14 meeting of the Alfred Village Board. Mayor Craig Clark announced the formation of a committee to oversee the maintenance and condition of existing trees in order to assure the safety, health, regular judicious pruning, and possible replacement of trees.

Named to the committee are former mayor Gary Ostrower, Tom McDowell, Doug Clarke, Kasey Klingensmith, Trustee Joe Doesch, Cheryl Emmion, and Drew Mcintire, with student representatives from each campus to be added. The current budget for maintaining trees is currently $1000 a year, which may have to be increased to provide funds to hire an arborist consultant for recommendations and long-term planning. The first meeting of the Tree Committee is scheduled for Sept. 21.

Further discussion from the assembled group ranged from zoning issues to the prevalence of skunks in the village, with John Ninos stressing the latter problem with the information that he has already removed seven of them from his property.

The zoning issue of particular concern is a house at the top of Terrace Street which is out of compliance with the law. A variance from the Zoning Board of Appeals is needed to allow the lot owner to live in the house. If a ZBA procedure is followed, notification of the date of a public hearing on the matter will be published in the Alfred Sun.

Neighbors of the property complained of ongoing noise, irresponsible behavior, and illegal bonfires by the current residents. More discussion was generated by reactions to resident and landlord Jason Rodd’s complaint of unfair treatment by the Village Board in relation to his rental property on South Main Street, which has been cited for violations.

Trustee Virginia Rasmussen, liaison between the Codes Enforcement Office and the Board, explained the responsibility the elected officials have to oversee the conditions in the village, particularly in the highly visible Main Street Historic District, and the importance of enforcing the existing laws which are intended to keep the area attractive and well-maintained.

Hazard to pedestrians because of untrimmed trees blocking streetlights at night, the need for better weather protection for both people and the posted notices in the bus shelter, and tax revenue assistance from the Village received at the meeting when more information will be forthcoming.

In the ongoing repairs at the Terrace Street bridge site, the work is scheduled to begin this week to complete the railing and stonework. Appreciation was expressed to Mandy Burns and the Village Planning Board for the successful writing of the New York Main Street Grant. The Board acted to establish the search committee for a grant administrator; named to the committee are Planning Board member Justin Grigg, Mark McFadden, and Karla Back. Persons interested in serving on the Grant Advisory Board should contact the Village Office prior to the Octo- ber meeting, when the appoint- ments will be announced.

The Board authorized the following additional items:

Two police vehicle requests regarding putting the Police Jeep out for beds and parting out an impounded vehicle which has had the VIN removed. The Board also authorized the mayor to sign the police grant contract.

The AU homecoming bonfire on Friday, Oct. 1, 2010, in the open area between McLane Center and Davis Gym. All nec- essary fire and ambulance pres- ence will be in place for the event.

In a final action, the Board unanimously approved the wording of a letter to the Environmental Protection Agency calling on this government agency to “conduct a compre- hensive study on the impact to the citizens, workers, communities and the natural world the corpo- rate technology known as hy- draulic fracturing,” as the Board “believes that the practices em- ployed in natural gas drilling are potentially hazardous to the wa- ters, air, lands, infrastructure, flora and fauna, aesthetics, local economy, and public health of the people of New York State.”

The October meeting of the Trustees will be held on Thurs- day, Oct. 14, rather than on the second Tuesday of the month, as regularly scheduled.

I Am Alfred: a look at the people who call it home

By ASHLEY KEHOE
Alfred State College
Director of Civic Engagement and Student Leadership Programs

As a new resident of Alfred and the Alfred State College, it is my role to actively and intentionally engage students in community initiatives.

Some of our student leaders and I have been coordinating the “I Am Alfred” Campaign. We have been collecting photos and stories of Alfred residents, to demonstrate and celebrate the diversity of our community, which we are calling the “I Am Alfred” campaign.

