The CYLI is a grant funded program designed to provide hands-on learning experiences and encourage Allegany County youth to consider attending college during the frequent 'field days' that brings kids to AU to participate in campus life. The CYLI is always looking for volunteers. students interested in helping out can contact CYLI@alfred.edu; faculty or staff interested in becoming a presenter should contact CYLI coordinator Chris Romanchock at ROMANCHOCKC@alfred.edu.

Please note the following information regarding the Employer Center at the upcoming MS&T Conference.

Here are the basics from the job seeker side:

- * It's free.
- * Job seekers complete a basic employment form and attach their resume, both of which are filed on the basis of highest degree completed or in progress, in a loose-leaf binder for review by prospective employers.
