Alfred Fire Dept. Drill on Campus Sunday

Please be aware that this Sunday, Feb. 10, the Alfred Fire Department will be conducting a "search and rescues, mass casualty" drill in one of the lower Pine Hill suites on campus. Activity will begin about 1:30 p.m. You should plan to stay away from this area during this training drill and until you see the activity cleared away. Thank you for your support.

AU Faculty Research Mentor Award

Provost Bill Hall is pleased to announce the establishment of the Alfred University Faculty Research Mentor Award.

The University intends to acknowledge and reward faculty who are outstanding undergraduate research and scholarly activity mentors across the campus, i.e., those individuals who are outstanding mentors to students engaged in research or scholarly activity and are actively engaged in being research/visual-performing artists themselves.

One award each year in the following categories: physical and life sciences, undergraduate engineering, social sciences, humanities, visual and performing arts, and professional studies.

The award in the amount of $500 of faculty development money will be presented at the Honors Convocation on April 26, 2013. The nomination period for this award is Feb. 1 through Feb. 22, 2013; nominations are to be sent to the Awards Committee at argus@alfred.edu. The attached document explains in detail the process and selection of the award.

Studio Visits: James Voochies

STUDIO VISITS - James Voorhies

Date: Wednesday, Feb. 13

Time: 9 - 11 A.M.

Location: Nevins Theater

Cost to Attend: Free

Sponsored By: Foundations

Please join us Wednesday, Feb. 13 at 9 a.m. for STUDIO Visits. This week our guest will be James Voorhies. He is an American curator, art historian and educator, currently based in Berlin.

He holds a Ph.D. in modern and contemporary art history and is founder of Bureau for Open Culture, an itinerant curatorial and artistic initiative that utilizes exhibition, education, design, communication and publishing to position the art institution as an overall form of critical practice.

Check out his website here: <http://bureauforopencultu...>

Studio Visits is a live lecture and talk show at Alfred University that brings artists and thinkers to the Nevins stage Wednesdays at 9 am. First, the guest presents their work in a lecture format and then intermission! When the audience returns, the stage is transformed into a talk show set.

Studio Visits is recorded live and the segments are available the blog at <http://austudiovisits.wor...>

Studio Visits is a project of the Foundation and Sculpture Graduate Programs of the School of Art and Design at Alfred University. It's headed by professors M. Michelle Illuminato and Brett Hunter.

Relay for Life in Need of Help

This is Rick, the president of the Relay for Life committee and we're having lots of trouble with membership to the point that there may not be a relay this year.

To attempt to combat this, we're having meetings Thursdays at 7 p.m. at the SOS suite. Unfortunately, we planned on having pizza, but we couldn't get the funding for it because we have no treasurer at the moment. Please come and help save the Relay for Life club.