I have gotten some truly striking, inspiring, and interesting responses to our questions:

TIM BANCROFT, D.Min.
SPHR (Doctor of Ministry, Senior Professional in Human Resources Certification), Alfred 7th Day Baptist Church

How long have you lived or worked in the Alfred community?
I have been as pastoral leader at the First Seventh Day Baptist Church of Alfred since 2000. It should be said that my wife, Rev. Patricia Bancroft, is the installed pastor. I am the president of the congregation and adult education facilitator.

I live and work in nearby Wellsville. I am employed as an employee assistance program counselor and human resource consultant for ESI Employee Assistance Program Group.

What about living or working in this community brings you the most joy?
The aspects of being a part of the Alfred community that brings me the greatest joy are the cultural events. The choral and instrumental concerts, the art shows, the theatrical performances, we playhouse reader’s theatre, and the summer carillon concert series. I appreciate how members of our academic community and local residents come together for all of these events.

What are your hobbies and pastimes?
Two of my hobbies and interests were started in Alfred: learning the elementary proficiency of playing the shakuhachi flute (which I do with the support and critique our parrot, Mr. Bubinsky) and participation in our local Zen meditation sitting group, Falling Leaf Sangha, which meets in Miller Performing Arts on the AU Campus on Sunday evenings.

Back to blueberries after visit in Maine

Looking like I’m going to be vacillating between tomatoes and blueberries for while, having just returned from Stonington, our favorite place in Maine. Linda Greenlaw, an awesome fisherman in her own right, has turned to writing fiction—several books which can be found in the Alfred Public Library. I found a cookbook that she and her mother had written.

This recipe has many Maine ingredients—maple syrup, blueberries, goat cheese, cranberries. It is a delightful mix of wonderful tastes and very healthy.

The recipe book is called Recipes From a Very Small Island by Linda and Martha Greenlaw published by Hyperion.

Simon’s Favorite New England Salad
With Berries and Goat Cheese

Salad: 4-6 c. greens Vineagrette: 3 T. Balsamic vinegar 1 T. maple syrup 1 tbsp. Dijon mustard 2/3 c. fresh blueberries 1/2 c. olive oil salt & ground black pepper 2/3 c. dried cranberries 3/4 c. crumbled goat cheese

For the dressing whisk together the vinegar, maple syrup, and mustard in a small bowl. Whisk in the oil and season with salt and pepper to taste. Spread the greens on a platter or individual plates. Top with the sugar snaps, berries, walnuts, and cheese, then drizzle with the vinaigrette and serve.

Quite frankly, we want to keep the Dream Alive!

Back in 1884, a simple item appeared in the Alfred Sun that said, “Yesterday, one thousand subscribers to the Sun.”

That goal suggested by Sun co-founder and legendary Editor and Publisher Frank A. Crumb, was met before the new millennium. But now we’d like to keep the dream alive. So we’ve set a goal of 125 new subscribers to mark the SUN’s 125th anniversary.

During Frank Crumb’s Dream Campaign, we offer new subscribers 13 months for the month’s subscription price of $27 ($30 outside of Allegany County). That’s $25 off the newsstand price. And you’ll read hometown news and interesting stories found nowhere else!

If you would like to help keep Frank Crumb’s Dream alive, send your name and address or that of a loved one with check payable to “Alfred Sun” to: Frank Crumb’s Dream, P.O. Box 311, Alfred, NY 14802. We thank you and Frank thanks you!

Dear Editor,

The Justice of Peace court system is interesting but not always as accurate as it seems. As a former village trustee who served as the court liaison for two terms in the early 2000s I attended many JP Court sessions. I have also attended meetings at regional and national conferences designed for justices of the peace. What follows is my account of a JP Court session that I attended on Sept. 13, 2010.

I attended court in Alfred, NY with my son. On June 21, 2010 my son had received a ticket for talking on his cell phone but he wasn’t. I am told that it was and is easy to get your cell phone record to prove when you are on your cell phone. So he got the proof that he wasn’t on his cell phone. So when he went to court at his appointed time he said that he wanted a trial and was arraigned. The judge informed him that since he wanted a trial his next court date would have to be on a night when an assistant district attorney would be able to attend. His next court date was set for Sept. 13, 2010. So I went with him to court on that night.

