

PRESIDENT'S OPENING ADDRESS

New Interests of College Life—Annual Trustee Meeting—Million Dollar Fund

Owing to the absence of President Davis on the first Wednesday after school opened, he was unable to give his opening address until last Assembly. But with it came a message of really greater importance to the College and students,—the resolutions of the Trustees for the coming year.

Pres. Davis explained to us that our task for the future was even more difficult than that of "Making the World Safe for Democracy." The younger men of college age had been the main material for the ranks—they answered the call in that instance—and nobly fulfilled their task. Now they were called upon for the bigger task of the future—that of removing the barbarism from individuals and nations and restoring civilization,—of creating stronger intellectual, spiritual and moral forces. This is the work now set for the college man and woman. College requirements will be rather elastic for some time, that the returned soldier may have better opportunity for renewing his studies.

There are changes,—a tendency to make the student interested in his courses by more experimental and practical work, instead of becoming educated by a thorough knowledge of the classics. Religious and social activities are being stimulated, and a broader outlook of life taught. The student should take advantage of these opportunities and each do his share toward readjustment.

The resolutions of the Trustees seemed to us as important but in a more material way. There is a contributory plan of old age annuities offered by the Teacher's Insurance and Annuity Association, by which if a member of the Alfred University staff enters into the annuity plan and contributes so much each year, shall, in at least ten years be entitled to retire on half-pay. The University is to raise $100,000 for this purpose. Then there was a resolution passed for raising a fund of one million dollars for increasing the endowments and equipment of the college. They are as follows:

Endowment to provide retiring allowances .....	$ 100,000
Endowment for increase of salaries .....	150,000
Endowment for the President's Chair .....	75,000
Endowment for four professorships now without endowment—
English .....	50,000
Romance Languages.....	50,000
Chemistry .....	50,000
Biology .....	50,000
Endowment for Library Fund.....	50,000
Endowment for fifty new scholarships .....	50,000
Endowment for general purposes .....	50,000
Building and equipment:
Heating and lighting plant.....	50,000
Gymnasium .....	50,000
Science Laboratory.....	100,000
Auditorium .....	100,000
Miscellaneous, building improvement and equipment.....	25,000
Total .....	$1,000,000

While such an undertaking will take unlimited time and energy, it is sure to materialize. And we can easily see where the Alfred student of the future will be benefited beyond realization perhaps, by the ardent efforts of our present administration.

PRESIDENT DAVIS

President Boothe C. Davis begins the 25th year of his position as President of Alfred University with this session. He began his "reign" long before most of us were born and it's rather hard to realize just what a man in such an office has run up against in that length of time. His place is a hard one, but he has filled it most admirably by his faithful and diplomatic efforts. He has been held between the two factors,—students and college, and its not a few times that the ideas of the students have progressed faster and more radical than the school, and the temperments clash. But under Pres. Davis' personality the results have been the best for both. And we wish to express our appreciation toward what he has done to make Alfred for us as it is, and to wish him the pleasantest kind of a future and success.

A PLEA

There's a semi-old custom which has been abandoned recently on account of the turmoil of things—and which we think would be more satisfactory if reinaugurated. That is the assigning of seats in Assembly. There would be no argument then as to whether one class could sit in the middle of some other class merely because they got there first.

AN UPPERCLASSMAN.

FROSH RECEPTION

On the evening of September 25th, the Y. M. and Y. W. opened their doors to the student body of Alfred. The annual Frosh reception was given in the Brick this year and little did it remind us of the Brick (spelled Barracks) of last year. The halls and "deception" rooms were trimmed with the many colored foliage of our autumn hills. We had an orchestra too—which might be called the "College Orchestra" if it was game.

