Recycle Your Shoes to Help fFur-legged Friends

The Hornell Area Humane Society has a new way to raise some much-needed money and help those less fortunate at the same time. It's called Shoebox Recycling.

We will collect your old, worn, but not totally worn out, shoes and send them to Shoebox Recycling (<http://shoebboxrecycling.c...>). The shoes are then distributed to those in impoverished countries. You can even write a note to accompany your shoes and find your "Sole Mate," the person on the receiving end of your donation! In exchange, the shelter will receive money for every pound of shoes sent in. Shipping is even prepaid by Shoebox Recycling!

There is absolutely no cost to the shelter. Gayle Gebhard is heading up this effort and a box will be near her office on the 4th floor of Olin, as well as at the Hornell animal shelter on Industrial Road in Hornell.

For more information, email her at Gebhard@alfred.edu.