When he went to sign in with the court clerk she had no knowledge of him having to be in court. We sat and observed the court while the assistant district attorney guided the judge through several court cases. Finally as the assistant district attorney was about to leave my son stood up and was recognized by the judge. He identified himself and his situation. The judge had no knowledge or recollection of him either. The judge asked who arraigned you and my son said “you did.” The assistant district attorney had no knowledge of the case either. The arresting state trooper of course was not in court. At this the judge said, “Why am I here?” To which he did not get an answer. After a pause the judge dismissed the case. My son got nothing in writing which worries me based on how this court appeared to operate. On Sept. 15th I called the Alfred Town Court and they promised to send my son written proof of the dismissal of the case.

Odds and ends: First the assistant DA said that in this kind of trial she was required to be present as the judge had stated. Windy Dodson, the arresting officer would not take my son’s cell phone at the scene and immediately verify he was not on it. Regardless of the outcome I have a suspicion that the state trooper gets credit for an arrest and giving a ticket regardless of the outcome and he wanted the credit! This is from what I was inspired to wrote on Sept. 13th it is apparent that those involved with the court’s know enough to get good enough written records but they probably know how easy it is to prove you are not on your cell phone time wise.

The example that I experienced and described here illustrates how a pretty good system can be turned into a very frustrating experience for any competent by incompetent public servants. I am 74 years old and have never been involved in Justice of the Peace Court cases like this since the 1970s and I have had Thank you for our constitution and the right to face your accusers as guaranteed in our constitution! (My son lives in this area and has no idea that I am writing this.)

That goal was finally reached in January 1999. But we want to keep Frank’s dream alive.

The late Eugene T. Van Horn, who owned the newspaper from 1951 until 1973, told us one time that circulation peaked in the 1960s at 700. It’s now over 900. We’ve added 32 new subscribers since Jan. 1, 2009.

Allegany County Legislator

EDUCATION AND EMPLOYMENT EMPHASIS

The September 13th meeting of the County Legislature was unique in several respects. It began with the Pledge of Allegiance led by former Army Specialist Cecil Jennison. Following the invocation and approval of meeting minutes Chairman Crandall made a presentation of recognition to Cecil Jennison for his military service. Cecil Jennison then received another presentation from Literacy West Director Lisa Lee and Genesee Valley Central School Superintendent Ralph Wilson. This was a presentation of his high school diploma. Cecil Jennison had dropped out of school to enlist in the military at age 19. He has recently completed his requirements for his diploma. His dedication to life-long learning is exemplary. He is one of the few individuals to receive two standing ovations from the Legislature. Chairman Crandall then issued a proclamation declaring the week of September 13-19, 2010 as Adult Education and Family Literacy Week.

Robert Christian, Executive Director of the Allegany County Area Foundation was granted Privilege of the Floor to report on its recent activities. The Foundation continues to make grants to students pursuing higher education, and to various organizations around the County sponsoring community benefit programs. Chairman Crandall presented the Area Foundation a check for $500 from the “Flower Fund” of the County Legislature. These non-tax funds are raised by the Legislature and used for discretionary purposes.

