Bergren Forum - 'No More Mr. "Nice" Guy'

The Bergren Forum sponsored by the Division of Human Studies, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and the Provost's Office will be meeting at 12:10 P.M. Thursday, March 24 in Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center.

Bring a brown bag lunch; coffee and tea will be provided.

Speaker: Lydia Galarneau

Topic: "No More Mr. 'Nice' Guy: Male Entitlement and Character Archetypes"

Winner of Phi Beta Kappa Wit and Wisdom Competition, Lydia Galarneau will examine how characters and narratives of popular television shows such as "Buffy the Vampire Slayer," "Friends," and "How I Met Your Mother" can emphasize, normalize, and romanticize patriarchal values of male entitlement.

Learn Together Grow Together

Date: Saturday March 26
Time: 7 - 8:30 p.m.
Location: Robert C. Turner Gallery
Cost: N/A

Sponsored by: Marshaun Stapleton, Colton Wilhelm, and Marissa Sierra

An art exhibition showcasing the things we can achieve by following our educational endeavors wherever they may take us.

It is a forum for people to show the work that keeps them up at night, tells the story of what they have learned and how they have grown not as an artist but as a person.

It will be aimed to raise awareness and support for children who do not have educational resources and live in poverty so that they will have the tools they need to learn and grow in the pursuit of their passions.

'Delicate Decisions' at Cohen Gallery

"Delicate Decisions" is a two-person show featuring the functional ceramics of recent College of Ceramics graduates Luc Hammond-Thomas and Jess Detweiler.

In her work, Detweiler employs a playful attraction to form, volume, color, and elegance. The still-life, genre style display evokes fantasies about future domestic use.

Hammond-Thomas' work acts on the fundamental relationship between pottery and furniture, and how this pairing further expands each material's function. The work embraces the latent duality of functional objects as sculpture.

The Orientation Guides Want You!

Alfred University's Orientation program is designed to assist new students in becoming part of the AU community and to help them feel comfortable with academic and student life on campus.

In order to accomplish this, we rely on Orientation Guides (OG), a team of enthusiastic and knowledgeable AU students who want to make a difference for their peers. Being an OG is a volunteer position involving participation in training Aug. 22-24 and the Orientation program itself, Aug. 25-28.

Applications are due in the Center for Student Involvement, Powell Campus Center, by 4:30 p.m., Friday, April 1.
