On Wednesday, March 11, Alfred University will be switching telecommunications providers. This is an exciting change that will ultimately decrease our overall telecommunications costs and provide better service to our campus.

As we are making the switchover, some users may encounter 2 to 4 minutes of service disruption. If you encounter any disruptions lengthier than just a few minutes, please email the ITS help desk at helpdesk@alfred.edu.

Pete Seeger: The Storm King with Jeff Haynes Spoken Words & Music

Thursday, March 19 at 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

This multi-media program presents Pete Seeger's spoken words - in his own recorded voice - set to live music and video based on the Grammy nominated audio project conceived and produced by world-renowned percussionist and producer Jeff Haynes.

Jeff will present new music created by musicians from traditions as diverse as African music, blues, bluegrass, classical guitar, folk, jazz and Native American music to accompany and interact with Pete Seeger's voice - painting an evocative aural backdrop for Pete's most engaging stories, narratives, and poems reflecting his lifelong dedication to human rights, environmental issues, and boundless hope for humanity.

Haynes and Seeger, working closely for over five years, have created something spectacular. See www.jeffhaynesmusic.com.

This program is funded in part by the NYS Council on the Arts Decentralization Regrant Program with support from Gov. Andrew Cuomo and the NYS Legislature and administered by the Cattaraugus County Arts Council. The Auditorium also thanks the Allegany Arts Association for its support of this program.

This library-sponsored program is free and open to the general public.
