Help AU Student Get Published

Erin Paterson is a senior at Alfred University and she's working on trying to publish her first novel, "PAPERCLIP."

She recently uploaded her manuscript to a Harper Collins' website known as Authonomy.com. This site enables the public to read unpublished works, rate, and review them. The higher the rating, the more attention it gets. The top five manuscripts every month move onto the Harper Collins' editor's desk to be published.

Please help your fellow student achieve her goals! All you have to do is go to the link provided below, and make an account with authonomy. From there you can review her work and add it to your "bookshelf." The more placements on a bookshelf, the higher in ranking her book will be. If you can't read it at the moment, that's fine too - pass the link to as many people as you can to help show her your support.

You can find the book, its summary, and all other information here:

<http://authonomy.com/book...>

Thank you for your help!

Foster Lake water level low for a reason

Foster Lake has lower than normal lake levels this year in order to facilitate maintenance of lake's dam system. The maintenance activities have been reviewed by a licensed engineer and are required by the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation. The timing of when lake levels will return to normal is weather dependent.
