Crimson Tide...

Earl, Cathy, Stephen and Matthew Johnson of Almond took a road trip to Tuscaloosa Alabama this summer to visit the Philip Piggmore family at the sunflower home there and help Charles move into a dorm at the University of Alabama.

Here are they all decked out in Crimson Tide t-shirts, just outside his dorm. The sun was hot with temperatures near 100 every day.

Craig Clarke presents at ARC green conference

WELSVILLE--Craig R. Clarke, dean, School of Applied Technology at Alfred State College, recently presented an Appalachian Regional Commission conference in Rome, GA.

Alfred’s Village Green will bustle with events

By SHIRLEY GALLE

Special to the Alfred Sun

ALFRED--Alfred is fortunate to have access to a village green—the area on Main Street by the bandstand. It is the perfect spot for activities and celebrations such as “The Station and the Centre: Holidays in Alfred” which will take place on Saturday, Dec. 18.

Previous articles about this event have described activities in Alfred Station and at Uncle Alfred’s Sub Shop and the Box of Books Library in the village of Alfred. This article will highlight some of the activities planned for the village green.

At 2:00 pm, children will enjoy parading around the green in a Mini-parade of the Elves. In the spirit of the holidays, children can don elfish hats and scarves and pretend to be elves like the ones who help Santa in his workshop at the North Pole. Two special books will be awarded as prizes for the two most creative elfin outfits!

Adding to the holiday spirit will be live performances by members of the Maple City Barbershop Chorus at the bandstand and around the downtown area. Refreshments will be available for everyone and their imagination will be fired up by fresh-popped popcorn and caroling.

Highlight of the afternoon’s festivities will be the arrival of Santa and Mrs. Claus following the Mini-parade. How they arrive will be a surprise! They will greet everyone and then proceed to Uncle Alfred’s Sub Shop where children can have their pictures taken with them. Then Santa will take time to listen to each child’s Christmas wishes, and Mrs. Claus will go up the street to the Book of Books Library where she will read stories to the children and grown-ups who gather there.

Especially for folks who have been wishing they could go caroling but had no one to go with, the afternoon’s activities will include old fashioned caroling. Starting at the village green around 3:00 pm, carolers may stroll around the village, singing and greeting those they meet. Everything will be very informal, but there will be good singers on hand to get the carols started on a good note.

Remember the date! December 18th promises a fun variety of events and activities for all ages during “The Station and the Centre: Holidays in Alfred.”

Holiday Bazaar set Friday

ALFRED--The Holiday Bazaar of the Union University Church of Alfred will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Friday, Dec. 3 at the Church Community Center of Main and Church Streets, Alfred.

Friday midday, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., enjoy the traditional bazaar luncheon. See or call Ellen Shultz to pre-purchase lovely gift coupons for the luncheon to treat your co-worker, student, or friend.

This year we are offering an endless cup of soup meal, so you can try as many kinds of the wonderful homemade soups as you would like. Great sandwiches and delicious pies complete a meal people look forward to sharing with each other, every year.

Before or after the luncheon, view the fair trade gift items we will be selling this year. We have worked with SEVW and Equal Exchange to bring in wonderful gifts from skilled artisans and coffee, tea, and cocoa farmers from all over the world.

Your purchase of gifts at our bazaar will help small-scale producers build better lives for themselves and their families. Fair trade gift tables will include kitchen items; coffees, teas and chocolate; jewelry and accessories; musical instruments; hand woven baskets; and festive holiday decorations.

Bring a friend and enjoy this fair trade bazaar. We welcome your enjoyment of our church’s culinary delights and your participation with us to support sustainable development.

Clark’s presentation, Green Schools, Sustainable Communities, was part of the Green Colleges and Universities: Greening Your Campus Operations discussions at the conference. Clark’s presentation detailed the activities Alfred State College is conducting to become greener and what steps are being taken to address the American College and University President’s Climate Commitment signed by Alfred State College President Dr. John M. Anderson.

The college continues to develop technical expertise in various green areas, including solar thermal, photovoltaic systems, geothermal, weatherization, wind energy, and green construction.

These technologies have been imbedded in existing programs to assure ASC graduates are prepared for the green careers of the future. The college’s continuing development of this technical expertise has been supported through various Appalachian Regional Commission grants obtained through Southern Tier West Regional Planning and Development Board.