The usual reception line being passed over, the evening's entertainment was opened with a solo by Ruth Phillips with Prof. Wingate at the piano. Mr. Vossler rendered a very amusing monologue. Miss Law, president of the Y. W. C. A., spoke a word of welcome, as did Mr. Pollock, the Y. M. president. A short greeting was spoken by President Davis, in which he heartily commended the Associations to everyone. The party then broke up into classes and they spent some time in yelling. They departed with the strains of the Alma Mater still ringing in their ears.

President Davis is to leave for New York, Tuesday on business. Later in the week he will attend the State University Convocation at Albany. We feel much pride in learning that Pres. Davis is president of the Association of Colleges of New York State.

FOOTBALL

We were to have a practice game Friday but we didn't. And we don't know why either, unless it was because it rained. But the boys need the practice and some good, heavy scrimmage, if they're going to buck a team worth while. Now if everyone had been wild to see a game, they'd undoubtedly have seen one. But there were many of us, who wanted to watch, but grew shy when told there weren't enough men for two teams. And if the whole school had turned out bound on seeing a game we're sure the Coach wouldn't have disappointed us.

There has been a little better turn out since the mass meeting. But, if coming the way they have been, we would have to have "Mass" every night in the week to get enough material for a real winning team. The Witters are coming Wednesday, it's rumored, and then we'll really be starting, so go get a uniform and march in the line-up that greets them.

MASS MEETING

The first mass meeting of the year was held last Wednesday night in Ag Hall. Athletics in Alfred suffered greatly during the war—football especially, but we are again in the game and the old football spirit is being revived. The meeting started off with several rousing songs. The girls introduced a new one and it's some song too.

After the singing, Cheerleader Reid took charge of the meeting and undertook the task of teaching the new students the Alfred yells. Several of the members of team gave short talks. Prof. Bole showed his interest in football by "cutting" faculty meeting to come to "mass". He gave a stirring appeal for the players to do their best and make a winning team and for the rest of the students to get behind them and help boost.

Several more cheers were given, then we all departed, singing. We hope that it will be possible to hold another within a few days. "Alfred men are all victorious," so get out and cheer and help them along.

"THE MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY"

Skeptical students are inclined to call the proposed resolutions of the trustees a mystery. And little do they realize the seriousness and the probability of such a "mystical fact." But being students they may feel partially justified, but it's a poor spirit. But we might say that the trustees have gone a long way toward their goal already and soon we won't consider it a mystery, but a very valuable change made for our benefit.

STUDENT SENATE

The third regular meeting was held Oct. 6. Procs were voted a victory for the Sophs—four having been undiscovered. The following were voted disqualified for class contests by Art. III, Sec. 1, of the Campus rules: R. Boyd, M. Burdick, M. Compton, H. Holmes, L. Smith. The following were reminded that they must participate with the Freshmen: S. Banks, A. Whitford. Suggestion was made to speak to Freshman class concerning a representative.

AG SCHOOL OPENS

REPORT OF BUSINESS MANAGER FOR 1918-19

Financially the year 1918-19 was, in most ways, a failure as regards the Fiat Lux. At the lengthening of the College year it was thought best to discontinue publication of the Fiat during the year due to existing conditions, but later a decision was reached whereby it was found advisable to publish the paper every three weeks, cutting the advertising and subscription prices in half, thereby making up the deficit caused by not having the usual Fiat Fair, and so keep the paper an institution at Alfred regardless of war conditions. This plan would have worked very well and would have left a small balance to start the coming year but with the signing of the Armistice and the return of the college to its former sphere the publication was increased to an issue every two weeks with no increase in subscription price and advertising rates. Naturally this increased the cost of production by one-half but did not increase the revenue so that, at the end of the college year the Fiat is in debt to the amount of $66.44 as described below:

CERAMIC SOCIETY

The first meeting of the New York State Students Branch of the American Ceramic Society will be held in the lecture room on the first floor of the Ceramic School at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening the 14th of October. Officers will be elected and the object of the society at Alfred explained for the benefit of new members. Reports on summer work will also be read by several of the senior students. Freshmen entered in the Ceramic Engineering course are especially urged to attend the meeting.

