Artist & Activist Jeff Sheng on Campus Wednesday

9:20 A.M., 12:20 P.M., & 3:20 P.M., NEVINS THEATER

Jeff Sheng is an artist and sociologist widely known for two powerful photo series. His "Fearless" series featured "out" LGBT athletes on high school and college sports teams. His acclaimed 2010 "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" series featured closeted service members in the U.S. military affected by the discriminatory policy.

Jeff Sheng's exhibit is currently on display in the McLane Center.

9:20 A.M. - Art Talk to Foundations (public welcome)

12:20 A.M. - Career Talk (open to everyone)
3:20 P.M. - Activism Talk for Drawn to Diversity Class (public welcome)

'Parallel Frequencies'

"Parallel Frequencies"

Jan. 30 - Feb. 26, 2015

Career Panel: Thursday, Jan. 29

Time: 6-7 P.M.

Location: Binns-Merrill Hall, Room 106 (C)

Cost to Attend: Free/Open to the Public

Sponsored by: The Career Development Center and the Division of Sculpture/Dimensional Studies

Open Reception: Friday, Jan. 30

Time: 5-7 P.M.

Location: Cohen Gallery

Gallery Hours: Tuesday - Thursday 11 a.m.-5 p.m.

Cost to Attend: Free/Open to the Public

The Cohen Gallery, School of Art and Design, Alfred University, will be showing Parallel Frequencies, an exhibition of six glass artists- Robin Cass, Kait Rhoads, Amie McNeel, Rachel Moore, Jackie Pancari, and Norwood Viviano. These artists were the 2014 Hauberg Fellows at the renowned Pilchuck Glass School in Washington State. This fellowship at Pilchuck allowed each artist in residence to discover and experience common issues related to pattern, scale, science and natural phenomena while exploring collaborative practices.

The Cohen Gallery seeks to create opportunities for students, faculty, and alumni to engage in the professional activities of curating and organizing art exhibitions from the ground up, thus providing valuable experience in the business aspects of art.

The gallery provides a supportive environment for exhibitions that serve regional constituencies, such as regional arts councils, public schools, and exchanges between regional art programs at the university level.

The Cohen Center for The Arts was created with a gift from University Trustee Michele and Martin Cohen, parents of Adam Cohen, AU Class of 2003. Contact director, Kala Stein, for more information. stein@alfred.edu

Luftwerk Artist Talk

in Collaboration with "As the Air Moves Back From You"

Date: Thursday, Jan. 29

Time: 4:30 p.m.

Location: Holmes Auditorium

Cost to Attend: Free/Open to the Public

Luftwerk is the creative vision of Petra Bachmaier and Sean Gallero. For more than 10 years, Luftwerk have created art installations that merge elements of light and video with facets of architecture and design.

Their 2010 commission to create a new media exhibit for the centennial celebration of Frank Lloyd Wright's Robie House helped them discover a deeper resonance with architecture and pursue a growing interest in how experiences of space and site are augmented through light and sound.

Their projects blend history and contemporary media with public spaces and landmark structures, opening a new aesthetic conversation. Their work has been exhibited in locations as diverse as MASS MoCA, Cloudgate, JFK Airport, Emirates Palace, Frank Lloyd Wright's Fallingwater and Robie House.

Visit the Fosdick Nelson Gallery website for more information regarding the performances and special events accompanying this four-week exhibition, "As the Air Moves Back From You."

Open Reception with Sculptural Performance

"As the Air Moves Back From You"

Date: Friday, Jan. 30

Time: 7-9 P.M.

Location: Fosdick Nelson Gallery

Cost to Attend: Free/Open to the Public

The Fosdick-Nelson Gallery is proud to present a performance installation created by D. Chase Angier of Angier Performance Works, in collaboration with Luftwerk, The Tiffany Mills Company, Kristi Spessard, Laurel Jay Carpenter, The Alfred Performers, Andrew Deutsch, John Laprade and Marketa Fantova.

Each week is a new experience, intricately interweaving 8,000 pounds of rice, evocative movement and sensuous designs into slowly shifting landscapes.

Visit the Fosdick-Nelson Gallery website for more information regarding performances and special events accompanying this four week exhibition.

Calling All Alumnae Athletes!

Alfred University plans to highlight the role that the athletic experience played in women's lives at AU and beyond. We are looking for stories and photos that illustrate the experience of women athletes at AU throughout the decades. This is a collaborative effort among AU's Student Affairs, Athletics, Archives, and University Relations divisions. Plans include an online timeline and memory book, and will culminate in celebratory events at Homecoming 2015.

The recently concluded ScoreOne Campaign, and the dedication of Harrington Park in honor of Doris Harrington, a former physical education department chair who helped usher women's sports into AU in the 1970s, brought renewed attention to the history of women's athletics at AU. We want to know more! (see <http://www.alfred.edu/pre...>)

To inform and give life to all of this, we hope you will share your stories and photos with us. Please contact Anne Cornell at cornella@alfred.edu with your stories, comments and questions.
