Faculty/Staff Invited to Join Choruses at AU

This semester will bring a special opportunity for singers. The usual format for choruses at AU is being changed just for this fall semester. Director Luanne Crosby will be having two choruses: a women's chorus and a men's chorus.

The Women's Chorus will focus on works composed by women for women's voices. Faculty and staff are invited to attend rehearsal on Thursday from 7-8:30 p.m., starting Sept. 4. The concert for the women's group will be on Nov. 22.

The Men's Chorus, or Saxon Singers, will perform along with two invited male choirs. Former AU Gospel Choir Leader, football player, actor and comic Chaz Bruce, currently teaching at the University Prep Charter School for Young Men in Rochester, NY, and Kent Knappenberger, first recipient of a Grammy for Music Educator and vocal director in Westfield, NY, will bring their male voices to join together for a spectacular Festival of Men's Voice on Nov. 1.

The combining of all those voices will be an experience not to be missed. Faculty/staff members of the Saxon Singers are invited to come on Monday 7-8:30 p.m., starting on Sept. 1 or 8.

Both choirs will rehearse in the choral room in the new section of the Miller Performing Arts Center. For more information contact Luanne Crosby at fclarke@alfred.edu

Breakfast Roundtables

Each semester Student Affairs staff offers a few breakfast roundtables to share results from various assessment projects. These are open to all students, faculty and staff. Bring breakfast or grab it at Art Spot and join us in the Knight's Den for any of these sessions. Come join us!

This semester's dates and topics are:

Wednesday, Sept. 17, 8:30-9:30 a.m.

"Beacon and Eggs" - a look at our incoming, first-year class using Beacon data, a review of last year's results from our early alert system, and a discussion of ideas to continue improving our early alert process.

Thursday, Oct. 9, 8:30-9:30 a.m.

Culture of Assessment in Student Affairs - come hear an overview of our learning outcomes throughout the division including athletics, student involvement, career development, residence life, women's leadership, and more.

Monday, Nov. 17, 8:30-9:30 a.m.

AlcoholWise - We'll share the results from a survey of incoming, first-year students regarding alcohol use, which also includes an educational module on sexual violence prevention.

Register to Vote

Alfred University stands behind the idea that we all benefit when a greater share of Americans register and vote. This year there will be an important general election on Nov. 4, 2014. If you are not already registered to vote, please consider doing so now.

Alfred University students have a choice of registering and voting right here in Allegany County (if you have been a resident in your present address for at least 30 days before the election) or voting by absentee ballot in your home county or state. The choice is yours, but please plan to register and vote on Nov. 4.

You can download the registration form and get more information about voting in New York State, including instructions on how to vote by absentee ballot, at this Web site maintained by the NYS Board of Elections: www.elections.ny.gov.

Please make sure that to register to vote, you must complete the form, print it out, sign it, and mail it to the county's Board of Elections. It must be postmarked by Oct. 10.

To request an absentee ballot for New York State, go to <http://www.elections.ny.gov>... That form needs to be post marked by Oct. 30 to vote in this November's election.

For information about other states' registration deadlines and absentee ballot request deadlines you can visit www.canivote.org or www.turbovote.org.

Author Visit: Archer Mayor

Tuesday, Sept. 16 at 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

Mark your calendars for a program presented by Archer Mayor, a New York Times bestselling author.

Author of the critically acclaimed series of mysteries starring Joe Gunther, Mayor will be at the Nancy Howe Auditorium to do a reading from his latest book and discuss his writing process.

Mayor began his series in 1988 with his well-received introduction to "Joe Gunther, Open Season." Referred to by the Chicago Tribune as "the best police procedurals being written in America," Mayor's series remains popular with readers who are eagerly awaiting Joe Gunther's return.

The library-sponsored program is free and open to the general public.
