

My dear Professor Bliss, —

You see my ever present keep in time of need — this time it is for a simple thing — a ball-mill cover! As I remember, there used to be several more covers than jars. ^{at (dep'd)} Here that state of affairs is reversed — and one cover is replaced by a turned wooden one, which refuses any amount of persuasion to fir. If I am mistaken about Alfred's over-stocks of those best white porcelain covers forgive me — if I am right may I buy, beg, or borrow one of them?

All goes well at the pottery. It will be a well equipped little place by October 1st & we will be able to handle a large group of people. I now have 34 students counting the 14 children — so you may imagine that I am busy. However it is giving back more than I give it.

Your visit to us will be a happy time for me.
Doubtless I am counting on your spending much time at the pottery, while truly you should be visiting these charming people—

Indeed you must not come until Mr Gutman comes home. He would be very dissatisfied or Silvermine would miss seeing you all that it should.

Once more 'you are hung'.
It is pleasant to have you there at the Guild near my patterns. — and my works. I frequently go to consult you.

The best of wishes to each member of your family

Most Sincerely

Ortha Canfield

P.S. Kathryn visits us during the coming week, and Marion during the one following.

Rt. # 2. Sometime soon I shall write you of developments or ideas with regard to my move in the fall. I'm still uncertain.
