Art History Candidate Presentation

"The Nude, the Vessel, and the Nation: Modern Ceramics According to Tomimoto Kenkichi," a lecture by Meghan Jones

Date: Tuesday, Feb. 18

Time: 5:30 - 6:30 P.M.

Location: Room C, Binns-Merrill

Cost to Attend: Free/Open to Public

Sponsored By: School of Art & Design

Widely acclaimed as Japan's modern ceramics pioneer, Tomimoto Kenkichi (1886-1963) championed expression of the self and radicalized the ways in which ceramics were created, exhibited, and perceived as works of art. This talk will focus on Tomimoto's porcelain and praxis of the 1920s-1950s in order to explore the central tensions in the history of modern ceramics between subjectivity, modernism, and cultural production.

WALF Notice

On May 24, 2006, WALF was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until June 1, 2014.

Our license will expire on June 1, 2014. We filed an application for license renewal with the FCC on Feb. 12, 2014. A copy of this application is available for inspection during our regular business hours.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application, and to whether this station has operated in the public interest, should file comments and petitions with the FCC by May 1, 2014.

Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at WALF's studios, 1st floor of the Powell Campus Center, 1 Saxon Drive, Alfred NY 14802 or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554, www.fcc.gov.