Klan Alpine held an Alpine tournament on Oct. 6th, at which they hailed the following members: Walt King, Carl Mitchell, Eugene Eagle, James Board, Bernard Bowman and Irwin Conroe.

The State School of Agriculture opened its doors last Wednesday to its students. The registration was no larger than usual, there being 35 upperclassmen and 55 freshmen. The spirit manifested by the students, both new and old, contained more of the real school spirit. And the new students look to the outsider like real honest workers—not the type that come here just because they'll be "going to a University" or to get away from home restrictions.

The arrival of peace, and with it the high cost of living, has elevated the position of the farmer from his place as a "toiler of the land" and has given him opportunities not offered in any other line of work.

The stimulating of home industries and the relying on the material already in the country, rather than on imports, has given the farmer the foremost position in feeding and clothing our country. Then too, farming is getting to a point where it isn't a question of toil by the hand, but of the brain. More work is being done each year by machinery.

We outsiders can't help but see the opportunities of a healthful outdoor life with good, clean hard work that the farm offers. And we should support and urge on the young men who will some day be furnishing us with our necessary food and clothing.

MRS. DE LIMINANA

Another addition to the Faculty has been made in the person of Mrs. Marie de Liminana. Mrs. de Liminana is of French decent but spent six years of teaching in Central America as principal of the Normal School at San Salvador. Besides teaching in Paris, she has had several years of experience in and around New York. She is highly recommended to us by Cortina, of whom all Spanish students have heard, and by the numerous other educators by whom she was employed, and we expect the Spanish courses to be different from usual, by the instructing of a person whose knowledge of the Spaniard is so much more direct.

SENIOR WEINER ROAST

The seniors planned a weiner roast for Thursday night at Lover's Lane. The weather man planned rain for the same time and place. Strange how plans often coincide. Did these plans harmonize? Say, do cows eat grass? The moon, however, was kind enough to throw light on the grave old seniors at times. "Peter" Pollock and "Nick" Carter had the fire started and soon everyone was busy manufacturing "hot dogs." Did you ever try to roast weiners on a stick with the smoke blowing in your eyes? Did you feel dignified? Neither did we. Of course we sang all the old songs and all the new ones and yelled some besides! We were very glad to have Miss Thrall as our guest for the evening. As we started home we felt very much like Tiny Tim did when he said, "God bless us, every one."

The town seems to have become infested with dachshunds from the amount of baying that we hear lately.

Mrs. Harriet Weed has presented to the Library a handsome black-walnut book case. We wish to express our appreciation.

The Sigma Alpha Gamma held their annual wiener roast Oct. 1st. "A very enjoyable time was deported by all."

The departure of the Clan Alpine from Burdick Hall was another proposition which necessitated some new plan on the part of the Faculty. The idea then sprung up of a method by which the Hall could be kept running and also allow the clubs to exist. This was the Fraternal Council plan by which, if effected, will keep the Hall full of Freshmen each year, thereby accommodating both clubs and college.

MILDRED

Spring came. And we were glad and smiled,
For by her side
With happy pride
She led a little child.
Days past. We knew not length of time,
For tripping feet
And laughter sweet
Made life a golden rhyme.
She grew. We loved her womanhood;
Unselfish, pure,
Strong to endure,
She thought the highest good.
Fall came, our sorrow cup to bring;
For she had gone
With Spring at dawn
To Heav'n, the home of Spring. —'21.

Y. M. AND Y. W.

The Cabinet members of the Y. W. C. A. report a most enjoyable time at their house party, which was held at the home of Mrs. Samuel Ellis. There were eats and fun a plenty and all appreciate so much the kindness of Mrs. Ellis.

The first meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was held Sunday evening, September 28. It was led by Miss Betty Fassett. Reports were also given by the Cabinet members concerning their work for the coming year.

