Math Talk: Kelly Kirtland 'Evading Unseen Influence'

"Evading Unseen Influence"

Outliers are common problems in statistical analyses, but detection is not straightforward; standard estimators tend to reflect outlying behavior, making outliers appear typical.

In this talk, I will introduce principal component analysis (PCA), explain its mathematical underpinnings, and describe how it may be utilized to obtain robust estimators independent of outlying influence.

This talk is intended for an audience with a basic understanding of matrix and vector algebra.

Kelly Kirtland will be giving a Research Talk on Tuesday April 15 in Myer's Hall room 334 at 1:20 p.m.

Did you know that there was an actual "National Walk at Work Day"? Well there is and it is April 30.

This year why don't you and the rest of your colleagues plan to take a walk around our beautiful campus during the lunch hour? Hopefully winter will be just an un-fond memory by then and we might even have a few early May flowers to sniff as we wind down from the hectic semester and look forward to our beautiful summer weather.

Green Tip of the Week

Compost - composting food scraps can reduce their climate impact while also recycling their nutrients. Food makes up almost 13 percent of the U.S. waste stream, but a much higher percent of landfill-caused methane.

There are many compost drop offs on our campus. You could create a compost bin in your office/department! Contact Autumn McLain for assistance.

Contemporary Cut-Paper by Mia Pearlman, Kako Ueda, Alta Buden, Natasha Bowdoin and Hong Seon Jang

Date: March 21 - May 17

Location: Cohen Gallery

Alfred, NY - Alfred University's Cohen Gallery is pleased to announce its upcoming exhibition, Pulp, curated by Alexis Grabowski (08'). Pulp is a group exhibition bringing together contemporary artists working with cut, collaged and assembled paper, including Mia Pearlman, Kako Ueda, Natasha Bowdoin, Alta Buden and Hong Seon Jang. These artists, through tedious artistic labor, create intricate and often surreal articulations - ranging from eroded geologic forms and weather systems to elaborate traditional paper-cuts depicting corporeal forms, insects and urban life.

Together, the works in Pulp explore the improbable spectrum of possibilities offered by one of the most common staples of artistic production - to be broken down and transformed anew. The exhibition illuminates the flickering dimensionality and solidity of paper-media and the process of artistic production through deconstruction.

Gallery hours are Tuesdays 10 a.m. - 3 p.m., Wednesdays and Thursdays noon - 5 p.m. For more information please contact stein@alfred.edu stein@alfred.edu.