The Board then considered six resolutions. One resolution appointed Benjamin Lipscomb to the Nassau Free Library. Another resolution approved the sale of 6 tax sale properties. The third resolution corrected errors on the 2010 county/town tax rolls for several towns. The fourth resolution considered and approved the resolution from the federal ARRA program for the County Workforce Investment Board. The fifth resolution transferred funds between accounts in the Office of Development. The sixth and final Board resolution involved approval of a five year Collective Bargaining Agreement with the Public Employees Union representing 1000 non-union, non-unionized employees of Allegany County. It was retroactive for 2008 and 2009, while also covering 2010, 2011 and 2012. It provides a 2.5% wage increase for each year. However, it also increases the contributions of most current employees toward the cost of their health insurance. In addition, it requires new employees to make significantly larger contributions toward their health insurance coverage. It eliminates retiree health insurance for new employees. This contract represents a compromise, and like most compromises, neither side is completely happy with all of the provisions. Over the long term it will provide significant savings to Allegany County, while providing fair and reasonable wages and benefits to current and future employees. The Collective Bargaining Agreement was approved by a vote of 12 to 1. Ironically the sole dissenting vote was cast by Legislative Norman Ungermann. The irony relates to the fact that this Union unit was organized only after he declared on the Floor of the Legislature that we could change the wages and benefits of non-union employees “with the stroke of a pen.” While technically accurate, Legislative Ungermann’s statement was ill advised and reckless. The Legislature has spent the past three years negotiating an Agreement that should never have been necessary. In my opinion Legislative Ungermann’s conduct has cost the County thousands of dollars in negotiation fees, and thousands of dollars more in increased wages and benefits. Hopefully he will show more discretion and wisdom in the future.

Politics has been described as “the art of the possible.” In today’s economic climate I would have favored a contract that included no pay raises, while increasing employee contributions toward health insurance. However, New York State’s Taylor Law requires that we negotiate with unionized employees, and prohibits public employers from changing wages or benefits without the agreement of employees. The new contract represents the culmination of hard bargaining by both the County and PEF. It represents what was possible. It does not represent perfection, but it does represent progress.
Annual Chili Cook-Off set for Sunday, Sept. 26

The Alfred State College Campus Partner program allows students to use their Campus Card debit account at area businesses who participate in the program. The off-campus Campus Partner program is a partnership between the college and area businesses that is managed by Auxiliary Campus Enterprises and Services (ACES). This is the third year of the program and Uncle Alfred’s Sub Shop is the eleventh vendor to join.

“We’re excited to have Uncle Alfred’s join our partner program,” said Stephen Schnorr, ACES Executive Director. “With just three weeks into the semester, the program has put over $60,000 into the local economy. This is a significant increase over the 2009 opening weeks, and we couldn’t be more pleased with the program.”

This program was the brainchild of retiring ACES Executive Director, Thomas Massara. It helps students by giving them access to purchasing power, even if their cash resources are scarce,” Massara said. “It also provides a bridge to local merchants who need student business to keep their doors open.”

The Campus Partners are: The Terra Cotta Coffeehouse, Little Sicily’s Pizza & Restaurant, Fox’s Pizza, The Collegiate, Alfred Pharmacy, Pizza King, Short’s Deli (2 locations), The Hot Spot, Hot Diggity Dogs, and Uncle Alfred’s Sub Shop.

(2) Prepare your chili ahead of time and bring it in a way to keep it warm, normally presented in a crock-pot.
(3) You must be present and set up for the judges at 1:30 pm
(4) If you won’t eat it you don’t enter it...i.e. if you won’t eat what you have entered in the hottest, judges won’t either.

(5) You may only enter one chili in one category.
(6) Bring recipe on a 3x5 card
(7) You are asked to preregister by contacting the church office at 607-587-9176 or the church office to discuss this activity.
(8) All are invited to attend the Chili Cook-Off. Make a monetary donation and eat until the Chili is gone. For further info, call 587-9176.

This program was the brainchild of retiring ACES Executive Director, Thomas Massara.

“IT helps students by giving them access to purchasing power, even if their cash resources are scarce,” Massara said. “It also provides a bridge to local merchants who need student business to keep their doors open.”

The Campus Partners are: The Terra Cotta Coffeehouse, Little Sicily’s Pizza & Restaurant, Fox’s Pizza, The Collegiate, Alfred Pharmacy, Pizza King, Short’s Deli (2 locations), The Hot Spot, Hot Diggity Dogs, and Uncle Alfred’s Sub Shop.