A very interesting meeting was held Sunday evening, Oct. 5, led by Miss Lois Cuglar, whose subject was "There Is So Much Good In The Worst Of Us."

Girls, remember every Sunday evening at 7:15, at the Brick and let us make this year the best ever for Y. W.

Burdet Crofoot told of the history of the Association and its work, last Sunday at the Gothic.

A joint meeting of the two Associations will soon be held to make plans for their 100% membership drive.

The Passing of Cinderella

THE quaint little childhood tale of the poor kitchen maid is not so far removed from recent reality.

For we all recall the staggering piles of dishes, the dust-strewn floor, the tubs of clothes, the treadmill task at the sewing machines! Yes, Cinderella-like was the housework of yesterday.

And now, the girl of 1920 looks to electricity—most tractable of handmaidens—as the fairy prince who makes life easier and fuller.

Just a push of the button—and tiny electric motors sweep, wash dishes or clothes; clean, scour and polish; make ice or ice cream, run the sewing machine and play the piano or phonograph.

While the motors do the work, other electric appliances are distributed about the house to make good living more convenient. Electric cooking utensils, hair driers, cigar lighters, burglar alarms, door bells, and furnace regulators, are now operated by the magic wand of electric power.

The development of the miniature motors for the kitchen and electrical devices was made possible by the rapid progress in experience gained by the General Electric Company's Engineers, whose efforts in the application of electricity for every sort of industrial endeavor during the past quarter century have brought freedom from the drudgery of other days.

Last issue of the Fiat was of ordinary size and of ordinary material. It should have been bigger we now realize, (maybe it'll grow if you keep it long enough), but it's too late now, so we're going to try to do better this time. We've got the deep stuff off our minds and can now settle down to thorough enjoyment of presenting the paper to you. So don't be discouraged.

SENIOR SEAL

"None but Seniors and Alumni may wear the college seal—" says the Oracle. But we might revise this to: "Anyone with $2.15 can wear the seal—except Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors." Does this seem right? No. But how are we going to prevent every Tom, Dick and Harry from wearing one? We want to have some distinction between a graduate of Alfred and an Ag student who once spent two months in this place. Our Alma Mater justifies it.

We looked up this question. Our local jeweler has the seal copyrighted and refuses to abide by any rules made by the student body—and from a purely commercial view-point he's right. But an idea has come to us which will be of immense benefit, both in allowing the jeweler to continue in business and let our graduates have some distinction. It is this: have a Senior seal (copyright it before its made), use this Senior seal for Seniors each year, simply changing the numerals on it. Then in time no one but Seniors and Alumni would wear this seal. And allow anyone to wear the College seal.

There is just one difficulty with this. When told of the plan, an old alumnus looked at his seal and said, "What are you going to do, leave us out of it?" We wouldn't feel justified in adopting any such plan without the graduates having something to say.

because they're just as much a part of Alfred as we are. So we're going to try to reach them through the Fiat and any other way we can. And we want them to send in their ideas. It may seem now like leaving them out, but while our respect is for them, our efforts are for a better Alfred in the future.

For a small school such as ours, to have a paper every week is a big task. Many are the dead weeks in winter when nothing of importance occurs. And we don't want to put out a paper filled with "filler" such as "Lives of Old Men," (whom we never heard of and never will.) So our hopes are palpitating over about 30 pages of editorials. But what are "editorials" to the general student—something which sounds educated and means nothing—if impersonal. And that dry kind of article is very unattractive. But supposing they were written seriously and still humorous, cynical or with irony? Wouldn't that relieve that parched atmosphere? We think it would, so we're going to try to write articles that an ordinary person can read and possibly enjoy.

Maybe you don't realize this one thing: no matter whether you like a thing or dislike it, if you're accustomed to it and it passes away, you miss it. Now that's just what we want to do. We want you either to feel strongly adverse to the article or solidly for it. Then when you depart into the world maybe you'll say "I certainly don't like the views of that paper but,—well send it to me for a year anyway."

