MasterCard Changes Coming

We're making some changes to the MasterCard administrative process. To allow individuals time to become familiar with the new program features, beginning with the next reconciliation cycle you will have the option to scan and upload receipts in the Smartdata system or submit hardcopy receipts with your statement.

For those who have found the scanning option convenient, please continue to use it. If you elect to upload your receipts you will not need to submit hard copies with your monthly statement. Rather, you should retain your receipts until you have been notified by Office and Procurement Services that your information has been verified. You will still need to print your statement, initial it, and send to your card manager.

If you elect not to upload your receipts during this transition period, you must continue to attach all receipts to your statement and submit. Missing receipt forms should still be completed and submitted in paper form due to the necessity of signatures.

We will review the process again in August and it is our hope that cardholders will be more comfortable with this new Smartdata system feature.

[Please note that original receipts for travel charged to the MasterCard must still be attached to the Travel Expense Report and sent to the business office.]

We have also worked with the Chase Program Team to find alternatives to using personal information on the card application. Effective immediately we will begin to replace your Social Security number with your Banner ID number. Since we must continue to request verification information, we will use month and date of birth (ie: April 1 would be 0401) in lieu of mother's maiden name. The cardholder will be responsible for knowing this information should they have a need to contact the card issuer (JP Morgan Chase) directly, or should the card issuer need to contact the cardholder.

To transition to this new setup, current cardholders should update their information using the revised application available on the Office and Procurement Services website or by requesting one directly from our office.

For your convenience, we have also attached the new application form to this notice. The revised form will replace the one on file, which will be appropriately discarded (shredded) upon updating with the new data. New cardholders can obtain a copy of the revised form as instructed above.

Please note that Alfred University is liable to JP Morgan Chase for all charges made on the MasterCard. By obtaining a MasterCard an individual's personal credit will not be impacted.

Arthur L. and Lea R. Powell Distinguished Lecture in Psychology

Dr. Frank Farley, psychologist and L.H. Carnell Professor at Temple University, Philadelphia, will deliver the 2013 Arthur and Lea R. Powell Distinguished Lecture in Psychology. The lecture will be presented in Nevins Theater (in the Powell Campus Center) Friday, April 26 at 10 a.m.

The lecture is open to the public and free of charge, though registration is required.

The lecture is entitled "EXTREME PEOPLE - Seeking a Common Thread Among Risk-takers, Heroes, Leaders, Innovators, Entrepreneurs, Thrill Seekers, Delinquents, and More."

Dr. Farley will discuss the nature of risk-taking, both positive and negative, including heroism, creativity, and other topics. He will suggest how various kinds of risk-taking behavior may be linked, as well as their role in child and adolescent development.

Dr. Farley asserts that to understand American society requires an understanding of how risk-taking qualities underlie its enormous creativity on the one hand, and its high-crime rate on the other. He will make recommendations for delinquency and violence reduction, education, healthy child-rearing and family practices, the happy life, and more.

Elaine Romanelli - Singer/Songwriter with a Celtic Flair

Concert: Elaine Romanelli - Singer/Songwriter with a Celtic Flair
Thursday, April 4, 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

Elaine's clear voice, sassy spirit, and earthy songwriting meld songs about doubt, love, and endurance. Her songs connect with a Celtic lilt as she sings a combination of her original songs and Celtic favorites. Her singing is directly like Alison Kraus and Ingrid Michaelson and her songwriting heartfelt, like Dar Williams and Joni Mitchell.

At concerts, Elaine gets high marks for her funny stories and high-energy performances. Acoustic Guitar writer Drew Pearce says Elaine has "A Powerhouse Voice." San Francisco Weekly calls her "A strong presence."

She will be playing the Auditorium's refurbished Steinway piano. Check out her website at www.elaineromanelli.com.

This library-sponsored concert is free and open to the general public.
