We want YOU to come to the AMA meeting this week!

Event Date: 10/11/2006
Event Time: 6 p.m.
Location: OLIN 400

Don't miss this week's meeting! We have some VERY exciting goals and ideas and we want YOU to be a part of them! Any and all Alfred University students are welcome so come be a part of Alfred University history!

Some background information on AMA:

The mission of the collegiate division of the American Marketing Association (AMA) is to further the professional development of the affiliated collegiate chapters and student members through leadership development, training, and involvement in the field of marketing.

The objectives of the awards competition are:

- To recognize and honor the AMA collegiate chapters excelling in professional marketing service to their members, their colleges/universities, and their marketing community.
- To promote professionalism within local collegiate chapters by requiring participation in the planning and evaluation processes; from chapter plan through annual report.
- Level of professionalism in activities with attention to goals and well-balanced chapter performance.

A few tentative projects for the upcoming year include:

- Selling a large amount of Northern Lights candles for profit.
- Collaborating with elite fashion designer Luca Luca for an upcoming fashion show.
- Introducing a brand new fashion program to Alfred University.
- Working with a non-profit organization of our choosing to further our understanding and experience in the world of non-profit marketing.
- Putting on the annual Health Fair for Alfred University.

Rubber Stamping Workshop

Event Date: 10/21/2006

Event Time: 10 a.m.-Noon

Location: Wellsville Creative Arts Center

RUBBER STAMP WORKSHOP:

Stamping has come a long way, from cute little foam stamps for children, to a legitimate art form. This class will introduce the basics of modern stamping. We'll look at the different types of inks, card stock, embellishments, etc, while creating cards to be proud of! Beginners will be surprised to see the quality of card they can make, while the more experienced stamper will have freedom to enhance the projects they work on. Expect to leave with four handmade cards.

The techniques learned in this workshop apply easily to scrap-booking, journaling, altered books, etc.

Allegany Artisans Open Studio Tour

Event Date: 10/14/2006

Event Time: 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

Location: Varied

2006 Allegany Artisans Open Studio Tour
Saturday & Sunday, Oct. 14-15
10 a.m.-5 p.m. each day

Unlike other shows that gather exhibitors in one place, the Allegany Artisans Studio Tour is an arts and crafts show that allows the public to visit actual workshops in Allegany and Steuben counties. You will meet and talk with the people who create your personal art treasure.

Only a few of the studios keep regular business hours throughout the year. Many studios function primarily as workshops but the Artisans Open Studio Tour is an opportunity for the public to visit working studios at a time when the artisans are prepared to welcome guests with their work on display and doors open. (Many of these artisans will happily open their studios by appointment. If you are interested in visiting any studio, please call or e-mail the artisan to make arrangements.