We had an article in last Fiat about Chapel. We said it always did someone good. Now we wish to give an instance. Last Tuesday we noticed two girls of our younger set, who regularly attend church and chapel—it made us proud so regular did they go. But for some reason they seemed to be in the spirit of the "lighter vein" that day, and the prayer seemed particularly amusing. Yet somehow—I can't tell why—but it struck us that they might have postponed their funny faces at least during the prayer. We are sorry it happened.

In accord with our new idea of a lighter atmosphere all through the paper, we have started a column on which we wished the title of "Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree." While naming this we felt very unoriginal, so we added a little expression of our own, as a sort of explanation to those who wouldn't quite understand. But on second thought (we often think twice), we discovered another name which, considering the text of some of the slams, might well term the column "The Irony Mallet." Still we thought we'd better wait till we got more into the knack of pounding individuals. One will have to be very obscure from now on to avoid these little pen-jabs.

FIAT CONSTITUTION

The Constitution of this paper was made when the paper was permanently established. Since that time it has had little consideration, and like an old uninhabited house, over-grown with weeds,—has become to some, haunted. So we thought it a good plan to publish it, in this issue, just the way it stands—or reposes, and submit it for your consideration. It is badly in need of renovating—and might possibly stand a thorough overhauling. But few of its provisions are carried out, and while it isn't exactly necessary it might be a good idea to have a constitution we could use and use squarely. It is a whole lot more business-like.

Constitution

ARTICLE I

NAME AND BOARD

Sec. 1. This publication shall be issued in the form of a newspaper, once each week during the school year, under the name of "Fiat Lux," by a board of editors, consisting of one (1) Editor-in-Chief; six (6) Associate Editors, one of whom Alumni Editors; one Business Manager; and Alumni Editors; one usiness Manager; and one Assistant Business Manager.

ARTICLE II

ELECTIONS

Sec. 1. The Editor-in-Chief shall be elected by the retiring Board at the last regular board meeting of the school year.

Sec. 2. The Associate Editors shall be appointed by the Editor-in-Chief, giving the Ag and College student bodies respectively, an equal representation, namely, three (3) members from each.

Sec. 3. The Assistant Editor shall be chosen from the Associate Editors by the Editor-in-Chief.

Sec. 4. The Alumni Editors are to be elected by the Alumni of the N. Y. S. A. and College, at their own discretion.

Sec. 5. The Business Manager shall be elected, by ballot at a joint meeting of the Ag and College student bodies. This meeting to be called by the Editor-in-Chief during the third week in March. One assistant manager shall be chosen from the Agricultural School and one from the College, these to be elected at separate meetings of their respective student bodies during the third week in March.

ARTICLE III

ELIGIBILITY

Sec. 1. The Editor-in-Chief shall have served at least one year as a member of the board, or shall have shown efficiency as a Staff Reporter.

At the first regular Board meeting the Editor-in-Chief shall appoint from the Board, a secretary of the Board.

At the last meeting of the Board the Editor-in-Chief shall appoint three members of the Board to act as an Auditing Committee.

Sec. 2. The Assistant Editor shall assume the duties of the Editor-in-Chief in case of disability or absence of the Editor-in-Chief.

Sec. 3. The Associate Editors shall be responsible to the Editor-in-Chief for the work of the respective departments to which they are assigned, and shall have the power of appointing staff reporters to collect material for the department.

Sec. 4. The Alumni Editors shall submit all news for the Alumni Department to the Editor-in-Chief or Assistant. They shall have no voice in regard to the conduct of the "Fiat."

Sec. 5. No Freshman shall be eligible to serve as a member of the Board.

Sec. 6. All members of the Board must be "paid" subscribers to the "Fiat Lux" at the time of their appointment or election. Any member of the Board for the current year shall be considered as a paid subscriber.

