My dear Sir

After my conversation with you some weeks ago I wrote to J. Baker & Co telling them the position of this matter and asking them for further particulars as to the balance of this claim against your late brother. Yesterday I received a letter from them showing that this claim is made up as follows

To Merchandise & supplies

240.55

Orders & note

390.00

$ 630.55

I mentioned that your late brother's relatives might perhaps feel inclined to compromise the matter and I asked for instructions. I am now in a position to settle the matter if you & your brother would make me a fair offer. Will you kindly ascertain what proportion they would be inclined to pay. I am authorized to give

GORMULLY & SINCLAIR,

BARRISTERS, COMMISSIONERS, ETC.

Ottawa, 188

You are right in full if we can agree as to the amount to be paid

Yours truly
