Extra! Extra! Puppets Tell Local News!

EXTRA EXTRA! Alfred New extravaganza! Puppets Tell Local News!

Date: Thursday, March 7

Time: 7 P.M.

Location: Alfred Village Hall

Cost to Attend: Free

Sponsored By: Foundations, CoLAB class and faculty M. Michelle Illuminato, Trevor Bennett, Brett Hunter

The evening will feature 10 puppet shows created by freshmen art students in the coLAB course. The coLAB course is part of the Foundations Program in the School of Art and Design at Alfred University.

Students started the semester out as investigative reporters of the local news. They took what they learned and used the stories that they uncovered as the creative inspiration for their puppet newscasts.

You'll learn about the new businesses in town, news about the paranormal activity in our Steinheim Castle, a local moose sighting, and the difficult issue of how hydrofracking might impact our local people and land.

Please join us for this evening of puppets telling the news!

International Randall Chair Ben Woodeson Exhibition

Ben Woodeson Exhibition

Date: Friday, March 8

Time: 6-9 P.M.

Location: The Belfry, 406 Canisteo St, Hornell, NY 14843

Cost to Attend: Free

The Belfry is excited to present an exhibition of Ben Woodeson's sculpture completed during his tenure as Theodore Randall International Chair at Alfred University.

Artist Ben Woodeson makes ephemeral sculptures that deliberately set out to confront both viewer and exhibiting institution. The works are frequently fragile, unstable and kinetic.

The Belfry is a new exhibition venue in Hornell located in the historic Spencer Methodist Church. Turner Teaching Fellow Ashley Lyon and co-director Ian McMahon have been renovating the space into a non-profit platform for the arts. They are pleased to host Ben Woodson for the debut exhibition. Parking and shuttles will be available for transportation from the Alfred School of Art and Design Sculpture Exhibition at the Hornell Community Arts Center to the Belfry during opening hours.

Tax Returns Prepared for Free

Visit the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) site at Alfred University and have your tax return prepared and filed for free by an IRS-certified volunteer preparer.

As part of their career development, our MBA-Accounting candidates are running a VITA site this year. VITA is an IRS program designed to help low and moderate-income taxpayers complete their annual tax returns at no cost. The program's original concept was to provide local taxpayers with free tax return preparation by accounting students.

To set up an appointment, simply dial " 2 1 1" on your telephone. (Dialing 211 will connect you with a United Way representative who will make your appointment.)

VITA headquarters is in Seidlin Hall, Room 016

Tax work will take place Thursdays only, 5-7 p.m. beginning Feb. 7, 2013, and ending March 7,

For more information, or if you have any trouble setting up an appointment, please email the Alfred University VITA site at bamberg@alfred.edu.

Exciting Addition to Performing Arts Season

The Division of Performing Arts, AU Honors Program, and Student Affairs are pleased to announce the addition of drummer extraordinaire and multi-Grammy-winner Rodney Holmes and fellow musicians to the spring arts schedule.

Holmes is one of the most outstanding jazz drummers of our time. He has played with music legends such as the Brecker Brothers (on their 1994 Grammy-winning album, "Out of the Loop," and the song, "African Skies") Wayne Shorter and Santana (with whom he toured, along with Bob Dylan in 1993, and from 1997-2000).

Holmes will be the presenter for the April 4 Bergren Forum. His concert will be held on Friday, April 5 in the Miller Theater in the Miller Performing Arts Center, at 8 p.m. There will be no admission charge.

Please watch for more details, and contact Performing Arts for additional information.

Concert: Pierre Bensusan, Acoustic Guitar Virtuoso

Wednesday, March 6 at 7 p.m.

Nancy Howe Auditorium

David A. Howe Public Library

155 N. Main St., Wellsville

585-593-3410

Described by the L.A. Times as "one of the most unique and brilliant acoustic guitar veterans in the work music scene today," his name became synonymous with contemporary acoustic guitar genius, having the ability to make a single guitar sound like an entire band as he takes his audience on a mesmerizing journey.

In addition, he is a composer as well as a bilingual and improvisational vocalist. His manner of playing defies classification - crossing world, classical, jazz, traditional, folk, and more. Learn more at www.pierrebensusan.com.

This library-sponsored concert is free and open to the general public.
