Brief Cable TV Disruption

On Tuesday and Wednesday, March 1 and 2, ITS will be working to improve the cable TV signal across campus. As part of the testing and potential repair, cable TV service may be briefly disrupted.

We apologize for the disruption. We are hopeful that we can make some improvement to the overall quality of service.

Accounting for Time During Weather Closing

Employees are reminded that only "Essential Personnel" who were specifically called in to work during this week's weather closing will be paid for those hours actually worked.

If you reported to work, but were not required to do so, you must report the hours that you were here on your time sheet and will be paid only for those hours. If you were not required to be here but were already scheduled for vacation or were sick you must report your hours as vacation or sick.

If you were not "essential" and did not report to work you will record your time as "excused" and make a note in the comment section "Weather Day."

Supervisors must confirm with the Vice President or Provost for their area whether or not a person is considered "essential" before they approve time worked during the shutdown.

If you have any questions please contact the Payroll Office or Human Resources.

'Delicate Decisions: Jessica Detweiler and Luc Hammond-Thomas'

Exhibition March 2 - April 1, 2016

Location: Cohen Center Gallery 55 N. Main St., Alfred

Cost: N/A

"Delicate Decisions" is a two-person show featuring the functional ceramics of recent College of Ceramics graduates Luc Hammond-Thomas, Grinding Room Assistant, and Jess Detweiler.

In her work, Detweiler employs a playful attraction to form, volume, color, and elegance. The still-life, genre style display evokes fantasies about future domestic use.

Hammond-Thomas' work acts on the fundamental relationship between pottery and furniture, and how this pairing further expands each material's function. The work embraces the latent duality of functional objects as sculpture.

And the winner is - The Art Force Five!

After making their pitch before a panel of six judges, Alfred University's (AU) Art Force Five team was selected Wednesday evening to receive the $5,000 top prize in the Rochester (NY) Democrat & Chronicle's Unite Rochester Challenge.

The Art Force Five's project involves asking residents to help construct images about issues of inclusivity in Rochester. Each resident will paint a small tile to help create an important image or message alongside hundreds of others playing an equal part in the mosaic. The cash award will assist the group in implementing its project. The group is directed by Dan Napolitano, AU director of student activities. Earlier this winter, the Art Force Five project was selected from some 89 entries to be one of the 10 finalists.

View a video by a team member and read the Democrat & Chronicle article on the selection event by visiting: <http://www.democratandchr...#>

Take a look at a video made by AU student Noah Mitchell by visiting either <http://www.drawntodiversi...> or <https://youtu.be/sQi1Ybw...> .