The latest project includes using green technologies such as geothermal in the rehabilitation of the Allied Health building on design to LEED standards in all new buildings. All phases of operation at the college, from energy use and transportation through recycling, are being reviewed and updated to assure that the college lowers its carbon footprint.

Other presenters at the conference included Ohio University and University of Tennessee. Sharing of information among the 13 states represented in the Appalachian Regional Commission is vital to assure that this region continues to be a leader in protecting and advancing the environment.

Clark has been associated with Alfred State College since 1979 in various teaching and administrative capacities, including professor and department chair of Civil Engineering Technology and executive director of the Wellsville Campus. He is PI (principal investigator) on various grants, including a $2.1 million NYSERDA grant with six other community colleges dedicated to spreading clean energy training across New York State.

Family Game Night, Book Exchange held at A-A

“It’s my turn!” “I love that game!” “Yahitsee?” “Roll the dice!” and “Yeah! I won!” were just a few of the conversations that could be heard in the elementary gym of A.A.C.S on Wednesday, Nov 17, 2010! The S.I.T. (School Improvement Task Team) committee put on a Family Game Night and Book Exchange for the elementary school to promote family and school togetherness. Many families came and brought their favorite games, delicious snacks to share, and gently used books to trade! It was a wonderful night filled with laughter, full bellies, and happy readers! Please plan to attend this event next year! (A-A Photo)

Lasagna made in a slow cooker

Some time ago I saw a recipe for lasagna made in a slow cooker. I neglected to cut out that recipe and have been thinking about it from time to time since wondering how in the world the heavily noodled layered dish would turn out. I always made my lasagna in a baking pan about six inches high.

A few weeks ago I dawdled on me that I have a cookbook just for crock pot recipes. Sure enough, there it was jammed in with many others, and, it had several recipes for lasagna. The book is Fix-It and Forget-It Cookbook by Dawn J. Ranck and Phyllis Pellman Good. The recipe I chose is entitled Helen’s Lasagna, contributed by Helen King of Fairbank, Indiana.

Helen’s Lasagna

1 lb. ground beef
1 c. water
2 cloves garlic, minced
2 c. shredded mozzarella cheese

8 oz. pkg. lasagna noodles, uncooked
1 tsp. salt
8 oz. can tomato sauce, add 1½ c. (12oz.) small-curd cottage cheese
1 tsp. dry basil
1/4 tsp. pepper

1 tsp. dried oregano
1/2 tsp. garlic powder
1 tsp 1/2 c. grated Parmesan cheese
1/2 tsp. pepper

Cook beef, onion, and garlic together in saucepan until browned. Drain. Stir in tomato sauce and seasonings. Mix well. Spread one-fourth of meat sauce in slow cooker. Arrange one third of noodles over sauce. Combine the cheeses. Spoon one-third of mixture over noodles. Repeat layers twice. Top with remaining meat sauce. Cover. Cook on Low 4-5 hours. (I recently discovered Reynolds Slow Cooker Liners that you spread in the cooker and up over the lip. When you are through, the liner lifts right out leaving a clean pot. You could also lift the whole lasagna out to a platter to serve.)

Back in 1884, a simple item appeared in the Alfred Sun that said, “Wanted, one thousand subscribers to the Sun.”

That goal suggested by Sun co-founder and legendary Editor and Publisher Frank A. Crumb, was met before the new millennium. But now we’d like to keep the dream alive. So we’ve set a goal of 125 new subscribers to mark the SUN’s 125th anniversary.

During Frank Crumb’s Dream Campaign, we offer new subscribers 13 months of the year at the subscription price of $27 ($30 outside of Allegany County). That’s $25 off the news stand price. And you’ll read hometown news and interesting stories found nowhere else!

If you would like to help keep Frank Crumb’s Dream alive, send your name and address or that of a loved one with check payable to: “Sun” to: Frank Crumb’s Dream, c/o Alfred Sun, P.O. Box 811, Alfred, NY 14802. We thank you and Frank thanks you!

I’m sure this sign spoke for all the students of IHS. We were there because we ran one of the oddest “Turkey Trots” ever. There was no entry fee, but you COULD give a gift to the local food pantry by dropping a contribution into the back of the pickup truck with the signs on it. Inside the school, one estimated the time it would take to finish the 5.2 mile run, writing it next to our name as we signed in. The persons who finished closest to their own estimated time would win a pie.

