Alfred Today Training Sessions Please Attend

The Alfred Today administrators will host two training sessions for all users - Tuesday, Jan. 22 and Wednesday, Jan. 23. Both sessions will be at noon in the Banner Training Room, Howell Hall.

You will learn how to:

- 1) Eliminate confusion of what is an "event" and what is an "announcement"
- 2) How to determine whether to include students in your message
- 3) Understand the difference between an Alfred Today announcement and an Our.alfred.edu

announcement

4) Place things on the calendar, months in advance

NY investigating study-abroad programs at 15 colleges

By LARRY NEUMEISTER | Associated Press Writer
11:26 PM EST, January 21, 2008

NEW YORK - Study-abroad programs at 15 colleges and universities including Harvard and Columbia are being scrutinized by the New York attorney general's office to ensure cozy deals between schools and companies that provide the programs are not cheating students, a top investigator said Monday. Benjamin Lawsky, deputy counselor and special assistant to Attorney General Andrew M. Cuomo, said prosecutors are focusing on the schools after a probe of more than a dozen companies worldwide that arrange for students to study abroad for up to a year identified questionable practices.