Partnerships are roots that nourish a flowering society. Alone we can do but in a partnership we do double, triple or more.

Simple Gifts is a partnership of 2 women, a dozen stringed instruments made to pluck, strum, hammer or bow, a bellows and some recorders that take a simple breath and pull it into a vibrant rainbow of sound. Simple Gifts, Karen Hirshon and Linda Littleton, gave their music to enthusiastic reception at the David A. Howe Library with funding from one of its partners, the Allegany Arts Association.

Hirshon and Littleton have been partners in music for 13 years. They said that when people get along and make good music, it’s hard to quit. They form an “alternate universe” and it feels, and sounds, like home.

After the program, Aydrianna Weimer said, “The concert was great. I especially liked that they knew different tunes and styles and they smiled a lot.”

Aydrianna, a 4th grader in Wellsville who plays recorder and intends to play flute soon, claimed the Shruti box as her favorite instrument. The Shruti is an Indian instrument that consists of reeds powered by a foot operated bellows. Hirshon said that the instrument is designed to be used during meditation but that it sounds great when it accompanies a flute and that’s how she first heard it.

Simple Gifts was the first program in Appalachia Rediscovered – a 2 month project funded in part by another Library partner, the Allegany County Area Foundation. Programs include academic lectures, concerts, films, classes, art exhibits and other events to address social, political, economical, environmental and cultural issues that have formed and continue to transform this thirteen-state region.

The full list of programs is at www.Davidahowelllibrary.org (click on Appalachia Rediscovered on the left) but here’s a partial list:

--Family Concert with Dave Ruch: Songs, Strings Spoons and More Fun with Appalachian Music, Sat, Sept 25, 10:30am
--Still Singing: The John C. Campbell Folk School, Betsy And Charley Orlando, Tues, Sept 28, 7 pm
--Leonard M. Adkins, Wildflowers of the Appalachian Trail, Thurs, Oct 21, 1:30pm
--Allegany River Indian Dancers, Thurs, Oct 28, 7pm
--Creek Bend Band, Bluegrass, Thurs Nov 4, 7pm

The artists will greet guests at the opening reception of the exhibit on July 24. Friday, Sept. 24, through October 30. Below is a photo from the exhibit simply titled “Kay.”
ALFRED—Tastings, Treasures, and Tunes 2! Free Pick-up and Tow Any Model or Condition IRS Tax Deductible

Alfred Sun, Thursday, September 23, 2010

Tastings, Treasures, Tunes 2! Yes! Fundraisers for the Box of Books Library are offering a repeat of last year’s enjoyable gathering for wine and silent auction. The Library will have two events, and music. Be sure to circle Saturday, Oct. 9 from 7 to 9:30 p.m. for the event.

This convivial community event will again be held at the Alfred Village Hall Theater, and is not merely a wine tasting of several of the best Western New York wines. We have been interested in testing wines, soft drinks will be available. Donation is $20 to the Alfred Side Wines and Spirits, will be on hand not only to pour wine, but also to pour water. People may purchase a ticket for food with wines. Hors d’oeuvres and saviors from the kitchen of the Green’s Farm market will complement the drinks, and Alfred University’s Peter O’Connor will provide music.

The silent auction will offer numerous donated items to bid on, including various kinds of art, silver, fiber art, and glass items, as well as services, such as gourmet dinners. Every item will provide a “buy-it-now” price, allowing bidders to snap up a cherished item immediately.

Tickets for Tastings, Treasures, and Tunes 2, which are $20 per person, are available at the Box of Books Library as well as through the Friends of the Library of the Friends of the Library. In addition, tickets will be on sale at Alfred University’s Powell Campus Center on Thursdays from 11:30 to 1:30 from Sept. 16 through Oct. 7.