Fortunately for those of us who ran “last,” there was a map showing the route over hill and dale. Bob was three minutes off his time and I was eleven minutes off mine. In fact, they’d unplugged the signs on it. Really.

The community members that show their continued support by volunteering their time at the Almond 20th Century Club Library: Deb Pierce has been instrumental in keeping the library running by manning the desk when Val and I need to attend a training or something prohibits us both from working, Hazel Bracken and Ginny Allen tirelessly sorted through stuff and junk for our Election Day rummage sale and organized the items to help Casey, Casey Robbers for finding the time to organize, sort, load to the dump and clean up afterwards while getting ready for her participation in the Artisans’ Tour (no mean feat), Mary-Anne Reitnauer for once again making the most amazing soup for our Election Day events, Kathy Babor, Lillian Hanks and other members of the Library Club for working all that day, Michelle, Krystal, RJ & Dakota Feenaughty for working all that day, Michelle, Krystal, RJ & Dakota Feenaughty for volunteering their time while helping during the library’s own Valerie Ewald was the lucky recipient.

Mary Ellen Westlake rounds out the special group of people who help make the library what it is ~ a community. Each year Mary Ellen creates a quilt and donates it to the library for chances to sell. Everyone hopes that they will be the winner...and this year, the library’s own Valerie Ewald was the lucky recipient.

Many thanks!

Tammy Kokot, Director
Dear Editor,

The attachment is an editorial written by Larry Beahan, in the Sierra Club newsletter. This Monday morning and he asked us Sierra Club members to pass it around.

Today, Monday the NY Assembly hopefully will pass the moratorium on hydrofracking that the State Legislature failed to pass in the NY Senate 49 to 8 and it will become law if the Governor then signs it.

We owe a lot to the many exerts and volunteers who insist that drilling in NY be done with respect to the environment and to our own children future. Pa has documented 1,059 violations in 963 days including improper casing construction (which can lead to drinking water problems) in their 963 days of Marcellus as described in the Buffalo News on Sep 6, 2010.

The Pulitzer prize journalist, Abraham Luftman writes on the ii/15 Group, on Propublica blog that in the entire NY State there are 16 field inspectors of oil and gas shale in the DEC, which is supposed to enforce regulations of the oil and gas industry.

Clearly we need more time to prepare properly before rushing to pass this legislation. And the discussion and public input to do it in such a manner that our children will be proud of what we have done.

Gudrun Scott

The concert began inauspiciously with Chavez’s “bag of cats” – it was our “Scarecrow in Tails.” Nielsen’s First Symphony is one of ‘em.

Some music, I wonder what the composer is trying to say to me – it was our “Scarecrow in Tails.”

The conductor looked like the Scarecrow from the Wizard of Oz, even the Scarecrow looked like him. Even the conductor, the Scarecrow looked like the Scarecrow from the Wizard of Oz.

And by the final dramatic chord, even the Scarecrow looked like – it was our “Scarecrow in Tails.”

Frank Crumb’s Dream

95 down, 30 to go

Back in 1884, a simple Item appeared in the Sun that said, “All subscribers to the Alfred Sun…”. This was 125 years since legendary Sun subscriber to the Alfred Sun.”

The Board then considered various “housekeeping” resolutions.

The late Eugene T. Van Horn, who owned the newspaper from 1951 until 1973, told us one time that period of circulation peaked in the 1890s. Van Horn, known as Frank Crumb’s Dream, I, too, had set a goal of 1000 subscribers when I joined the paper in 1976. That goal was finally realized in January 1999. But we want to keep Frank’s dream afloat.

Laurie Smalley to perform sacred, classical, Christmas music on harp

Enjoy sacred, classical and Christmas music on folk harp with LAURIE SMALLEY on Saturday, Dec. 4th at Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Café.

