Media Mondays: Killing Us Softly IV

This newest edition of Jean Kilbourne's influential and award-winning Killing Us Softly series shows how the advertising industry continues to reinforce, and glamorize, a regressive and debased notion of femininity. Using a wide range of contemporary print and television ads, Kilbourne lays bare a misogynistic fantasy world of undernourished, oversexed, and objectified women, and examines these images against the real-world backdrop of eating disorders, men's violence against women, and the political backlash against feminism. This film is FREE and open to all! A short discussion will follow the film.

WHEN: Monday, April 1

WHERE: Holmes Auditorium

Alfred University's Welcome Week program is designed to assist new students in becoming part of the AU community and to help them feel comfortable with academic and student life on campus. In order to accomplish this, we rely on Welcome Week Volunteers, a team of enthusiastic and knowledgeable AU students who want to make a difference for their peers. Being a Welcome Week Volunteer, involves participation in training August 19-21 and the Welcome Week program itself, August 22-25. Applications are in the Center for Student Involvement and on AU Connect. They are due in the Center for Student Involvement, Powell Campus Center, by 4:30 p.m., Monday, April 15th.