There are more reasons to support our local public library than can be enumerated here. It is a fact that our village does not have a community center. Perhaps with our vibrant Box of Books Library we don’t really need one. Here is a place where visitors can go to experience a warm and friendly atmosphere, where friends can meet (and talk!), where children are always welcome, and where anyone is sure to find a good read and answers to just about any question. But the Box of Books cannot survive on our tax dollars alone. Money raised by the Friends of the Library through such events like Tastings, Treasures, and Tunes 2 is essential in helping to provide the necessary funds needed for many popular activities, including the weekly coffee group, youth meetings, reading groups, fun with Wii, family movie night, and various summer programs.

Join the Friends of the Alfred Box of Books Library in supporting these and other wonderful services. Buy your tickets, and come to Tastings, Treasures, and Tunes 2 for an enjoyable evening on October 9th.

Tastings, Treasures, Tunes 2!

Library Development Coordinator and Lead Trainee

ALFRED—The new Public Computing Center at the Box of Books Library here in Alfred is a wonderful program and opportunity for our community. We feel honored to have been selected as one of thirty libraries in New York State to participate in this grant; however, the funds that have been graciously awarded must be spent on goals specified in the official guidelines for the grant.

We have learned that the grant award will provide funds needed for the Public Computing Center staffing, purchase of new computer equipment, and technical assistance in order to have the Public Computing Center at the library. The grant funds cannot be used for all of the day-to-day operating costs for the Box of Books. The grant funds will cover the purchase of several new computers, but cannot be used for collection development at the library.

The Box of Books Library serves an important role in our community, and events such as the Annual Book Sale on Saturday, Oct. 9, are critical to help build our local collection, to provide funds for weekly programming and to fund the daily operations of the library.

As the director of the new Public Computing Center here at the Box of Books Library, I would like to personally thank everyone in this community for all of the time, and resources that they have given to keep our little library such a wonderful asset for our community. The library would not be what it is today without this generous support.

While I am looking forward to all of the new and exciting opportunities that we will be able to provide to the community through the new Computing Center, I know that after the two year grant has ended, the Box of Books Library will continue and will remain to give thanks to the members of this community who do so much to support this local treasure.

Ernie and Andy Lawrence to return to Angelica cafe

ANGELICA--"Ernie and Andy Lawrence… do their best to keep alive the tradition of American roots music… and when they write one of their own [songs], they’re killers.”

Jeff Spevak, music critic Rochester Democrat and Chronicle

Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Café is proud to welcome back father-and-son duo Ernie and Andy Lawrence on Saturday, Sept. 25. Café doors open at 4:30 for dinner with music beginning at 6 p.m. with Jim Schwartz and Friends. Ernie and Andy take the stage from 7:30-9:30 p.m.

The Lawrence’s play jazzy blues and folk music with deep roots in the blues, and throw in some old country, gospel, and rock-n-roll. Each sings and performs on acoustic guitar, trading off the lead vocals and the lead guitar.

Proprietor Don Ash remarks, “Last year as they set up for their first performance at Black-Eyed Susan, Ernie told me, ‘Be sure to let us know if we’re too loud. We’re howlers!’ I wondered, howlers? That evening I learned that nothing could be further from the truth. Their warm vocals and fine guitar playing merged to make a very pleasing sound. They gave us a great program of American blues and folk. We’re anxious to hear more of the same thing.”

They have played at Rochester’s Corn Hill and Park Avenue Festivals, the Naples Grape Festival, at the Wellsville Creative Arts Center, and have played shows for The Buffalo Friends of Folk Music and The Golden Link Folksinging Society. The Lawrence’s have also opened for national acts in Buffalo and Rochester.

Black-Eyed Susan is open all day Saturday, from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. for lunch, dinner, specialty coffees and desserts, with music beginning at 6 p.m. There is no cover charge, but guests are expected to contribute to the musician’s tip jar. Reservations for dinner -- while never necessary -- are strongly encouraged.