The Prism performance approaches through varied, wide-ranging choral, instrumental, open, solo and chamber music, along with masterworks from the visual arts—unified into a single tapestry of great power. The ensembles include Symphonic Winds, Philharmonia, various instrumental chamber ensembles, College Choir, Men’s Choir, Women’s Choir and solo and small group vocalists. "We have chosen the ancient Biblical text commonly called the 'Magnificat' (from its Latin opening word) for our Prism theme this year," remarked Dr. Ben King, director and associate dean of the Houghton College Music Department. "Also known as 'Song of Mary,' this ancient text is recorded in Luke's Gospel as Mary greets her relative, Elizabeth: "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit has rejoiced in God, my Savior!" It is this spirit of rejoicing, anticipating the birth of Christ, the Messiah, that propels our music for Prism 2010," Dr. King comments. "Musically, 'Magnificat' is one of the most-set texts in history, and this year's concert will feature portions of several of these, including those of Bach, Shubert, Monteverdi, and Rutter." Dr. King believes that this joyful, profound music naturally lends itself to the historic combinations of Houghton's outstanding choral and instrumental ensembles, abetted this year by additional faculty and student soloists, with extra emphasis on brass and organ music. "We plan to frame the whole with dramatic reading excerpts from Medieval Mystery Plays and believe this year's presentation will be exciting, moving, and memorable for our patrons." After only three seasons, Prism has wonderfully received by all who attended. Houghton College is delighted to continue this annual offering Houghton musical offering, joining the decades-long tradition of Christmas celebration with music and fellowship. The Saturday performance will be preceded by a dinner that requires tickets to be purchased in advance. For both performances, all seating will begin at 7:40 p.m. For more information and to reserve a ticket, please visit www.houghton.edu/prism or call the Office of Public Events at 585.567.9210.
Citizens of the member states making up the Commonwealth of Nations hold a gamut of opinions concerning the Head of the Commonwealth, Queen Elizabeth II, and her Royal family. I am an American citizen with a long-time interest in both local and global issues. Today's media coverage of the Royals' personal lives mostly provides a diversion from the glut of discouraging news on subjects which may actually affect me.

Before I was born, however, my family was given an unusual reason to keep up with the present Queen Elizabeth II and her generation. My sister, Jeanne Mueller, was born on St. Luke's Hospital in Kansas City, Missouri, on August 20, 1930. One day later Princess Margaret Rose, younger sister of the then Princess Elizabeth, was born at Glamis Castle in Scotland.

My family may or may not have taken greater notice of those English sisters as they grew up than did most Americans. By now it is history which tells me that there were but two attributes as adults which Jeanne and Princess Margaret had in common. Each had a smoking addiction, and each suffered from multiple strokes.

My father's maternal uncle in far off New Jersey, who was my Great Aunt Bessie, filled scrapbooks with news items about the Princesses. She was probably the donor of a book about the multi-divorced American, never-to-be-queen, which rattled around my family's house. Titled "Her Name Was Wallis Warfield," it was written by Laura Lou Broekman, and published by E. P. Dutton in 1936. My father died on August 28, 1951, just after I had entered my freshman year at college during summer school. King George VI died on February 6, 1952. I remember learning this at the reception desk as I entered my freshman dormitory following a day of classes.

I felt great empathy with Princess Elizabeth on the loss of a father, and also sympathy for the abbreviation of her previous life. Luckily, given my inborn confusion by things mathematical, I could choose not to follow in my father's professional footsteps. Alphabetically inclined, I became a librarian rather than a Certified Public Accountant. However, Princess Elizabeth had little choice but to become a monarch.

I was not in the right place to sing "God Save the Queen" to Elizabeth II on the occasion of her coronation, but I sang it frequently several years later. Audiences vocalized it preceding many public performances which I attended during 1964-66 when I worked in the Library of Australia in Canberra.

I mastered the words of it more rapidly than I had those of "America" by Rev. Samuel Smith, sung to the same tune. Before I could read I had been unable to make sense of the phrase, "of the icing," and how it fit into the context of the verse. Jeanne had a related struggle with "America the Beautiful." She had to ask us our parents, "What is a froody glay?"

Elizabeth II's coronation took place shortly before my first trip to Europe in the summer of 1953. The thirty day package bus tour which I took only covered countries on continental Europe. When it ended I continued on my own to England, then Denmark, Norway, and Sweden. This put me in London while the coronation was still drawing attention. There I watched the movie made of the elaborate ceremony.

My sister, Jeanne Mueller, was born at St. Luke's Hospital in Kansas City, Missouri, on August 20, 1930. One day later Princess Margaret Rose, younger sister of the then Princess Elizabeth, was born at Glamis Castle in Scotland.

