Statement from President Edmondson

To paraphrase Mark Twain, "The rumors of my departure (as Alfred University president) are greatly exaggerated."

The Job Alerts email newsletter produced by the Chronicle of Higher Education April 30 erroneously advertised a presidential search at Alfred University. I want to emphasize that I am not resigning, retiring or otherwise leaving my position as president of Alfred University. Individuals may be reassured or in some cases disappointed by this clarification.

The need for clarification is greatest at the Chronicle, though. Alfred State College is searching for a president, and the Chronicle apparently thought that Alfred State and Alfred University are the same institution.

We have asked the Chronicle to correct the headline, and to publish a retraction. While this error is simply amusing to most, its potential impact on recruiting personnel and fundraising are not funny.

Commencement Speaker Announced

I am pleased to announce this year's Commencement speaker will be Alfred University alumnus and former trustee Robert H. Benmosche.

Mr. Benmosche, a 1966 graduate with a degree in mathematics and now chief executive officer of American International Group Incorporated (AIG), will deliver the commencement address and receive an honorary Doctor of Business degree during our annual commencement exercises, scheduled for 10 a.m. Saturday, May 18, at McLane Center on the AU campus.

Mr. Benmosche has an extraordinary reputation as a person who can turn a company around. First, he is credited with rescuing MetLife, and taking it public, and then he was called out of retirement to lead AIG back to solvency after the crisis of 2008.

The University will also bestow an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters on Peter Cuneo, a 1967 alumnus of Alfred University who is completing his second three-year term as chairman of the AU Board of Trustees. Like Benmosche, Mr. Cuneo is also regarded as a rescuer of failing corporations, including Marvel Comics, which he took from a struggling publisher of comic books to an entertainment company worth billions.

Volunteers Needed for Thursday!

Volunteers are needed for Children and Youth Learning Initiative programs! Children and Youth Learning Initiative is a program where every week area middle and high school students are brought to campus for hands-on educational programming that focuses on encouraging students to attend college. This is also a great opportunity for future educators to interact with students in a learning environment before you get into the classroom.

On Thursday there will be a kids-to-college event from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. This event will show students different things Alfred University has to offer. If you volunteer for this program you will just have to walk students from building to building where another volunteer will explain the different classes that take place there. If you are interested please email CYLI@alfred.edu

If you have any further questions about volunteering for this programs feel free to email me at CYLI@alfred.edu

'Faculties of Solace'

Saturday, May 4

Time: 5-9 P.M.

Location: The Belfry, 406 Canisteo St., Hornel

Cost to Attend: Free

"Faculties of Solace" is a group exhibition, featuring new work by Chris Taylor, Mahlon Huston, and Shawn Murrey curated by Ian McMahon at the Belfry in Hornell.

A "studio" can be quite disparate from artist to artist; it is an arena taking many shapes and forms. It becomes a place to corral ideas, develop, explore, uncover, turn over, and create. Perhaps it is a specific location or just a state of mind; a mental platform that is climbed upon to ponder, question, and reexamine.

Although specific studio practice is quite varied for these three artists there is a paralleling quest, quandary and aptitude that occurs within their handling of material. The art of crafting, tooling, and working materials becomes not just a means to create but a mental and physical retreat, a place in which doubt, pain, and pleasure can move out of the mind through the shoulders, arms, and hands eventually passing through the fingers into tool and material.

"Faculties of Solace" consists of three new works exhibited in the sanctuary of what was once a Methodist church. The building and its original functions came to light as an appropriate, and in turn influential, subject and setting for new sculptures inspired by the conversation surrounding the composition of making. Not unlike religion, the transformation of material by the hand becomes a ritual within which there is room for reflection. Faculties within craft become mechanisms for investigation. Making becomes a place of solace.

The Belfry will be a stop on the Hornell Arts Walk. Shuttle buses will be running from the Hornell Community Arts Center located on Center St. parking lot (down from Paddy's Pub)

The Belfry is also open by appointment, contact: underthebelfry@gmail.com

Bergren Forum - 'Physics of Snowboarding'

The Bergren Forum sponsored by the Division of Human Studies and the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences will be meeting at 12:10 P.M. on Thursday, May 2 in the Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center

Bring a brown bag lunch; coffee and tea will be provided.

Speaker: David DeGraff
Topic: "The Physics of Snowboarding"

Physics is the study of objects in motion, so wouldn't learning physics be more fun if the object in motion is your own body? iPhones have sensors that measure acceleration and rotation, so we can measure the acceleration down a slope or carving turns at high speed.

