

White Hall July 10, 1905

Dear Professor

I enclose you fragment of the Penn. Clay burned at cone 1. I think it good but I think a better clay could be found close to it.

I beg to withdraw my declaration as regards the washing of saggars for lead glazes until I do more work on that.

I will stand by my system however for cone 6 glazes.

Yours truly

Paul E. Cox