I have ever developed a "relationship" was the 83,673 gross tons Cunarder Queen Elizabeth II, which I took only covered countries on continental Europe. When it ended I continued on my own to England, then Denmark, Norway, and Sweden. This put me in London while the coronation was still drawing attention. There I watched the movie made of the elaborate ceremony.

We would disembark minus assistance with luggage. The crew assured us that there would be no strike, and there was none. It taught me to maintain a healthy skepticism regarding news stories.

By now I have travelled through several of Queen Elizabeth II's Commonwealth states and survived genuine, but minor, hitches. I am not among those who desire an invitation to her grandson's planned April 2011 wedding. But I would leap at one to play with the American citizen with a long-time interest in both local and global issues. Today's media coverage of the Royals' personal lives mostly provides a diversion from the glut of discouraging news on subjects which may actually affect me.
Alpha Beta Chi alumni donate $1000 for fire department’s saving its heritage

ALFRED—Alumni of Alpha Beta Chi, an Alfred State College sorority, sponsored a golf tournament last summer to raise money and donate it to the Alfred Fire Dept. who's extraordinary effort successfully containing the Main Street fire on Oct. 29, 2009 and preserved the “Rosebush building” and the rest of the business block.

The Rosebush building housed the Collegiate Restaurant with its historic 1910 year collection of fraternity and sorority paddles. It also housed the birthplace of ABX sorority that was established in the late forties when the second and third floor of the building was a girls dormitory for ASC students.

On Saturday, Nov. 6, 2010 a large group of ABX alumni from all over Upstate N.Y. gathered at the new Collegiate Restaurant to celebrate the new location where the paddles are now on display and at 11 am with their faces glowing with excitement and pride they presented a check of $1,000 to Nancy Furlong who represented the Alfred Fire Dept. This was an extremely thoughtful and noble gesture on the part of a group of people who, some time ago, spent a couple of years in Alfred going to college and now live and work more than 100 miles away, clearly shows the depth of their attachment to our community and the quality of their character.

One might think that $1000 doesn't mean a whole lot anymore but in cases like this, the thought behind it is priceless!

Emily Ewell crowned JMH Auxiliary Gala Queen

Record $11,000 sold in Gala Grand Raffle

WELLSVILLE—One of the highlights of the annual Jones Memorial Hospital Auxiliary’s Gala & Silent Auction is the crowning of the Auxiliary Queen. It is a long-time tradition of the Auxiliary’s Twigs and several community organizations sponsor a candidate to sell tickets to the Grand Raffle. The young lady who sells the most tickets will be crowned the Auxiliary’s 2010 Queen at the Gala.

This year, the honor went to Emily Ewell, who sold over $4,000 in tickets to the Grand Raffle. Coming in second was Jillian Short, followed by Karleigh Presutti. All together, the seven queen candidates brought in more than $11,000 for the JMH Auxiliary – a new record!

It is incredible – especially in these tough economic times – that these young ladies were able to raise this amount of money, said Sylvia Masin, Auxiliary member and co-chair of the Grand Raffle. “We have a generous and supportive community and this is a dedicated group of young ladies.”

The winners of the Grand Raffle were Diane Baisch, first prize; Monica Finn, second prize; and Mike McCormick, third prize.

The snowman sign will be at the entry way to guide you to some Allegany Artisans. Find Bob Chaffee (hand carved Santas and more); Elaine Hardman (functional pottery and 3-D tin folk paintings – Christmas gift bags for most purchases); Peg Chere (hand woven scarves, shawls and baby blankets); and Kay Brooks (functional pottery).

ANGELICA—Don and Karen Ash of Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Café welcome musicians of all ages and experience levels to a monthly “Acoustic Open Mic” night hosted by guitarist/vocalist Don Ash of Black-Eyed Susan. “While we value all the musicians who have played at Black-Eyed Susan since we opened a year ago, several have made some extraordinary impacts. AARON HALL is one of the people who produced a special, memorable performance. He showed us a unique variety of styles with just a few pieces. Aaron demonstrated that a sparse, simple piece of music can be incredibly beautiful and moving. We’re very pleased to have him host Open Mic and look forward to his style of experimental jazz, folk and acoustic rock music.”

AARON HALL of Bath has performed as a soloist, as one of the HALL BROTHERS, and as part of PEOPLE ZOO at such venues as the Soul Full Cup in Corning, the Dorman Library in Bath, and other small cafes and churches.