Coming Events at Black-Eyed Susan:

SATURDAY, October 2— High-energy fingerstyle gui-tar with PETER COLLIN 7:30 – 9:30 p.m. Peter’s virtuoso gui-tar work on both 6- and 12-string instruments has earned him praise as one of the finest finger pickers in the area. Influenced by such artists as Michael Hedges and Leo Kottke, Peter’s style combines the best of acoustic rock, folk, blues, and popular contemporary music.

THURSDAY, Oct. 7— ACOUSTIC OPEN MIC NIGHT hosted by Bob & Gena Decker. 7-11 p.m. All are welcome. Free admission. Café will open at 6:00 for light meals, espresso, desserts. Come out to hear some of the finest acoustic music Allegany County has to offer, in a casual, welcoming atmosphere -- and bring your instrument, too!

Today’s column is mainly a big Thank You to Anne Acton who, after seventeen years, felt she needed to retire from the Executive Director position with A21CG. So, the Board of Directors and Executive Advisory Council want to acknowledge Anne’s leadership. During those years, she has made successful grant submissions that resulted in projects like the Streetscape, that brought pavers, new lighting, and beautiful Christmas decorations to Main Street, and the restoration of our historic Village Hall. Anne has also been the ‘clerk of the works’ overseeing several house rehab projects using grant monies and private investments.

The most recent restoration being the ongoing work at the 1887 Burdick-Saunders property (formerly the Klan Alpine fraternity). The Town and Village of Alfred has benefited from her leadership. During those years, she has helped Anne make the projects successful.

To Anne we all say --- THANK YOU --- and enjoy your retirement adventure!

A search for a replacement is underway. The Board welcomes nominations for this position. However, during this leadership transition the responsibility for day-to-day operational activity has reverted to the Board of Directors.

Don Cameron has agreed to serve as Interim Executive Director. Fund raising and the continuation of work at the Burdick-Saunders property are our biggest challenges at this time. The Fall newsletter and the request for financial support will be mailed soon.

Thanks for your support Marion Weaver, Woodie & Sue Lang, Steve & Pat Edwards, & Jeanne Hyland at Hair Care. Members of the Board: Don Cameron, Tom Mauzera, Carlyn Yanda, Phil Prigmore, Anne Wenslow.

Educator, author, and poet, Emma Willard was a pioneer in achievung education for women. In 1843, concerning the duty of each American, she wrote: “We are called to improve the world.”

“The government of the United States is acknowledged by the wise and good of other nations, to be the most free, impartial, and righteous government of the world; and, indeed, for such a government to be sustained many years, the principles of truth and righteousness, taught in the Holy Scriptures, must be practiced. Influenza Clinics begin Tuesday, Sept. 28

Influenza Clinics in various Allegany County locations

BELMONT—The Allegany County Department of Health will be hosting weekly flu clinics starting Tuesday, Sept. 28 at various sites throughout Allegany County. Remember you cannot get influenza from the flu shot. The vaccine is made from killed inactivated influenza viruses, which render it incapable of causing infection.

- Good health habits are extremely important in the prevention of influenza illnesses. To prevent the spread of germs:
  - Avoid close contact with people who are sick
  - Stay home from work or school when sick
  - Cover your mouth/nose with a tissue when coughing/sneezing
  - Wash hands frequently
  - Avoid touching eyes, nose or mouth
  - Practice good health habits:
    - Get plenty of sleep
    - Be physically active
    - Eat nutritious meals
    - Drink plenty of fluids
    - Eat nutritious meals
    - Avoid getting too fat or severely ill when you are scheduled to receive the vaccine, your health care provider may suggest that you delay receiving the flu vaccine. This should happen, do not forget to get your vaccine as soon as possible.

- The fee for the vaccine will remain at $33.00 per person. However, for those who are eligible, the fee for the vaccine this year will remain at $33.00 per person. If you do not have a previous certificate with you or your pet has not had a previous rabies vaccination certificate, an one-year vaccination certificate will be given. Please be prepared to clean up after your pets.

