'Mr. Fish' Visiting Artist Lecture

Date: Tuesday, April 17

Time: 5 p.m.

Location: Holmes Auditorium, Harder Hall

Cost to Attend: Free/Open to public

Sponsored by: Art History Club, Division of Art History & Theory and Office of the Dean, School of Art and Design

The public is welcome to attend an engaging presentation by "Mr. Fish," political cartoonist and freelance writer whose work appears in the online journal Truthdig (Truthdig.com) and in Harper's Magazine (Harpers.org). The program will be held Tuesday, April 17 at 5 p.m. in Holmes Auditorium, Harder Hall.

In 2011 and 2010 the Society of Professional Journalists honored Truthdig resident cartoonist Mr. Fish as the recipient of its Sigma Delta Chi Award for Editorial Cartooning in the Online Independent category.

Mr. Fish, known in real life as Dwayne Booth, lives in the Philadelphia area and is the author of the recently published, "Go Fish." He will sign copies of his book at the event.

The San Francisco Chronicle says of the cartoonist-writer, "Anyone who has spied the barbed panels of political cartoonist Mr. Fish in say, L.A. Weekly, Harper's, the Nation or Truthdig.com would understand that neither the right nor the left is spared his pointed pencil."

Booth claims to "respond to politics emotionally, from a humanitarian point of view. This allows lots of people to agree with you." His issue of main concern is the "victimization of the every-day person."

Here is an opportunity to hear and engage a fellow with enormous talent, a fun and fertile mind, and someone very easy to like!