The monthly event is scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 2nd, and takes place on the “first Thursday” of every month. The café doors open at 6 p.m. for light meals, desserts and espresso drinks. Acoustic Open Mic will begin at 7 p.m. as AARON HALL kicks off the evening playing a few songs. Then he’ll introduce other performers in the order in which they signed in. These players will be invited to perform up to three songs of their own. There is no fee to participate and no cover charge. The café will close at 10 p.m.

Other Events at Black-Eyed Susan:

SATURDAY, Dec. 4, 2010: FOLK HARPIST LAURIE SMALLEY plays sacred, classical and Christmas music, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

SATURDAY, Dec. 11, 2010: DEB FORKEY & KATIE CHADDOCK perform folk, standards and Christmas carols. Two beautiful voices and two guitars blend into lovely harmonies.

THURSDAY Dec. 17, 2010: HOLIDAY ACOUSTIC OPEN MIC hosted by Bob & Gena Decker. A special Friday event to benefit a local charity. Café opens at 6 p.m. Open Mic 7–10 p.m. All are welcome!

FRIDAY, DEC. 31, 2010: NEW YEAR’S EVE with MICHEL FAMIBRO — an extraordinary guitarist and jazz crooner, performing with pianist Scott Bradley. Special dinner package by reservation only.

The period from mid-November to mid-December can be an exciting time for birders. Most of the Saw-whet Owls have finished migrating through our area, and Short-eared Owls are now back in their usual haunts in fields near Geneva. The first of our winter hawks, the Rough-legged Hawks, were spotted several weeks ago. At least one Snowy Owl has been seen, and someone reported a flock of 300 Sharp-shinned Hawks in Orleans County last week.

The Niagara River offers the best gull viewing in the world during the first several weeks in December. On a recent outing, birders found a Black-legged Kittiwake near the Horseshoe Falls, a Little Gull at the Whirlpool, and two Black-billed Gulls. People come from all over the world to see this spectacle and it’s right in our backyard.

All of these spots are within about a six-mile stretch of the Niagara River on the Canadian side, from the control gates near Chippewa (an obvious structure that sticks way out in the river with a pull-off on the downriver side where one can see lots of gulls and gulls) to the Adam Beck overpasses along the Lake Ontario Hydro power plant. Surprisingly, people are seeing gulls here, which is on the south side where one can see lots of gulls and gulls. People walk over from the NY Robert Moses Power Plant. All places can be accessed from River Road (also known as the Niagara Parkway).

The first Pine Siskins, Common Redpolls and Tree Sparrows have arrived at feeders. Surprisingly, people are seeing these species as well as in the Adirondacks and the Catskills. The first Evening Grosbeaks, Com- mon Redpolls and Tree Sparrows have arrived at feeders. Gradually, the winter will feature a ‘sweet’ history

ALFRED STATION—The December meeting of Bakers Bridge Historical Association will take place at the Meeting House at 5971 Hamilton Hill Road, Alfred Station on Monday, December 6 at 6:30 p.m. a dish-to-pass dinner will commence. All those attending are requested to bring a main dish to share. Dessert and beverages will be provided.

Following dinner, at about 7:30 p.m., our program will begin. The speaker, Corwin McGraw, will present a history of Alfred's Honey Pot Candy business. She will tell the story of the candy and how it was produced and decorated with chocolate. There will be patties of the first recipe developed over 100 years ago and sample pieces of all the flavors contained in the boxes today. We invite those interested in learning about the history of the candy to come and enjoy a moment in our meeting night activities and local history to join us. For more information on South Main Street.

The community chest drive has reached about 88% of its 2010 goal of $35,500 in support of local charities. As of this week, we have received donations and pledges totaling $31,240 towards that goal. It is uncertain whether or not we will be able to reach our final goal. Please help us!

ALMOND—“Reflections of Christmas,” is the theme of the Christmas Coffee House hosted by the Alfred Sun Almond Branch at 6751 State Route 21, Almond, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 10, 11 and 12.

Mrs. John Prince is directing the event, which is open to the pub- lic. Performances will be at 7 p.m. on Friday and Saturday nights and at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday. Doors will open a half hour prior to the performances and coffee and cookies will be served.

