First Boffer Club (Foam Sword Fighting) Meeting This Thursday!

Our first meeting is this Thursday in the Kenyon-Allen room at 7 p.m. The first 20 or so minutes will be used to introduce the club, the rules and other such business-type things.

Once we're done the introduction we are going to do a sword-building workshop. We're going to buy a lot of supplies out of pocket for people to build their first foam swords.

We're charging $3 for the parts to a basic, one-hander sword. If you want to buy your own supplies and bring them, that is fine too. If you want us to pick you up something special on our shopping trip email us.

Saucer sleds to make Spartan shields are currently $5 at Walmart so contact us if that is something that interests you. Tools will be available though if you have scissors/saws/tape you are encouraged to bring it along. If you already have swords please bring them to be approved/used as an example.

For more info join the facebook group and/or sign up for our email list by emailing alfredboffer@gmail.com.

This club definitely follows the age-old principle of the more the merrier so bring your friends.