Sec. 7. Any student of the University is eligible to appointment as a Staff Reporter.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS AND DUTIES

Sec. 1. It shall be the duty of the Editor-in-Chief to appoint the Associate Editors. He shall call all the meetings of the Board, and be empowered to call a meeting of the student body, at any time that it may be deemed necessary. He shall assign the work for which the various departmental editors shall be held responsible.

The Editor-in-Chief and Assistant shall receive, select, and arrange the material for each edition of the "Fiat," read the proof, and be responsible for all material published.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Board to keep a record of all meetings of the Board and all business transacted at these meetings.

ARTICLE V

CLOTHES OF ONE IDEA FOR MEN OF MANY IDEAS

This is a store of one idea for men of many ideas. Our one idea is to offer only such reliable clothing as conforms to the highest approved standards of good taste.

The many ideas of men regarding their clothing change with the seasons, but the one fundamental idea of this store—conformity to good taste—is established for all time.

Stein Bloch Smart. Clothcraft Guaranteed and Griffon Clothes for Men and Young Men give the wearer a forcible demonstration of this one idea. Here one will find that the merit of Our Clothes is more than skin deep. Added to the well known high quality of fabric and style is the tailoring.

Look beneath the surface for the quality of your Fall Clothes. Suits and Overcoats from $25 up

1921 KANAKADEA
The Kanakadea this year promises to be very successful. The staff is well at work into the details of arranging the book, and there's to be a repetition of the aim of former years—to get the book out early in the spring. But this year they're going to do it—so they claim. Of course we don't believe it till we see it, but this Junior class—just as all Junior classes—have good intentions. So we'll hope for the best.

ALUMNI AND FACULTY

Clarke-Elder
Announcements have been received of the marriage of Andrew Glenn Elder of Seattle, Washington, and Miss Chloe Sherman Clarke, on Monday, Sept. 15th, at Seattle. Mrs. Elder graduated from Alfred University with the class of 1911. Mr. and Mrs. Elder will reside in Seattle where Mr. Elder is a certified accountant on the staff of Price Waterhouse & Co., of that city.

Wilson-Walsh
On Monday, August the eleventh occurred the wedding of Miss Mary Elizabeth Wilson to Mr. Harold Walsh of New York City, at the home of the bride's parents, in Westwood, New Jersey. Mrs. Walsh is a member of the graduating class of 1919. Mr. Walsh is a stationer in New York City. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Walsh will reside in East Orange, N. J., at 307 William St.

Saunders-Jeffrey
On August the twenty-fifth, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Saunders, Miss Mildred Saunders was married to Mr. William Maxson Jeffrey of Denver, Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey will reside in Denver, Colorado, where he has a position as highway engineer in the office of public roads of the State of Colorado.

Cartwright-Anderson
Miss Eunice Anderson was married to Mr. Claud W. Cartwright on Aug. 23d, at the home of the bride's parents, in Panama, New York. Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright will reside in Kane, Pa., where Mr. Cartwright is teaching for the third year in the High School there.

Laura Keegan '18, is teaching French in the Binghamton High School.

Finla Crawford '15, is teaching in the History Department of Syracuse University.

Fritjof Hildebrand '18, is teaching Manual Training in the Olean High School this year.

Clifford Potter '18, is instructor of Manual Training and Wood Working in the University.

Hilda Ward '19, is very favorably located as instructor of English in the Huntington High Schools, Long Island.

Miss Hazel Perkins '17, visited her sister Esther during the last week-end, in Alfred. Hazel is teaching this year in Andover.

Ruth Canfield '19, spent six weeks of the summer vacation teaching Ceramics in a Community Pottery in Stockbridge, Mass.

Harold S. Nash '18, is an assistant to Arthur Baggs in the Marblehead Pottery at Marblehead, Massachusetts, for the coming year.