“This will be a memorable musical experience,” Mrs. Prince said. “We will present a wide genre, including a Trans Siberian-type en- semble, small ensemble singing, a little boy and little fairy bal- lerinas, and a men’s ensemble singing an African carol. Don’t miss it!” For more information, call the church office: 276-6700.

CORTLAND—Coach Dave Murray’s Alfred Saxons used a complete team effort to defeat the host Cortland State Red Dragons, 34-20, Saturday, Nov. 27 on the cold and windy turf of Cortland’s Stadium Complex.

After AU’s Nick Clark late in the game broke through the line on a 3rd-and-1 for 29 yards and his third rushing TD to remove all doubt, the bundled-up Alfred fans began to chant, “OH! OH!”

The Saxons (10-2), seeded 6th in the Mount Union Bracket, had defeated both the #3 seed SUNY Maritime (16-0) and the #2 seed Cortland State (10-2), and will now travel to Alliance, OH to play #1 seed Mount Union, which recently defeated #4 seed Delaware Valley, 31-3.

Kickoff will be 12 noon Saturday, Dec. 4 at Mount Union Stadium in Alliance, OH as the Saxons, winners of their second straight NCAA Tournament game, challenge the ten-time national title winner Purple Raiders.

Balanced effort

Alfred balanced a solid defensive effort with a potent offense as the Saxons dominated the line of scrimmage on both sides of the ball.

The AU defense held Cortland, which came into the game averaging 191 yards per game on the ground, to 79 rushing yards. Cortland had been holding opponents to just 79 yards rushing in contest; AU freshman tailback Austin Dwyer had 72 yards in the first quarter. Dwyer finished with 186 yards on 52 carries, giving him 1,390 on the season, just 16 yards off the school single-season mark set in 2007 by Vinson Hendrix.

AU turned the ball over twice in the first half, but Cortland, the second seed in the East Region, was only able to convert the miscues into three points. After taking possession at the Saxons 37-yard line following an AU fumble on the opening kickoff, the Red Dragons settled for a 24-yard Marc Corrado field goal 2:39 into the first quarter.

Alfred scored two unanswered touchdowns to take a 14-3 lead at the half. Dwyer powered the Saxons’ first-half offense, running for 94 yards on 12 carries. He opened Alfred’s scoring with a 30-yard TD run with 4:59 left in the opening quarter, capping a three-play 44-yard drive. The Saxons took a 14-3 lead with 5:18 left in the second when junior linebacker Nick Clark scored a four-yard touchdown run, which culminated an eight-play, 91-yard drive.

Cortland had a chance to close the deficit when the Red Dragons took over near midfield after an AU fumble and drove to the Saxons 17-yard line, but Corrado’s 37-yard field goal try as the half ended had the distance but sailed wide right.

The Saxons defense held Cortland to just 68 yards of offense and three first downs in the first half. Alfred’s offense, meanwhile, produced 225 yards of offense, with 14 first downs, before intermission.

The Saxons scored on their opening possession of the second half. Sophomore strong safety Reggie Pressley intercepted Cortland’s quarterback Dan Pitcher near midfield and Alfred drove 52 yards in six plays, with Clark powering in from two yards out. The extra point attempt failed and Alfred held a 20-3 lead. Cortland answered, getting a 26-yard Corrado field goal to draw the Red Dragons within two scores, at 20-6.

AU drove into Cortland territory on the Saxons’ ensuing possession but turned the ball over on downs at the Red Dragons 19-yard line. Cortland drove 81 yards in nine plays, scoring, on a 14-yard TD pass from Pitcher to tight end Eddie Spillert with 1:28 left in the third to make it 20-13. The drive was aided by a pair of 15-yard personal foul calls against the Saxons.

Alfred regained a two-touchdown lead (27-13) with 8:27 left in the fourth, driving 46 yards in seven plays, with junior quarterback Tom Secky hooking up with senior tight end DJ Loughlin-Pope on a 13-yard TD pass. Cortland responded over two drives later, forcing an Alfred punt and driving 69 yards in seven plays and scoring on a 14-yard pass from Pitcher to wide receiver Mike Humphreys with 2:59 left to make it 27-20.

