Lecture: Comic Strips as Political Literature

Speaker: Dr. Vincent Golphin, RIT
Tuesday, May 29 at 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

From Aaron McGruder's controversial "Boondocks" comic strip through Gary Trudeau's "Dooniesbury" and back to the 19th century, beginnings of visual punditry in daily newspapers, serial cartoons have become a unique social commentary form as well as entertainment and propaganda. This lecture highlights major comic artists and explores the ideologies behind their use of language and pictures for cultural critique.

This program, which is free and open to the public, is made possible through the support of the NY Council for the Humanities' Speakers in the Humanities program.

This library-sponsored lecture is free and open to the general public.
