Football Team Moves Up in National/State Rankings

The Alfred University football team is ranked 20th in this week's D3football.com poll of national rankings of Division III teams.

AU (4-0, 2-0 Empire 8), which had been ranked 22nd last week, moved up in the polls after Saturday's 45-21 victory at Norwich University. The Saxons are also ranked first in this week's New York State Division III poll, the highest they've ever been ranked in the NYS poll. Alfred had been ranked second in last week's NYS poll.

AU faces Empire 8 Conference rival Hartwick College this Saturday, Oct. 6, at 1 p.m. in Alfred's annual Homecoming game. Hartwick stunned fifth-ranked St. John Fisher on Saturday to set up this weekend's showdown at Merrill Field. With and with a 2-0 conference record, the Hawks (3-1 overall) sits atop the Empire 8 standings with Alfred.

The Saxons possess one of the most potent offenses in the country, averaging 512.5 yards per game (282.5 passing, 230 rushing). Alfred averages 41.3 points per game. Senior quarterback Paul Keeley (Caledonia, NY/Caledonia-Mumford) is coming off a game in which he completed 23 of 28 passes (a new school record for single-game pass completion percentage, 82.1 percent) for 290 yards and three touchdowns. In that game, Keeley established a new AU career record for passing yardage, with 5,722.

Topic: "This is the Life.....again"

Before they were the academic geeks you know, they were rock stars. A microbiological bass player and a pre-indeterminate hi-resolution songwriter (thinking about becoming low-resolution) attempt live original music.

Alfred Fashion Runway to Tie the Knot

Alfred University has announced plans for its second annual 'Alfred Runway' program, which challenges students to create fashion designs and attire. The event will be held at 8 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 27 in the Miller Performing Arts Center.

This year's theme is entitled "Fashion Ties The Knot" and will ask fashion teams to design wedding attire for two models. The official challenge reads; "In a time where the definition of marriage faces great debate, Alfred University students are invited to share their viewpoint through fashion.

Teams will design and construct wedding attire for two models that could explore other cultures, visit the past, imagine the future, embrace tradition, or confront the establishment. Each team is asked to create both a visual and verbal statement in a setting where all viewpoints will be welcomed and respected."

Teams of no more than five people (including models) will design, construct, and model attire for two individuals in an attempt to expand upon the stated challenge. Teams must consist of a majority of Alfred University students but can contain up to two University professionals, community members or Alfred State College students.

Fashion attire must be constructed rather than purchased and judges will be instructed to score more favorably upon attire that is original.

Models will be expected to participate in two runway walks. The first entitled "Down the Aisle" will portray a wedding procession of the design team's imagining. The second scene entitled "The Reception" tests the fashion's ability to dance at a post-wedding celebration. The fashion team will select music and choreograph both walks. A question and answer segment will allow fashion teams to explain their vision.

Guest judges are currently being sought and will be announced in the coming month. Last year's inaugural event included a visit by Project Runway winner Jay McCarroll and over 10 teams competing for the title of Alfred Runway winner.

Kevin Jacobs, Alfred University career counselor, will be registering teams starting October 1st and the deadline for registering is October 15th. Jacobs can be contacted for more information and official rules at jacobsj@alfred.edu and 607-871-2164.