We understand that Meredith Maxson '18, is working in a brokerage office in New York City. His address we may find later.

Miss Myrtle Meritt '13, left Alfred last week to resume her duties as instructor of Ceramics in the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburg.

Mrs. Harold Walsh, whom we know better as Mary Elizabeth Wilson '19, is going to visit Alfred friends in the near future. We are glad to anticipate her visit.

Dorothy Stevens '19, is spending the year at her home in Port Leyden. We are glad to learn that she is steadily improving in health, also that she is giving the mending process enough time.

William Whitford '11, of the Chicago University is to be congratulated on his success as teacher of Ceramics in that school. He recently received word that his salary will be increased by $500 when he returns from his 4 months' vacation.

Alice Ayars '19, has arrived in Coconut Grove, Florida, where the Ayers family are to be at home in the future. Alice agrees that Florida is a wonderfully attractive place, but that Alfred still has attractions quite too numerous to forget.

On Saturday evening, September 6, occurred an impromptu reunion of the class of 1917. It took the form of a corn roast on the old Fair grounds in Alfred and later the party adjourned to the home of Harold and Edward Saunders. Here the idea was conceived of publishing a newspaper of the class of 1917. The little paper is naturally of chief interest to the class of 1917, but we college students do like to get hold of a copy and find out where our old friends are and how they are doing.

Births
Two little ladies have recently come to make their homes with members of our faculty—Gene Ruth came to the home of Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Shaw on the tenth of September, and Margaret Pitman arrived at Prof. and Mrs. Wingate's home on the 25th of September. The Fiat Lux and the students of Alfred welcome these new comers as future alumni.

FIAT CONSTITUTION
Continued from page three amended at any time by a majority vote of the Board, and a majority vote in ratification, of the members of the University student body.

Sec. 5. The Business Manager shall be responsible for all funds received and disbursed for the "Fiat." It shall be his duty to keep correct accounts of all business transacted for the Board and to deliver up these accounts together with all funds on hand belonging to the Fiat, to the Auditing Committee at the expiration of his term.

The Business Manager and Assistant shall be responsible for the printing and distribution of the copies of each edition; for the collecting of all subscriptions and securing new subscriptions. They may solicit such advertising matter as they deem advisable.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the Auditing Committee to receive the accounts and funds belonging to the "Fiat" from the retiring Business Manager. They shall audit the accounts and deliver the books and funds to the new Manager. If the Committee find that the cash receipts for the current year have exceeded the sum of the running expenses and the balance on hand at the beginning of the year, they shall deduct forty per cent of this excess and deliver two-thirds to the retiring Business Manager and one-third to the retiring Assistant Business Manager.

BURDICK HALL ORGANIZES

At a meeting held Tuesday evening, October 7, the men of Burdick Hall completed the organization of their Club. Saron Husted '21, who is manager of the Hall this year, presided, and the members discussed several matters pertaining to boarding and rooming conditions. Robert Clark '22, was elected Steward for the coming year, and T. J. Ahearn, Robert Boyd, and H. Ivan Lamphere were chosen to juggle the trays and manure the dishes. Some of the more studious members begged for quieter evenings and succeeded in having a rule adopted which prohibits concerts and other noise after 10 P. M. This idea was inspired by the "quiet hour" at the Brick, but the men at Burdick refuse to adopt the other well-known rules on "special permits" and "late lights."

With a membership of 24 consisting of 1 Junior 2 Sophomores, 16 Frosh, 4 Ag men, and 1 from High School—Burdick Hall looks forward to a prosperous, helpful and interesting year.

JOURNALISM CLASS TO PUBLISH NEWSPAPER

Dr. Titworth's class in journalism has announced its intention of publishing a weekly newspaper. This paper will not, of course, actually be printed, but it will be read in class each week. Here is a chance to get all of the local news with no subscription to pay and even the trouble of reading is spared you. The class will have a public session every Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 in the English room. The paper will be read at that time.