Flying off jumps is a form of projectile motion. Is snowboarding (or skiing) with an iPhone a good way to learn physics? Does looking at the physics of the sport improve your abilities?

Come find out the results of this experiment in teaching physics the most dynamic way possible from Professor of Physics David DeGraff.

Multiple Sclerosis Walk 2013 - The Grey DOES Matter - Please Read

It is time for everyone touched by MS to share information and raise awareness about multiple sclerosis.

I will be walking in Walk MS 2013 in Wellsville on Sunday, May 5, 2013. Please use the link below to make a donation to the National MS Society for me and my team, 50 Shades of Grey Matter.

I have personally seen what the National MS Society has done and will do for local people suffering from MS. They will pay for the uninsured person's medication if needed, they provide transportation to and from appointments, they provide free workshops, (I have attended a yoga for people with limitations workshop, and a managing MS pain workshop) they have even offered to remodel one woman's bathroom so she will be able to get into her shower.

If a person with MS needs anything, all you have to do is call them and they will be there to provide help and support.

You can also join the team to walk with me on May 5 or you can start your own team. Sign up, pledge, donate. MS needs a cure. The grey DOES matter!

Children's Literature Exhibit at Alfred State

A Children's Literature exhibit is on display at the Hinkle Memorial Library Gallery at Alfred State College through Sunday, May 5.

Hinkle Librarian Barbara Greil and Instructional Support Assistant Jenny Hillenbrand organized this exhibit in celebration of National Library Week, April 14-20. Contacting local and regional artists, authors and illustrators, as well as faculty and staff from both Alfred State College and Alfred University, they have brought together a wide variety of work, highlighting the importance of libraries, reading, literature, and learning.

The exhibit includes custom-made American Library Association READ Posters featuring Alfred State College "celebrities" posing with their favorite books, designed and created by Hillenbrand.

Also featured are an extensive collection of ingenious children's pop-up books, on loan from Alfred University professor and artist Anne Currier. Alfred State College faculty member Janice Stafford, who teaches a popular course on children's literature, has lent an original numbered print from the first Harry Potter book; a signed and numbered print by author/illustrator Mo Willem's Caldecott Honor book "Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus"; as well as an original collage by Bryan Collier, an award-winning author and illustrator.

Susan Beckhorn, Suzanne Valentine, and Marsha Hayles, members of RACWI (Rochester Area Children's Writers and Illustrators) have contributed original Illustrations, poetry, books, inspirational objects, and educational materials.

Help us celebrate National Library Week as well as the art and influence of children's literature!

For information on visitor parking and library hours consult the Hinkle Library web page at <http://www.alfredstate.ed...> If you would like to inquire about use of the gallery please email HillenJB@alfredstate.edu.

Project Management Certification Program

The Project Management Certification Program will be offered July 9 - 12, 2013 in Albany, on the University of Albany campus. Project management professionals, business and technology professionals, students, and educators are invited to register at the Institute of Project Management America website.

The PMC is designed for those seeking professional project management certification. It serves as both a thorough professional education and recognized certification. Those seeking additional credentials such as the PMP/PgMP, PMI-SP, and PMI-RMP will benefit from this dynamic and interactive work session, while those currently holding credentials will find the certification to be an enhancement as well as the most up to date advanced professional development.

Project Management Certification program provides 36 hours of project management education, meeting education requirements for both PMI's Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM) and Project Management Professional (PMP) certifications.

Additionally, the Master Certification provides 36 Professional Development Units (PDUs) for current holders of PMP/PgMP, PMI-SP, and PMI-RMP credentials.

The program meets the education requirement for all professional designations through the Project Management Institute and other professional agencies. Additionally, the program awards 3.6 Continuing Education Units (CEUs) upon request.

Participants may reserve a seat online at the Institute of Project Management America website, by calling the Program Office toll-free at (888) 980 - 9697, or by sending their name and contact information via email to registrar@instituteofprojectmanagementamerica.org.

Upon receiving your registration, a confirmation email is sent to registrants that include session site information, travel information, program description, and details on how to confirm attendance and make payment arrangements.

Mama Earth's Kitchen believes that the Earth is our kitchen - we must take care of it and keep it clean so all creatures can have a healthy life! Susie will share fun songs and stories on gardening, bird watching, nature appreciation, fossil hunting, exercise, and more.

Come and join a band of recycled and world instruments! See her website at www.mamaearthkitchenband....

The library-sponsored program is free and open to the general public.
