Frank Gibbons of Buffalo To Deliver Main Address In Foremen Hall

"Our Government has authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to float a Second Liberty Loan. This means that the people of the United States are called upon to support President Wilson and Congress by lending money to their Government to carry on the war. Our unprecedented expenditures for the physical, mental, and moral well-being of the soldiers will be historic. They testify to the personal attitude of a Democracy toward those who risk their lives for Country and Humanity.

With an ever-growing belief in the righteousness of the cause for which American Arms are fighting, the people are ready to help. They must, however, do their part intelligently as well as patriotically. The Secretary of the Treasury will furnish the general assistance of thousands in disseminating reliable information throughout the villages, towns, and cities—information as to the success of the Loan, Bonds and the urgent need for heavy subscriptions to the Loan.

One thing necessary to make the Loan a success is the realization by all people that America is making real and supreme defense, and in defense of the best form of government the world has yet seen.

For that reason, on Wednesday evening, the seventeenth, Frank Gibbons of Buffalo will talk to Alfred instantants and Alfred students about the second Liberty Loan. The band will play there, and the Glee Club.

KING RETURNS TO GAME

It was a great game, a great game to win and it would have been a hard one to lose. Alfred didn't out-play Thiel, but it was a bitter battle from start to finish. The teams were very evenly matched and out on the field for the most part there was a slight edge to the purple and gold to come out winners.

To the beginning of the third quarter it looked like a tie game, until action was taken. Alfred supported the defense of the other's defense, but when Walt King, hero of many Alfred victories, put forth a bit of the greatness that he has, the teams stood off and faced each other for a little more than 11/2 minutes. Walt would have made a touchdown. Thiel had a little edge and King missed the field goal. Thiel's last charge was held up at the 15 by the defense of Coach Sweetland. Few people thought he would stand. A football game is grasped by the chalk marks of the gridiron. But Walt was there to win the game for Alfred.

KANAKADEA STIRS

Everyone knows that Axford is out for stent pictures. Axford says that he doesn't expect to take all of them himself, but he is very much interested. So everybody is invited to lend the use of his or her college snapshots. Just hand them to Mr. Axford or Miss Swalla or Miss Wells, the Editor, is very anxious that they should be shown. Axford's pictures will be here any day now, too. And of course more are expected at any time.

A Kanakadea board meeting is scheduled for Wednesday night at seven o'clock at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, and there will be present, mostly freshmen. All the class elect representatives are invited to be present.

ASSOCIATION NEWS

Alfred Baker and Dot Baxter were leaders, discussing "Our Common Opportunity." Alfred developed ideas gleaned from "How to Live on Twenty-Four Hours a Day." By Arnold Bennett. Some of the ideas were: not all have money or talents, but all have twenty-four hours a day, no need, no loss; to postpone a thing, thinking you'll have more time later is worthless, for you will never have more than at the present; take time to get acquainted with yourselves; make new friends continually by not being clipey.

Mary Elizabeth told us how we could spend our spare time, saving for the soldiers, and Geraldine Wells inspired the thought and help we could derive from regular attendance at church.

Mildred Fiske and Lois Cuglar sang a duet, "Day is Dying in the West."

V. M.

On Sunday evening at the Young Men's Christian Association, Dean Malt spoke to the members on the rejection of the individual to the group, on the importance of the single act. Tracing the growth of the Hebrew National, he first used it as an illustration of the manner of society's growth, emphasizing the right of change but holding out the fact that the need of the hour, educated young men, remains unrecognized, always always unchallenged.

SOCIETY

N. Y. S. A. STUDENTS AND FACULTY ENTERTAINED BY ALFRED GRANGE 1907

The Grange at Hornell, N. Y., was subjected to capacity on Wednesday last by the students and faculty of the Alfred Agricultural School. The Grangers had invited them to entertain them, and they did. Everyone sang at their usual patriotic songs and others too. Mrs. Wright and Mr. E. B. Saul sang four verses individually, and Miss Wood gave a reading. The address was by Director Wright, who outlined the objects and benefits of the Grange. He expressed his approval of the interest shown by the students; emphasizing the fact that the mutual cooperation of the Grange with the school is most worth while to both.

Refrigements were served in the Hall dining room, and when the page was not over the guests made an orderly at dawning and a social good time until a late hour.

THE LAST DRAFT

Last Wednesday night the Seniors and Sophomores, drafted, marched to camp for examination. The camp was located in Stillman's Glen at the sound of the bugle. Mr. Gaus conducted the proceedings, partook of the meal, made a few remarks on the necessity and for physical endurance. Great was the consternation when such a ruddy type of youth was given underweight, so the applicant was taken on the mere meal and examined elsewhere, and he bought doughnuts and coffee. Later, the entire company was marched back to the Hall and given honorary discharge.

SMOKE RINGS

Rev. Davis is absent, because he is conducting a meeting of the (Hornell) Masonic Association at Hornell. And on the 19th and 28th he will be away, in attendance on the 250, anniversary of Knox Institute at Philadelphi. Mrs. Arlotta B. Mix has been called away because of the illness of her mother. And Mrs. Mix, who has been called away because of illness of her mother. And Mrs. Mix, who has been called away because of illness of her mother.

Columbus Day brought several visitors. Mrs. M. Mix was the first, followed by many others. The primary reason for the meeting was the fact that the Grange was to be concluded on the 23d, and the last meeting was called away because of the illness of Mrs. Mix.
