Bergren Forum - 'Limitations of Civil Resistance'

The Bergren Forum sponsored by the Division of Human Studies, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and the Provost's Office will be meeting on Thursday November 5th at 12:10 PM in the Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center.

Bring a brown bag lunch' coffee and tea will be provided.

Speaker: Barry Gan

Topic: "The Limitations of Civil Resistance: A Critique of Nonviolence as a Political Tool"

The concept of civil resistance as practiced, for example, in the Arab Spring, presumes the notion of a large-scale struggle as a means to topple dictators. But such a change merely in power at the top means no real change in the institutional structures that oppress people in the first place.

Meaningful change requires a longer-term approach directed at changing the mind-sets of the masses of people and at changing institutions, not necessarily the officials in those institutions.

In the end, it is a continuous development of new understandings of power, wielded from the bottom up, developed democratically, practiced over time, understood by many, that will change an oppressive culture.

Gallery Opening: 'Maschinenfabrik' and 'Ink All Over The Goddam Carpet'

Date: Friday, Nov. 6
Time: 7-8:30 p.m.
Location: Robert C. Turner Gallery
Cost to Attend: free

This weekend brings two exhibition openings at the Robert C. Turner Gallery on Friday 11/6. "Maschinenfabrik" on the main floor of the gallery praises the art of printmaking and all of the technical processes behind the amazing production of prints.

Upstairs on the catwalk, "Ink All over the Goddam Carpet" pairs nicely with the main floor exhibit, also exclusively displaying print work made by the Alfred University Printmaking Club.

The gallery opening for these shows begins at 7 p.m. on Friday evening and closes at 8:30, but both shows will be open from 11 a.m. - 4 p.m. on Monday-Friday the following week (11/9-11/13).

Be sure to come down and check out these two fantastic print exhibitions!

Visiting Artist Lecture in Painting: Van Hanos

Date: Wednesday, Nov. 11

Time: 5-6 p.m.

Location: Holmes Auditorium, Harder Hall

Cost to Attend Event: free

Sponsored by Committee or Division: Division of Drawing, Painting and Photography

"Hanos' approach to painting is valued on difference; one work may be hyperreal - a historical rendition of painting tradition - while another may be an amalgamation of styles stretching from pre-Raphaelite to the editing techniques of Photoshop. Placed in direct dialogue with each other, neither is privileged and neither is employed ironically or in parody. Hanos' range of approaches is held to the same principles that Hanos values not only in painting, but also in his view of life and the images that fill it." - Tanya Leighton Gallery. Van Hanos, Not The Way [Press Release]. (2014).

<http://www.tanyaleighton....>

Van Hanos (b. 1979) lives and works in New York City. His work has been exhibited widely in New York, including Gavin Brown's Enterprise, PPOW Gallery, Harris Lieberman and Mitchell Innes & Nash, as well as internationally at Tanya Leighton Gallery, Berlin, Galleria Pianissimo, Milan and Gallery Poulsen, Copenhagen. Hanos has had solo exhibitions at West Street Gallery, New York and Retrospective, Hudson.

His work has been written about in The New York Times, Flash Art and Artforum, among other publications. He teaches painting at Columbia University. <http://www.tanyaleighton....>

Family Film: 'Meet the Robinsons' (2007) G

Saturday, Nov. 7 at 10:30 a.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

An orphaned boy, a science whiz, is whisked into the future in a time-travel vehicle. He meets a family like the family he has hoped would adopt him and mayhem ensues.

The 2007 animated film's voices include Daniel Hansen, Tom Selleck, Angela Bassett, and Laurie Metcalf. The film follows the Mad Science Party starting at 9:30 a.m. Although participants must sign up for the party in Youth Services because of limited space, all are welcome at the film at 10:30 a.m.

The library-sponsored film is free and open to the general public.