- If you have any questions or need more information contact the Health Department at 1-800-797-0581 or 268-9250.

HITS AND MISSES:
The Alfred University Saxons (2-0) kept their unbeaten slate going last weekend with a pair of games in the Division III Men’s Volleyball Championship in which they traveled north to top St. Lawrence, 24-16, 24-13. Coach Dave Murray’s squad was almost 21-0 in the first half and closed out the nonconference contest with a victory. The road is sure to get tougher in the coming weeks to come. Alfred is at Springfield (3-0) this Saturday for an E8 battle with the Pride averaging 42 points per game in their first three games.

In other Division III football scores of interest it was SJ Fisher University, 28-25, over St. John Fisher on Saturday. The Knights fell to 1-2-0 overall. St. John Fisher, which was ranked No. 21 in the latest D3football.com poll, is a member of the Atlantic University Sports Conference.

In the NL it is a close race at the top. The San Francisco Giants, 70-45, remain the top club in the league with 18 games left. San Francisco and Philadelphia are just two games behind the Giants. The Los Angeles Dodgers and Florida Marlins are one game behind the Giants for second place. Both clubs had unsatisfactory weekends. The Dodgers managed to come away with a split in their road series against the New York Mets. The Dodgers and Mets split their four-game series, 2-2.

Josh Kinney of the Boise State Bronco football program is 3-0 on the season. Both played their college ball for Pat Atwell (Andover). Kinney is now a free agent. His college teammate, Josh Rabe began his career with the Boise State Broncos in 2009. He had quite the year for the Memphis Redbirds in the “AAA” Pacific Coast League. Rabe is on the horizon. Mattingly is my all-time favorite Yankee and he’ll be getting his first chance to manage a club. Joe Torre is out at the end of the year and an ESPN gig probably awaits "Donnie Baseball," Don Mattingly will replace him at the helm in 2011. Another job awaits Buck Showalter. The Twins get two patsies in Cleveland and Kansas City, but just "a tad" competitive again. The Bills weren't even competitive (at all) Sunday as they beat the Buffalo Bills, 41-7. Jordan Schwartz (UB) had a great week in New York. Taking nothing away from the Twins, with AL West race heating up, the Rays-Yanks have been a real treat. Keep in mind if you want to pedal the full 100 miles, it is a good idea to raise funds for Habitat for Humanity. You can do that by: www.RyanAgency.com or call 607.871.2823. This year's trip will be the 18th consecutive year since 1995. The modern century bicycle ride is thought to be the longest-running century ride one can participate in. There are some of the longest running century rides that have had recumbents (that is, bikes with riders in a laid-back re- clining position) entered each year since 1995. The ride will start from the Al- mond Municipal Building and runs through Scho, Belmont, Friendship, and Cuba to Oleen and back. The course will be marked at various locations for 100 miles, 50-mile, 100km (62- mile) rides for those who don’t want to pedal the full 100 miles. Food and drinks are available every 10 to 15 miles along the way from convenience stores and a food truck. Participants will wind through hillsides naturally adorned with colorful flowers and among farmlands along tranquil streams on a course that in 1895 was described as "all in all, a first class ride."

The Vermont Catamounts women’s soccer team continues to struggle as they lost to Colgate last week, 2-0 and are now (1-7) on the season. Jess Herbst (Webster Schroeder) and Haley Marks (Pen- field) are off to American University in DC this Friday and then home to UMBC on Sunday. Stephen Baker continues to shine for the U Penn’s men’s soccer team as he tallied two goals in a win over Georgetown on Sunday past. 3-1, this coming after last year they finished first in the Ivy League. He is also a member of Villanova. Both games in the Ivy League/Big East Classic. For his efforts, Baker was named Ivy League Rookie of the Week...again. Parents John & Colleen in Philly-DC for the weekend taking in the game. "Guess" they no longer work. The Buffalo Flash of the Women’s Professional Soccer League (WPS) might play a few games in Rochester next season.