Cortland attempted an onside kick, but the ball didn’t travel 10 yards and AU took over on the Red Dragon 38-yard line. After AU gained nine yards on a pair of Dwyer runs, Clark plopped into the line on a third-and-one carry, broke a tackle and sprinted 29 yards for the touchdown, his third of the contest, giving Alfred a 34-20 lead with 1:20 left. Cortland turned the ball over on an interception in AU territory and the Saxons ran out the clock.

For the game, AU had 436 yards of offense. Clark had 42 yards on six carries with three touchdowons, giving him a team-leading 12 rushing TDs on the season, 12th all-time with 17 of 27 passes for 211 yards and a touchdown. Senior wideout Ryan Thon had five catches for 60 yards and sophomore wide receiver Andre McCloud (74 yards) and freshman wide receiver Josh Phillips (38 yards) each had four receptions.

The Alfred Saxons defeated Cortland to 253 yards of offense; the Red Dragons came into the game averaging nearly 360 per contest. Pitcher (20-of-40) finished with 174 yards passing with three interceptions and two touchdowons. Wide receiver Anthony Giuliano caught six passes for 56 yards and Humphreys caught four for 30 yards and a score. Tailback Justin Autera, the nation’s 18th-leading rusher (averaging 120.4 yards per game), was held to 56 yards on 18 carries.

Clark led the Saxons defense with 10 tackles (seven solo, one for loss), junior linebacker Wes Smith (two tackles for loss) and Pressley (two pass breakups) each had nine tackles and an interception. Sophomore end Chris Steeven had two sacks and senior linebacker Chad Pieri had six tackles and a sack.
It was off to Cortland on Saturday past as the Alfred Saxons were taking on the host Red Dragons in NCAA Division III football action. Note that former Nealon resident Ben Calkins is head coach from Webster, over to Wolcott, down past Savannah thru Auburn and Skaneateles before arriving in Homer/Cortland. Nealon was not on assignment this day and we hung it out in the broadcast booth by Cody. We arrived on the chilly, windy afternoon just in time to see Cortland take a 3-0 lead early in the opening stanza, the last scoring on a 31-yard FG.

Empire Eight champ Alfred and NJAC co-champ Cortland have met many times over the years but not since 1986. As an added touch, AU head coach Dave Murray was in charge of the Red Dragons program from 1990-96 as he took the team to one NCAA tourney appearance and went (3-1-0) in various ECAC Bowls. Obviously it isn’t too often a coach takes two different schools to the NCAA D3 tourney and more rare when he returns to where it started. Probably a good sign that the Adrian grad has been the program in the game 13-times. Yikes.

The students were on Thanksgiving break which limited the Cortland crowd but they were on the road against Alfred as well.

An excellent facility but what a poor set-up for this particular NCAA contest when it came to the concession stand ... not stands. One window open on a day when virtually everyone there was hungry and there was no option to buy some hot chocolate or coffee. I was at the Genesee-Cortland women's soccer game one month ago when Cortland was hosting Mount Union and there was no option for coffee or any beverage other than the concession football facility and we were closest to the visiting side. Not only was there a concession stand open but we were the facilities on the visitors side. The game, of course, was in Salem, Mount Union has been in the game 13-times. Yikes. Forgetting about the football facility and we were closest to the visiting side. Not only was there a concession stand open but we were the facilities on the visitors side. The game, of course, was in Salem, Mount Union has been in the game 13-times. Yikes.

Alfred prevailed 34-20 and now they are off to Alliance, Ohio to take on the Mount Union Purple Raiders. The cathedral of Division III football awaits them. Making this trip the brightest seed gets to host, round-by-round in the Division III ranks, which usually means Mount Union plays at home throughout the playoffs leading up to the annual Friday night showdown in Salem, VA. The Penn State and Penn State-Behr program heads to Geneseo in early February. Plus the Alfred squad is at Nazareth and Geneseo in January. Tom Curle’s Plattsburgh program heads to Geneseo in early February. Plus the Alfred squad is at Nazareth and Geneseo in January. Tom Curle’s Plattsburgh program heads to Geneseo in early February. Done, gone, on IR. $1.7 million down the tubes. What is the deal with them? They lost a semi-final game to Mexico and the #1-team in the world had to beat Italy twice just to get the 16th and final spot? Then, after all that, Team USA gets one of the four spots. Why does that matter?

It is off to Ohio for Nealon and myself as we headed off from Webster, over to Wolcott, down past Savannah thru Auburn and Skaneateles before arriving in Homer/Cortland.
