Free For The Taking - Toner Cartridges!

We have somehow ended up with 3 different toner cartridges that don't fit any of our printers. At the price of these, it is a shame to just re-cycle; hopefully an office out there has a printer that one of these will fit!

Sin Qua Non: A Performance/Installation

by Brett Sroka and Jeremiah Cymerman

Date: Wednesday, April 1st

Time: 7:00PM

Location: Robert C. Turner Gallery

Cost to Attend: Free

Sponsored by Committee or Division: The Institute for Electronic Arts and the Division of Expanded Media

The IEA is pleased to present Sine Qua Non, an improvisational performance between Brett Sroka and Jeremiah Cymerman, a clarinetist who will be accompanying Sroka for this performance.

Developed by Sroka at the Institute for Electronic Arts and the Vilnius Academy of Art - Nida Art Colony in Lithuania, Sine Qua Non is an improvisational dialog between a musician and Sroka. Cymerman's performance will be sampled and processed live by Sroka, becoming his own accompaniment, continuing through electronic abstraction and acoustic response. As the performance concludes the sampled fragments slowly take over, and continue to evolve through generative processing.

Join us April 1st, 2015 in the Robert C. Turner Gallery at 7:00 pm for the performance and discussion of the work. The piece will continue as an installation in the Immersive Gallery until April 4th, open during normal gallery hours.

More information and samples of this performance be found on Sroka's website:

IEA Visiting Artist: Brett Sroka

Date: March 30 - April 3

Location: The Institute for Electronic Arts at the School of Art and Design of the New York State College of Ceramics

Cost to Attend: free

Sponsored by Committee or Division: The Institute for Electronic Arts and the Division of Expanded Media

Brett Sroka, of Brooklyn, NY, will be visiting the Institute for Electronic Arts as part of the artist in residence program the week of March 30th. Graduate of the Manhattan School of Music, Sroka leads the minimalist, electro-acoustic band Ergo and collaborates with Yuko Pepe as part of the musician duo Cherubim, along with many solo projects as a composer, musician, and sound artist for film, dance, installation, and has released five records across his many projects.

Over the course of his residency, Sroka will be developing a sound installation entitled "Syllable from Sound". Integrating the voices of it's visitors into and organic, pulsating sonic amalgam, "Syllable of Sound" would see a space with a microphone and speaker placed in each corner of the room. Visitors are invited to speak, sing, whistle, etc. into any microphone, where a Max/MSP patch will sample these sounds as a new element of the sonic installation. These sounds will be processed in Max/MSP to the point of being only barely recognizable. Every time a new recording is made the prior will be replaces, creating an ever-evolving sonic experience.

More information and Sroka's work can be found on his website: <http://www.brettsroka.com...>

The Institute for Electronic Art's Visiting Artist Program is sponsored in part by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature.
