Fill the Van!

Many of Alfred University's downstate education students are working in schools that were directly affected by Superstorm Sandy. We ask for your donation of any school supplies (notebooks, pens, pencils, crayons, markers) to send to New York City to help with the relief effort.

Donation boxes will be place in buildings around campus.

If we can raise enough supplies, Alfred University will send an entire van-load to students and teachers in need!

The boxes will be picked up on Dec. 7.

Lecture by Stefan Kurten, Randall Chair

Date: Tuesday, Nov. 27
Time: 5 P.M.
Location: Holmes Auditorium
Cost to Attend: Free

Stefan Krten (born 1963) is a painter and musician who lives and works in Dsseldorf. He studied at the Kunstakademie Dsseldorf, where he was in the class of Michael Buthe (1944-94). Krten later studied and taught at the Art Institute of San Francisco. In 2007, "Shadowtime," a survey of his paintings since 2001, was shown at Museum Haus Esters, Krefeld and the Royal Hibernian Academy, Dublin.

His paintings are included in the permanent collections of several European institutions as well as the Museum of Modern Art, New York, the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art and the Montreal Museum of Art. In 2011, he was the subject of a solo exhibition "Rainbows in the Dark" at Cosar HMT, Dsseldorf. Five of his paintings were included in "Gesamtkunstwerk, New Art From Germany" at the Saatchi Gallery, London in the spring of 2012. Krten is represented by Alexander and Bonin in New York City.

"Stefan Krten's architecture-based compositions propose a new Germany growing over abandoned constructs and aspirations of a fading past, where memories are broken down and allowed to mutate into dizzying pattern and abstraction - and, notably, where man-made structures and nature are seen to coalesce." (Quoted from the Saatchi Gallery website)

Pause - Closing Reception

Closing Reception: Thursday, Nov. 29, 2012

Time: 4:30 - 6 p.m.

Location: Schein-Joseph Museum

Museum Hours: Wednesday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Closed Saturday through Tuesday and some holidays.

Exhibition runs through Friday, Dec. 7, 2012

This special exhibition involves 18 pieces from the permanent collection. They have a common visual softness - a pillowy, rounded feel that along with their complexity in form, color and intent hope to give you pause. Each piece necessitates a closer look. They range in size from Christine Federighi's tiny 2 -1/2 inches high landscape to Giselle Hicks' sculpture 'embedded' that is 7 feet in depth.

The majority of these ceramic pieces have been made with off-the-wheel techniques utilizing the processes of slab building, pinching, and casting. The surfaces are also diverse with detailed drawings, decals, and finger marks, while others are crisp and glossy with no evidence of the human hand. Included are work by artists J. David Broudo, Christine Federighi, Wayne Higby, Ken Little, David Shaner, Robert Sperry, Toshiko Takaezu and Robert Winokur; MFA Gloryhole work by Giselle Hicks, Jae Won Lee, Jeffrey Kaller, Sinisa Kucek, and Katherine West; and selections from the visiting artist collection by Anton Reijnders and Elsa Sahal.

In addition there are historic Chinese pieces.

Lecture: Cartoons of the Jazz Era

Speaker: Jeremy Speed Schwartz, Alfred State College

Tuesday, Nov. 27 at 7:00 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

The late 1920s and early 1930s brought huge changes to the animation industry. This era introduced the earliest sync-sound cartoons, color and some of our most beloved cartoon characters. Many animators took inspiration from jazz music and infused their work with the rhythms, lingo and sometimes even the jazz musicians themselves.

Jeremy Speed Schwartz will discuss the historical and industrial context that gave rise to these films, and present a series of these rarely-seen hilarious masterpieces.

This library-sponsored lecture is free and open to the general public.
